REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

To the Advisory Committee of the Centennial Bank Employee Savings & Profit Sharing Plan

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits of the Centennial Bank Employee Savings & Profit Sharing Plan (the Plan) as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Centennial Bank Employee Savings & Profit Sharing Plan as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplemental schedule of assets (held at end of year), referred to as "supplemental information," is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements but is supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. This supplemental information is the responsibility of the Plan's management. The supplemental information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the 2002 basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

/s/ Symonds, Evans & Company, P.C.

CENTENNIAL BANK EMPLOYEE
SAVINGS & PROFIT SHARING PLAN

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2002

1. Description of the Plan

The following description of the Centennial Bank Employee Savings & Profit Sharing Plan (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General

: The Plan is a defined contribution plan established for the benefit of eligible employees of the former Centennial Bancorp and its former subsidiary, Centennial Bank (collectively, "Centennial"). Effective November 15, 2002, Centennial merged with Umpqua Holdings Corporation and its subsidiary, Umpqua Bank (collectively, "Umpqua"), with Umpqua as the surviving corporation. In conjunction with the merger of Centennial and Umpqua, effective January 1, 2003, all participant contributions are being remitted to the Umpqua Bank 401(k) and Profit Sharing Plan (the Umpqua Plan). In March 2003, the Plan was merged into the Umpqua Plan, and all net assets of the Plan were transferred to the Umpqua Plan. Centennial and Umpqua are collectively referred to as "the Employer."

The Plan is administered by an advisory committee (the Plan's Advisory Committee) designated by the Employer. Merrill Lynch Trust Company of California (Merrill Lynch) is the trustee for the Plan ("the Trustee"). The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (ERISA).

Eligibility

: All employees of Centennial who are age 21 or older are eligible to contribute to the Plan beginning the first day of the month following the completion of one hour of service. Such employees are also eligible to receive matching and/or profit sharing contributions beginning the first day of the Plan year commencing prior to the first anniversary date of such employees' commencement date.

Contributions

: Each participant may elect to contribute a portion of his or her annual compensation to the Plan up to the maximum allowed under the Internal Revenue Code (the IRC). Such contributions are withheld from compensation as a payroll deduction and are paid to the Plan by the Employer. In addition, at the Employer's discretion, the Employer may make matching and/or profit sharing contributions up to the maximum allowed by the IRC. During the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, the Employer made matching contributions to the Plan of approximately $0.50 for each dollar contributed by the participants up to 6% of each participant's compensation. In addition to the matching contributions, the Employer made profit sharing contributions to the Plan of approximately $185,000 and $166,000 during the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

December 31, 2002

1. Description of the Plan (continued)

As of December 31, 2002 and 2001, the Plan owed $34,543 and $1,138, respectively, to certain participants for employee contributions that were made in excess of IRC limitations.

Participants' accounts

: Each participant has an individual account which is maintained by the Trustee. Participant contributions are credited to the individual accounts, along with the Employer's matching and/or profit sharing contributions. Participants allocate their contributions into one or more investment funds (see Note 3).

Earnings and losses for each fund are allocated to the individual accounts based on the individual's account balance as compared to the related fund's total balance. Forfeitures of terminated participants' nonvested accounts are allocated to the remaining participants' accounts in the same manner in which Centennial makes contributions to participants' accounts. Accumulated forfeited amounts to be allocated to the remaining participants' accounts totaled approximately $35,000 and $37,000 as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively. The benefit to which the participant is entitled is the vested portion of the participant's account.

Vesting

: Participants are immediately vested in their elective contributions, all rollovers from other qualified plans, and the actual earnings and losses on these contributions and rollovers. These amounts cannot be forfeited for any reason. Vesting in the participants' share of the Employer's matching and/or profit sharing contributions and actual earnings or losses thereon is based on years of credited service, as follows:

Years of credited service	Vesting percentage
Less than 2	None
2	20%
3	40%
4	60%
5	80%
6 or more	100%

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Description of the Plan (continued)

Payment of benefits: Upon retirement, death, disability, or termination, participants (or their beneficiaries) may elect to receive either a lump-sum cash amount equal to the value of the participant's vested interest in his or her account (the vested interest), installments of the vested interest over a period of time, or a distribution in their respective shares of the Employer's common stock (in accordance with Plan provisions).

Plan termination and amendment

: Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Employer has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA. In the event of the Plan's termination, participants would become fully vested in their accounts, and the value of all participant accounts would be distributed to them. Additionally, the Employer has the authority to amend the Plan at its discretion, except that no funds can revert from the Plan to the Employer.

Trustee and administrative fees

: Trustee fees are charged directly to participant accounts and, therefore, are included in net appreciation (depreciation) in fair value of investments in the accompanying statements of changes in net assets available for benefits. Administrative fees are paid by the Employer or deducted from the Plan's assets at the discretion of the Plan's Advisory Committee.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

Basis of accounting

: The accompanying financial statements and supplemental schedule have been prepared under the accrual method of accounting. The preparation of financial statements and supplemental schedule in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of net assets available for benefits and changes therein. Actual amounts could differ from those estimates.

Investment valuation

: The Plan's investments are stated at fair value. The investments in common stock of the Umpqua Holdings Corporation Stock Fund and the Centennial Bancorp Stock Fund are valued at quoted market prices. The fair value of shares of registered investment companies and investments in the common and collective trust are based on the market value of the underlying investments as determined by the Trustee.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2002

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis.

Due to changes in economic conditions, interest rates, and common stock prices, the fair value of the Plan's investments can be volatile. Consequently, the fair value of the Plan's investments can significantly change in the near term as a result of such volatility.

Income recognition

: Contributions from the participants are accrued in the period in which they are deducted from wages in accordance with compensation deferral agreements. Employer matching contributions are accrued as earned by the participants. Employer profit sharing contributions are accrued as determined by the Employer.

The difference in fair value from one year to the next is recorded as net appreciation (depreciation) in fair value of investments in the accompanying statements of changes in net assets available for benefits. Net appreciation (depreciation) in fair value of investments also includes realized gains and losses on such investments during the year.

Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Payment of benefits: Benefits are recorded when paid.

6. Income tax status

The Internal Revenue Service has determined and informed the Employer by a letter dated November 15, 2001, that the Plan and related trust are designed in accordance with the applicable sections of the IRC. Although the Plan has been amended since receiving the determination letter, the Plan's Advisory Committee and the Plan's legal counsel believe that the Plan is designed and is being operated in compliance with the applicable provisions of the IRC. Therefore, they believe that the Plan was qualified and the related trust was tax exempt as of December 31, 2002 and 2001. Consequently, no provision for income taxes has been included in the accompanying financial statements.
