PART I

The Company's forward-looking statements in this Annual Report on Form 10-K and those that may be made in the future by or on behalf of Careside, Inc., including statements about the market and opportunity for the Company's products, revenue growth and profitability potential, regulatory approvals, competition, the ability to control expenses and international expansion, are based on assumptions about many important factors. Several important factors may cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by these forward-looking statements. These factors include the Company's limited operating history, and lack of profitability, its need for additional financing, the acceptance of the Company's products by the medical community, product development risks, the level of third party reimbursement for medical tests, reliance on third party manufacturers, suppliers and distributors, retention of key personnel, competitive risks, protection of the Company's proprietary technology, and government regulation.

ITEM 1. BUSINESS

We have developed and sell a proprietary blood testing system. It is designed to decentralize laboratory operations. The system provides cost-effective, accurate test results within 10 to 15 minutes at the point-of-care, for a comprehensive menu of routine blood tests. Because it provides rapid test results, the Careside system can also perform blood tests required for critical care testing. The Careside system performs chemistry, electrochemistry, coagulation and hematology tests currently. We plan to offer immunochemistry tests for the Careside system later in 2001. Tests in these five different test categories comprise the vast majority of blood tests ordered. No other point-of-care product currently on the market offers as broad a menu of tests or combines these five test categories. Our goal is to make the Careside system the standard for routine and critical care blood testing. If we are successful, diagnostic information will travel more rapidly and healthcare costs for physicians, providers and payers will be reduced.

The Careside system consists of the Careside Analyzer and disposable test cartridges, the H-2000 and the Careside Connect. The Careside Analyzer is easy to use and can be operated by a non-technical person with appropriate training in connection with use of the device. Its software will enable the user to capture all data required to comply with the Clinical Laboratory Improvement Amendments of 1988. This law, commonly called CLIA, governs quality assurance and quality control processes and reporting for healthcare providers. The H-2000 is our hematology testing device. The Careside Connect is a data interface, which will link the Analyzer with the H-2000 and any other testing device. It also enables the electronic transmission of blood test results to our customers' information systems. We released the Careside Connect for sale in 2000.

The FDA has granted pre-market clearance for the Careside Analyzer and the H-2000, and pre-market clearance or exemption for 41 blood tests performed by the Analyzer and a 18-parameter hematology test for the H-2000, as well as tests for professional laboratory use. As part of our market strategy, we have received FDA approval for point-of-care testing for the Careside Analyzer, thereby enabling its use by non-technical personnel with appropriate training. Similar approvals will be sought for the H-2000 in 2001.

We have utilized strategic partners with specific design expertise and state-of-the-art technology in order to develop the Careside system rapidly, and on a cost-effective basis. Our partners' expertise is in the area of test reagents and the design and manufacture of medical instruments. Reagents are the materials within the test cartridges that react with a patient's blood. The Careside system then performs the test by analyzing the reaction between the reagent and the patient's blood. Currently, we have agreements with:

- . Fuji Photo Film Co., Ltd. for the supply of its dry film based chemistry reagents (exclusive); and
- . UMM Electronics, Inc. to design and manufacture the Careside Analyzer;

In addition, we have design and manufacturing agreements for the H-2000 and reagent solutions with:

- . Ysebaert to design and manufacture the H-2000; and

- . Aqua Solutions, Inc. to manufacture certain hematology solutions.

In 1993, SmithKline Beecham Clinical Laboratories, Inc. (SBCL) conducted extensive surveys of the point-of-care market. As a result, in 1994, SBCL started our predecessor business to develop the technology we use today. In November 1996, we acquired from SBCL the assets and contracts used in the predecessor business, including intellectual property, equipment and other assets, to continue the development of point-of-care diagnostic technology and to create a commercial product. This acquisition has resulted in the development and commercial launch of the Careside Analyzer.

Several senior members of our management team worked on this point-of-care project at SBCL, including W. Vickery Stoughton, our Chief Executive Officer, and Thomas H. Grove, Executive Vice President--Chief Technology Officer. SBCL has since been acquired by Quest Diagnostics Incorporated.

In June 1999, we completed our initial public offering. Our publicly traded common stock is listed on the American Stock Exchange under the ticker symbol "CSA", and our publicly traded warrants under the symbol "CSA.WS". In December 1999, we acquired Texas International Laboratories, Inc. (TIL) for common stock. TIL owned and marketed a proprietary hematology-testing device that we have renamed the Careside H-2000.

Edgar Filing: CARESIDE INC - Form 10-K

Our commercial product launch occurred in December 1999, at which time the Careside system offered 53 tests. During the first three months of 2000, unforeseen technical problems relating to electrochemistry tests were identified in the Careside Analyzer software and certain hardware components. Careside worked with its initial customers and with its suppliers during the remainder of 2000 and corrected these problems. The electrochemistry tests have been revised and modifications have been made to the Analyzer to improve its reliability. These changes were made and verified in the fourth quarter of 2000. At the end of 2000, the Careside Analyzer was re-launched into the market. The Careside system is being sold in the United States through our own sales force. We supplement our sales force with distribution agreements with third party distributors. We expect to finalize several of these agreements in the first six months of 2001.

We have executed a long-term supply agreement with Fuji Photo Film Co., Ltd. for the use of its dry film chemistry reagent technology. Although in dry form, the film uses the same technology as the wet reagent technology used in high volume commercial analyzers. The agreement replaces an earlier agreement with Fuji that was applicable only during the development stage of the Careside system. The new agreement continues to provide us with an exclusive supply of Fuji's dry film chemistry reagents for use in our point-of-care system for more than 30 chemistry tests. We have agreed to purchase our dry chemistry reagents exclusively from Fuji. Fuji is also developing additional chemistry tests at its expense. Any additional tests that Fuji develops may be available to us over the period of the existing agreement, which runs through 2003 and thereafter is automatically renewed on an annual basis.

In December 1999, we acquired Texas International Laboratories, Inc. (TIL) in an all-stock acquisition. TIL was a privately held corporation owned by Yves and Jean LeBihan. TIL was founded in 1983 and had developed a new hematology analyzer, the Hematil-2000, which we have renamed the Careside H-2000. This device was introduced to the market in April 1999 as a high quality, low cost hematology analyzer that was designed for both human and animal testing. We have one year remaining on an employment contract with Jean LeBihan and two years on a consulting agreement with Yves LeBihan. Jean LeBihan has responsibility for veterinary market sales of our products and assists the sales force with the sale of the H-2000 into the human market. Yves LeBihan works in developing international sales and assisting us in the development of future generations of hematology products. The H-2000 is currently being sold into China, Mexico, Brazil, Turkey, Egypt, Algeria, Korea and various South American countries through specific distribution agreements.

We have worked with an outside consultant/programmer to develop a software system for modeling the economic opportunity of specific point-of-care operations. This system is designed to develop a customer-specific economic model based on historical test volumes and all lab costs that would be incurred by using the Careside system. This software product has been made available to the Careside sales force.

ITEM 2. PROPERTIES

We lease approximately 16,000 square feet of space in Culver City, California for the research and development, validation, manufacture and assembly of disposable test cartridges and for product development. This lease has a term of seven years and expires in August 2005. It has a current monthly rent of $17,625, gradually increasing to $23,233 per month in the final lease year. We have an option to renew the lease for one additional five-year term at 95% of the fair market rental value. We believe that the Culver City facility is suitable to expand to $40 million in test cartridge revenues and will adequately serve our needs for the immediate future.

We also lease approximately 6,200 square feet of space in Culver City, California for use as our executive offices. This lease has a term of seven years and expires in April 2007 in the final lease year. It has a current monthly rent of $9,000, gradually increasing to $11,000 per month. We have an option to renew the lease for one additional five-year term at 95% of the fair market rental value.

We also lease approximately 1,500 square feet of office space in Houston, Texas for use as a veterinary office. This lease has a term of two years and expires in January 2003. It has a current monthly rent of $839, gradually increasing to $877 per month in the final lease year.

ITEM 7. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Overview

Development of the point-of-care technology used in the Careside system began in 1994 at SmithKline Beecham Clinical Laboratories, Inc. (SBCL), a subsidiary of SmithKline Beecham Corporation. In November 1996, we acquired the intellectual property, equipment and other assets from SBCL to continue the development of point-of-care diagnostic technology and to create a commercial product. As part of the consideration paid for the acquisition, SmithKline Beecham Corporation became an equity owner in Careside.

Since November 1996, we have devoted substantially all of our resources to research and development activities, establishment of a sales force and the administrative structures necessary to support operations. We have incurred losses since inception. As of December 31, 2000, the aggregate loss incurred was approximately $45.2 million. In the fourth quarter of 2000, Careside had substantially completed the development efforts of the Company's core product and began generating sales and increasing its focus on marketing efforts. In 1998, 1999 and for the first nine months of 2000, Careside was considered a development stage enterprise. Since its inception, Careside has generated minimal revenues and incurred significant losses. Careside anticipates incurring additional losses over at least the next year, and such losses are expected to increase as Careside expands its marketing activities.

Results of Operations

Years Ended December 31, 2000 and 1999

Sales and Cost of Sales. Sales increased to $741,000 in 2000 compared to $61,000 in 1999. The sales were predominately sales of Careside H-2000s, a product of the company we acquired in December 1999. The cost of sales represents the cost of instruments and reagents sold and the establishment of an excess reserve of $628,000 primarily for film cartridge inventory at year-end 2000. This reserve is to cover potential exposure on film and cartridge inventory that may force expiration issues, and for cartridges that may be sold below cost for validation purposes.

Research and Development Expenses--Product. Research and development expenses increased to $9.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2000. This compared to approximately $8.3 million in the same period in 1999. This reflects the efforts to revise the production design and software of the Careside Analyzer and to support additional test submissions to the FDA.

Research and Development Expenses--Software. Research and development expenses related to software increased to $898,000 for 2000 compared to $313,000 in the same period in 1999. This increase reflects the increase in staff and expenditures related to development of the Careside Connect software and related consulting.

Selling and Marketing Expenses. Selling and marketing expenses increased to $3.7 million for 2000 compared to $1.2 million in the same period in 1999. This increase reflects the preparations for the launch of the Careside system in 2000, including the full year effect of sales force salaries.

General and Administrative Expenses. General and administrative expenses increased to $2.1 million for 2000 compared to $1.1 million in the same period in 1999. This increase reflects the increase in expenditures related to being a public company, products liability insurance coverage, additional leased office space, salaries for additional administrative staff, and increased legal expense and investor relations efforts in 2000.

Goodwill. Goodwill amortization of $567,000 was recorded in 2000 associated with goodwill recorded related to the December 1999 acquisition of TIL. This compares with amortization of $37,000 which was recorded for part of December in 1999.

Net Interest Income (Expense). Interest income was $372,000 for the year ended December 31, 2000 as compared to $291,000 for the same period in 1999. This reflects slightly higher average levels of cash and cash equivalents available for investment. Interest expense was $495,000 for 2000 compared to $971,000 for 1999. This decrease is due to one-time non-cash interest charges incurred in 1999 associated with the cost of warrants granted to S.R. One in connection with the bridge loan facility and its partial conversion to preferred stock in 1999.

Net Loss. The net loss increased to approximately $16.7 million for the twelve months ended December 31, 2000 compared to $11.6 million for the same period in 1999. This increase reflects the increase in cost of sales due to the inventory reserve, increases in selling and marketing expense, goodwill amortization and administrative expenses partially offset by a decrease in interest expense associated with the S.R. One bridge loan.

Years Ended December 31, 1999 and 1998

Sales and Cost of Sales. Sales increased to $61,000 in 1999 compared to no prior sales in 1998. The sales were Careside H-2000s, a product of the company we acquired in December 1999. The cost of sales represents the cost of instruments and reagents sold.

Research and Development Expenses--Product. Research and development expenses remained basically unchanged for 1999 as compared to 1998. Total expense for 1999 was $8.25 million compared to approximately $8.30 million in the same period in 1998. This reflected the continued efforts to complete the production design of the Careside Analyzer and to support additional test submissions to the FDA.

Research and Development Expenses--Software. Research and development expenses related to software increased to $313,000 for 1999 compared to no expense in the same period in 1998. This increase reflects the initiation of efforts related to development of the Careside Connect and its software.

Selling and Marketing Expenses. Selling and marketing expenses increased to $1.2 million for 1999 compared to $249,000 in the same period in 1998. This increase reflects the preparations for the launch of the Careside system in 1999, including the partial year effect of hiring sales force staff.

General and Administrative Expenses. General and administrative expenses increased to $1.1 million for 1999 compared to $601,000 in the same period in 1998. This increase reflects the increase in efforts related to salaries for additional administrative staff, and increased legal expense and investor relations efforts after the initial public offering in 1999.

Goodwill. Goodwill amortization of $37,000 associated with goodwill recorded related to the December 1999 acquisition of Texas International Laboratories was recorded for part of one month in 1999. No such expense occurred in prior periods.

Net Interest Income (Expense). Interest income was $291,000 for the year ended December 31, 1999 as compared to the same period in 1998 at $234,000. This reflects comparable levels of cash and cash equivalents available for investment. Interest expense was $971,000 for 1999 compared to $22,000 in 1998. This increase reflects interest paid on the line-of-credit to purchase equipment initiated in late 1998, accrued interest on the S.R. One bridge loan, and the non-cash interest charges associated with the cost of warrants granted to S.R. One in connection with the bridge loan facility and its partial conversion to preferred stock in 1999.

Net Loss. The net loss increased to approximately $11.6 million for the twelve months ended December 31, 1999 compared to $8.9 million in the same period in 1998. This increase reflects the increase in selling and marketing, administrative expenses and interest expense on the line-of-credit to purchase equipment and the S.R. One bridge loan.

Years Ended December 31, 1998 and 1997

Research and Development Expenses. Research and development expenses increased to approximately $8.3 million for the year ended December 31, 1998 compared to approximately $5.9 million in the same period in 1997, an increase of 41 percent. This increase reflects increased payments to third parties for the development of the CareSide Analyzer and increased staffing for additional test development and submissions to the FDA.

Selling and Marketing Expenses. Selling and marketing expenses increased to $249,000 for the year ended December 31, 1998 compared to $85,000 in the same period in 1997, an increase of 193 percent. This increase reflects the increase in the preliminary sales and marketing efforts and the full year effect of marketing staff salaries.

General and Administrative Expenses. General and administrative expenses increased to $601,000 for the year ended December 31, 1998 compared to $555,000 in the same period in 1997, an increase of 8 percent.

Net Interest Income (Expense). Interest income was approximately the same for the year ended December 31, 1998 as compared to the same period in 1997 at $234,000 and $214,000, respectively. This reflects comparable levels of cash and cash equivalents available for investment. Interest expense was $22,000 in 1998 compared to $8,000 in 1997. This increase reflects relatively higher borrowing in 1998.

Net Loss. The net loss was approximately $8.9 million for the year ended December 31, 1998 compared to approximately $6.3 million in the same period in 1997, an increase of 41%. This increase reflects the increase in research and development expenses and preliminary sales and marketing efforts.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

We have financed our operations since inception primarily through the net proceeds generated from the issuance of common stock, long-term debt and certain short-term borrowings that were subsequently converted into equity securities. As of December 31, 2000, we have received net proceeds aggregating approximately $51.8 million from these transactions.

Edgar Filing: CARESIDE INC - Form 10-K

Net cash used in operating activities for the year ended December 31, 2000 was approximately $15.7 million. For the year ended December 31, 2000, cash used in operating activities primarily represents the net loss for the period and increases in inventories offset by an increase in depreciation and amortization, and accounts payable, and a decrease in accrued expenses. Net cash used in operating activities was approximately $9.4 million for the year ended December 31, 1999. This represents the net loss for the year offset by an increase in depreciation and amortization and increases in inventories partially offset by an increase in accrued expenses. Net cash used in operating activities was approximately $7.7 million for the year ended December 31, 1998. Cash used for operations in that year was primarily related to funding expansion of research and development activities as well as the establishment of an administrative infrastructure.

Cash used in investing activities for the purchase of property and equipment was approximately $2.0 million and $3.8 million and $2.0 million for the years ended December 31, 2000, 1999 and 1998, respectively. The cash used in 2000 was primarily for the acquisition of manufacturing equipment and laboratory equipment used in research and development.

At December 31, 2000, our principal source of liquidity was approximately $1.8 million in cash and cash equivalents.

In December 1998, we entered into an agreement with an equipment lease financing company regarding a $2.5 million facility secured by specific equipment. Each draw will be a separate loan under the facility. We drew the remaining amount in early 2000 secured by manufacturing equipment for cartridge assembly that we had previously purchased. Approximately $2.4 million of this facility was drawn by December 2000 and was secured by our existing equipment. Each equipment loan has a 48-month term and bears an interest rate of approximately 14% per annum adjusted for an index rate based on four-year U.S. Treasury Notes at the time of borrowing.

In addition, we entered into an agreement for bridge financing with S.R. One, Limited in December 1998. Under this agreement, $1.5 million was funded in December 1998 and $1.5 million was funded in January 1999. In June 1999, S.R. One, Limited agreed to convert $1 million of the $3 million loan, together with accrued interest at the rate of 8% on $1 million, into shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock. The conversion price was $6.375, which was 85% of the initial public offering price per unit. S.R. One received 162,914 shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock. Each share of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock was in turn converted on July 1, 2000, at the option of the holder, into one share of our common stock and one warrant to purchase an additional share of our common stock. All accrued and unpaid dividends with respect to shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock were converted by S.R. One were also converted into units at the initial public offering price per unit. The exercise price and other terms of the warrant received on the conversion were the same as the warrants included in units sold in the offering. The remaining $2 million of the loan matures in June 2001. At that time, we expect either to repay the $2 million balance on the bridge financing with the proceeds of a new loan or to negotiate to extend the term or convert the balance of it into preferred or common equity. The annual interest rate on the remaining $2 million increased to 10% on July 1, 2000. S. R. One has the option to convert all or any portion of the remaining loan, plus accrued interest thereon, into shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock. This Series A Convertible Preferred Stock would be issued to S.R. One on the same basis as the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock that was issued to S. R. One in connection with the $1 million conversion discussed above.

We issued a bridge warrant to S.R. One, Limited in connection with the bridge financing. The bridge warrant was exercisable for the number of shares of common stock equal to $750,000 divided by 85% of the initial public offering price of the common stock. The number of warrants doubled if the loan was not repaid by June 30, 1999. As part of the conversion of a portion of the bridge financing into shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, the bridge warrant was modified such that it will be exercisable in all events for the number of shares of common stock which is equal to $1,500,000 divided by $6.375, which is 85% of the initial public offering price per unit. Upon completion of our initial public offering, the bridge warrant became exercisable for 235,294 shares of common stock. The bridge warrant has an exercise price of $6.375. The bridge warrant was exercisable at December 31, 1999 and will expire on June 16, 2004.

In March 2000, we sold 1,184,091 shares of common stock in a private placement for $8.77 per share. Proceeds, net of approximately $840,000 of offering costs, amounted to approximately $9.5 million. These shares were subsequently registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission in April 2000. As part of this transaction, warrants to purchase 101,305 shares of common stock were issued to the placement agent and contingent warrants to purchase 154,247 shares of common stock were issued. During the third quarter, the conditions triggering exercisability of these warrants were met. A total of 130,092 of these warrants were exercised prior to their expiration on December 15, 2000.

In September 2000, we raised an additional $615,000 of net proceeds in a private placement of 150 shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock and 75,000 warrants to purchase common stock. That financing included the placement of a warrant to purchase an additional $1,000,000 of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock which was exercised in November 2000. It also included the placement of callable two year warrants exercisable for up to 4,000,000 shares of common stock, subject to conditions, in multiples of twenty shares of common stock at an exercise price of $14.00 per share. We can call the common stock warrants at any time. They may be exercised within two days of the date of call at a price equal to 95% of the average trading price over the two days prior to the date of the call. The Series B Convertible Preferred Stock is convertible into our common stock at 95% of an average of the ten lowest trading prices during the thirty days before the date of conversion. Pursuant to Section 713 of the American Stock Exchange Company Guide, we may at present only issue up to an aggregate of 1,797,361 shares of common stock upon conversion of our Series B Convertible Preferred Stock and exercise of the callable two year warrants to purchase common stock issued in connection with the purchase of our Series B Convertible Preferred Stock without shareholder approval. At our 2001 annual meeting, we plan to seek our shareholders' approval of the issuance of the additional shares of common stock in excess of 1,797,361 shares that may be issued in connection with the conversion of our Series B Convertible Preferred Stock and the exercise of the callable two year warrants to purchase common stock issued in connection with the purchase of our Series B Convertible Preferred Stock.

In a series of related transactions in November 2000, December 2000 and January 2001, the company raised $3,942,000 of net proceeds in a private placement of 1,742,951 shares of common stock and 87,148 warrants to purchase common stock.

At December 31, 2000, our current liquidity and sales revenue expected after 2000 are projected to be sufficient to fund our operating expenses and capital requirements for at least 3 months. The Company is currently working with an investment bank to arrange an equity financing transaction. To the extent that we need additional funds in connection with generating our commercial product sales, we expect to borrow funds to build sufficient cartridge inventory to meet the needs that would result from anticipated sales. We also expect that the development of additional tests will require research expenditures at a level lower than past spending for test development. Sales and marketing activities will require hiring and training additional staff in 2001. This estimate of the period for which we expect our available sources of cash to be sufficient to meet our funding needs is a forward looking statement that involves risks and uncertainties. There can be no assurance that we will be able to meet our capital requirements for this period as a result of certain factors set forth under "Risk Factors--Additional Funding May Not Be Available" and elsewhere in our registration statement on Form S-3 on file with the SEC dated September 27, 2000. In the event our capital requirements are greater than estimated, we may need to raise additional capital to fund our research and development activities, to scale-up manufacturing activities and to expand our sales and marketing efforts. Our future liquidity and capital funding requirements will depend on numerous factors, including the extent to which our products gain market acceptance, the exercise of outstanding warrants to purchase common stock, the timing of regulatory actions regarding our products, the costs and timing of expansions of sales, marketing and manufacturing activities, procurement and enforcement of patents important to our business, and the impact of competitors' products. There can be no assurance that such additional capital will be available on terms acceptable to us, if at all. Furthermore, any additional equity financing may be dilutive to stockholders, and debt financing, if available, may include restrictive covenants. If adequate funds are not available, we may be forced to curtail our operations significantly or to obtain funds through entering into collaborative agreements or other arrangements on unfavorable terms. Our failure to raise capital on acceptable terms could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition or results of operations and our ability to continue as a going concern.

Edgar Filing: CARESIDE INC - Form 10-K

Income Taxes

As of December 31, 2000, we had approximately $33.7 million and $1,048,000 of net operating loss and research and development credit carryforwards, respectively, for federal income tax purposes, which begin to expire in 2011. These amounts reflect different treatment of expenses for tax reporting than are used for financial reporting. The Tax Reform Act of 1986 contains certain provisions that may limit our ability to utilize net operating loss and tax credit carryforwards in any given year. We experienced a change in ownership interest in excess of 50% as defined under the Tax Reform Act upon the first closing of our 1997 equity financing and by means of the private placements in 2000. We do not believe that these changes in ownership will have any significant impact on our ability to utilize our net operating loss and tax credit carryforwards. There can be no assurance that ownership changes in future periods will not significantly limit our use of existing or future net operating loss and tax credit carryforwards.

Classified Board of Directors

The Board of Directors is divided into three classes. In 2000, each class contained three directors. Directors within each class are elected to serve three-year terms and one-third of the directors sit for election at each annual meeting of our stockholders. Mr. Smith resigned from the Board at the end of 2000. In addition, Dr. Grove and Mr. Koch ceased to be voting directors in early 2001, though they continue to attend all meetings of the Board. The Board thus contracted to six directors in January 2001. Mr. Flatley and Ms. Mackie serve in the class whose term expires in 2001. Mr. Stoughton, Mr. Brenner and Mr. MacDonald serve in the class whose term expires in 2002, and Mr. Kermes serves in the class whose term expires in 2003. A proposal to be voted on at our annual shareholders' meeting would extend Mr. Brenner's term to 2003, making each class contain two directors. A classified board of directors may have the effect of deterring or delaying any attempt by any group to obtain control of us by a proxy contest since such third party would be required to have its nominees elected at two separate annual meetings of our Board of Directors in order to elect a majority of the members of our Board of Directors.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

To the Shareholders of Careside, Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Careside, Inc. (a Delaware corporation) as of December 31, 1999 and 2000, and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' equity and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2000. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Careside, Inc. as of December 31, 1999 and 2000, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2000, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 1 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company has suffered recurring losses from operations and has accumulated a significant deficit that raises substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to these matters are also described in Note 1. The financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of asset carrying amounts or the amount and classification of liabilities that might result should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

CARESIDE, INC.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Careside

Background

Careside, Inc. ("Careside" or "the Company") is focused on designing products intended to perform routine diagnostic blood tests in doctors' offices, hospital rooms, patient homes or anywhere a patient is receiving medical attention. Careside's first product in development is a compact portable device with related disposables that performs chemistry, electrochemistry, immunochemistry and coagulation testing.

Edgar Filing: CARESIDE INC - Form 10-K

In December 1999, Careside completed an acquisition of Texas Instrument Laboratories, Inc. ("TIL") and merged TIL into a newly formed, wholly-owned subsidiary, Careside Hematology. TIL manufactured hematology products used primarily in veterinary applications.

Risks and Liquidity

Careside was incorporated in July 1996 to acquire an ongoing, point-of-care ("POC") testing, development-stage product from SmithKline Beecham Corporation and its affiliates ("SmithKline") and to complete the development of and to manufacture, market and distribute POC diagnostic products. In the fourth quarter of 2000, Careside had substantially completed the initial development efforts of the Company's core product and began generating sales and increasing its focus on marketing efforts. In 1998, 1999 and for the nine months ended September 30, 2000, Careside was considered a development stage enterprise. Since its inception, Careside has generated minimal revenues and incurred significant losses. Careside anticipates incurring additional losses over at least the next year, and such losses are expected to increase as Careside expands its marketing activities. The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with principles of accounting applicable to a going concern. These principles contemplate the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. As shown in the accompanying consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2000, the Company incurred a net loss of $16,703,485, has used cash for operating activities of $15,661,957 and has an accumulated deficit of $45,199,361. These factors raise substantial doubt about the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern. Additional financing will be needed by Careside to fund its operations. In addition, the ability of Careside to commercialize its products will depend on, among other things, the relative cost to the customer of Careside's products compared to alternative products, its ability to obtain necessary regulatory approvals and to manufacture the products in accordance with Good Manufacturing Practices, and its ability to market and distribute its products. The Company's failure to raise capital on acceptable terms could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition or results of operations. There can be no assurance that Careside's future product enhancements will receive regulatory clearance, that the Company will be able to obtain additional financing, be profitable in the marketplace, or will be able to repay its current debt obligations.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Careside and Careside Hematology. Intercompany accounts and transactions are eliminated in consolidation.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

All highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less are presented as cash equivalents in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Inventory

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market with cost determined on a first-in, first-out basis, and are summarized as follows:

	December 31,
	1999	2000
Raw materials.....	$369,937	$1,163,593

	$548,623	$2,698,351

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Property and equipment capitalized under capital leases are recorded at the present value of the minimum lease payments due over the lease term. Depreciation and amortization are provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets or the lease term, whichever is shorter. The Company uses lives of two to nine years for laboratory equipment and manufacturing equipment and three to ten years for office equipment. Leasehold improvements generally are amortized over the remaining life of the lease.

Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of the purchase price and related costs over the value assigned to the tangible net assets of TIL. Goodwill is being amortized on a straight line basis over five years. Periodically, the Company reviews the recoverability of goodwill. The measurement of possible impairment is based primarily on the ability to recover the balance of goodwill from expected future operating cash flows on an undiscounted basis. In management's opinion, no impairment exists at December 31, 2000.

Long-Lived Assets

The Company reviews its long-lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset or a group of assets may not be recoverable. If an asset is determined to be impaired, the loss is measured as the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds fair value. If an evaluation is required, the estimated future undiscounted cash flows associated with the asset would be compared to the asset's carrying amount to determine if a write-down to market value or discounted cash flow value is required. The Company has not recorded an impairment loss in any period presented.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Cash equivalents are reflected in the accompanying consolidated financial statements at fair value due to the short-term nature of those instruments. The carrying amount of long-term debt approximates fair value on the balance sheet dates based on borrowing rates currently available to the Company for loans with similar terms and maturities.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue for sales of test cartridges and hematology products upon shipment. Revenue from analyzers is recognized upon the later date of shipment or customer acceptance, when applicable.

The Company has entered into sales agreements with leasing companies whereby the Company sells its products directly to the leasing company, who then leases the products to the end user. Sales to the leasing company are on a non-recourse basis and are recognized at the later date of shipment or customer acceptance, when applicable.

Warranty

The Company outsources the manufacture of its Analyzer to a third party who warrants the Analyzers for 30 months from the date of shipment to the Company. CareSide offers a 24 month warranty to the customer. Procedures have been put in place to assure no system will be shipped with less than a remaining 24 month warranty. As such, no provision for warranty has been recorded for the years ended December 31, 1998, 1999 and 2000.

Research and Development

Research and development costs are charged to expense as incurred.

Income Taxes

The Company follows Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes." Under SFAS No. 109, the liability method is used in accounting for income taxes. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities and are measured using enacted tax rates that are expected to be in effect when the differences reverse.

Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation

The Company applies Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," in accounting for its stock options. The Company follows the disclosure requirements of SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation," which permits pro forma disclosure of the net loss using a fair value-based method of accounting for employee stock option plans (see Note 11).

Edgar Filing: CARESIDE INC - Form 10-K

Net Loss Per Common Share

The Company has presented net loss per common share pursuant to SFAS No. 128, "Earnings per Share." Basic loss per common share was computed by dividing net loss applicable to common shareholders by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period. Dilutive loss per common share has not been presented since the impact on loss per share using the treasury stock method is anti-dilutive due to the Company's losses.

Recapitalization

In February 1999, Careside's stockholders approved a 1-for-5.2 reverse stock split of Careside's common stock to be effective upon consummation of the initial public offering which took place in June 1999. All references in the accompanying consolidated financial statements to the number of shares and per share amounts have been retroactively restated to reflect the reverse stock split.

Reclassifications

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

Recently Issued Pronouncements

In June 1999, the FASB issued SFAS No. 133 "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities". SFAS No. 133 establishes accounting and reporting standards for derivative instruments, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts, and for hedging activities. SFAS No. 133, as amended by SFAS No. 137, is effective for all fiscal quarters of fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2000. The Company does not believe that implementation of SFAS No. 133 and SFAS No. 137 will have a material impact.

3. Concentration of Risk

In 2000, the Company had sales to three customers that were individually greater than 10 percent of net sales. Combined, these three customers amounted to 38 percent of net sales and 25 percent of accounts receivable at December 31, 2000.

At December 31, 2000, Careside had analyzers with a cost of $1,056,000 and a net book value of $425,400 included in laboratory equipment and computer and office equipment. These analyzers are used for testing purposes, as design reference units, in research and development activities and for sales and marketing demonstrations.

Depreciation and amortization expense for the years ended December 31, 1998, 1999 and 2000, was $367,231, $1,357,488 and $2,933,268, respectively.

5. Income Taxes

Deferred income tax assets or liabilities are computed based on the temporary differences between the financial statement and income tax bases of assets and liabilities using the enacted marginal income tax rate in effect for the year in which the differences are expected to reverse. Realization of the net deferred tax assets is dependent on generating sufficient taxable income during the periods in which temporary differences will reverse. The amount of the net deferred tax assets considered realizable, however, could be adjusted in the near term if estimates of future taxable income during the reversal periods are revised. Deferred income tax expenses or credits are based on the changes in the deferred income tax assets or liabilities from period to period. At December 31, 2000, the Company had net operating loss carryforwards for federal income tax purposes of approximately $33,634,347. In addition, the Company has federal research and development credit carryforwards

F-9

CARESIDE, INC.

of approximately $1,047,937. The net operating loss and credit carryforwards begin to expire in 2011 and are subject to review and possible adjustment by the Internal Revenue Service. The Tax Reform Act of 1986 contains provisions that may limit the net operating loss carryforwards available to be used in any given year in the event of significant changes in ownership interests. The Company experienced such changes in ownership upon the closing of its 1997 and 2000 private placements. The Company does not believe these changes in ownership will have a material impact on its ability to utilize its net operating loss and tax credit carryforwards. There can be no assurance that ownership changes in future periods will not significantly limit the Company's ability to use existing or future net operating loss or tax credit carryforwards.

The components of the deferred income tax assets are as follows:

Due to the uncertainty surrounding the realization of the deferred tax asset, the Company has provided a valuation allowance against the entire asset.

6. Common Stock Placements

In March 1997, Careside completed a private placement (the "1997 Private Placement") of 1,923,090 shares of its common stock at $5.20 per share. The 1997 Private Placement raised approximately $8.7 million, net of the placement agent's commission and offering costs. In connection with the 1997 Private Placement, the placement agent and its affiliates received warrants to purchase 384,615 shares of Careside's Common stock at $5.20 per share. These warrants are currently exercisable and expire seven years from the date of issuance.

In June 1998, Careside completed a private placement (the "1998 Private Placement") of 1,701,225 shares of its common stock at $6.76 per share, which generated net proceeds of approximately $10.2 million. In connection with the 1998 Private Placement, the placement agent and its affiliates received warrants to purchase 340,237 shares of Careside's common stock at $6.76 per share. These warrants are currently exercisable and expire seven years from the date of issuance. In connection with providing financial consulting services for the 1998 Private Placement, Careside granted an option to purchase 1,154 shares of common stock at $.05 per share to an entity owned by a director of Careside.

In June 1999, Careside completed an initial public offering of its common stock. The offering totaled 2,000,000 shares of common stock and 2,000,000 tradable warrants exercisable into one share of common stock each. The combined share and warrant were sold at a price of $7.50 per unit. The warrants are currently exercisable at a price of $9.00 per share and expire on the earlier of five years from the date of issuance or if they are called. They are callable at $0.05 per warrant upon 30 days written notice if the common stock trades for ten consecutive days at a price equal to or exceeding $14.00 per share.

In March 2000, the Company sold 1,184,091 shares of common stock in a private placement for $8.77 per share resulting in net proceeds of $9,544,488, net of $840,000 of cash offering costs. The $8.77 per share was at a discount of 20 percent from the average closing price for the twenty days prior to the initial closing date of the sales. The placement agent received warrants to purchase 101,305 shares of Careside's common stock at $8.77 per share. In connection with the sale, the Company issued the investors and the placement agent contingent warrants for nominal value exercisable into 154,246 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $0.01 per share. The contingent warrants were exercisable upon certain conditions and expired on December 15, 2000. During the third quarter, the conditions triggering the exercisability of these contingent warrants were met. A total of 130,092 warrants were exercised and converted to 130,092 shares of common stock and the remainder expired. The estimated fair value of the 101,305 and the 154,246 warrants, computed using the Black-Scholes option pricing model were $971,804 and $1,996,697 respectively. These amounts were offset against the proceeds of the offering and credited to additional paid-in capital.

In November and December 2000, the Company sold 1,326,479 shares of common stock to an existing investor for an average price of $2.56 per share, at 90 percent of fair market value, resulting in net proceeds of $3,084,203, net of $313,624 of cash offering costs. In conjunction with the placement, warrants to purchase an aggregate of 66,324 shares of common stock were issued with an average exercise price of $2.56. The estimated fair value of these warrants, computed using the Black-Scholes option pricing model was $101,638. This amount was offset against the proceeds and credited to additional paid-in capital.

7. Preferred Stock

In June 1999, the Company exchanged $1,038,575 of bridge financing and unpaid interest (see Note 9) for 162,914 shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock. In July 2000, this Preferred Stock in the amount of 162,914 and its accrued, unpaid dividends in the amount of 16,782 shares were converted into a unit consisting of 179,696 shares of common stock and a warrant to purchase 179,696 additional shares of common stock at $9.00 per share.

During 2000, the Company sold 150 shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock to an investor for net proceeds of $615,030, net of expenses of $134,970. In connection with this sale, the Company issued a warrant to the investor to purchase 200 additional shares of Series B Preferred Stock at an exercise price of $5,000 per share. This warrant was exercised in November 2000 resulting in gross proceeds of $1,000,000.

The sale of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock also included the placement of callable two year warrants for up to 4,000,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $14.00; however if the warrant is exercised in response to a Company call, then the exercise price will be the lesser of $14.00 per share or 95% of the average closing price of the stock for the two day period immediately after the date of the notice of the call from the Company.

The sale also included a warrant to the placement agent to purchase 25,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $5.63 per share, or 120% of the closing price on the date prior to the sale. The warrant expires on September 13, 2005.

The placement agent for the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock received a warrant to purchase 50,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $5.63 per share. The warrant expires on September 13, 2005.

CARESIDE, INC.

The Series B Convertible Preferred Stock has a stated value equal to $5,000 per share and is entitled to an annual five percent (5%) dividend payable, as declared by the board of directors, payable in cash, additional shares of Series B Preferred, or any combination of the two. Accrued and unpaid dividends were $66,451 at December 31, 2000. The Series B Preferred has a liquidation preference over the Common Stock, but ranks junior to the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock with respect to rights on liquidation, dissolution or winding up. The liquidation preference is equal to the stated value of the Series B Preferred Stock, plus all accrued and unpaid dividends. Each share of Series B Preferred Stock has one vote on all matters to be voted on by the holders of the Common Stock and will vote with the holders of the Common Stock as one voting group. The Series B Preferred Stock has the right to vote as a separate class pursuant to applicable law and on any action limiting the preferences or rights of the Series B Preferred Stock, reclassifying the Common Stock or any other capital stock ranking junior to the Series B Preferred Stock into any class of security ranking senior to or the same as the Series B Preferred Stock, or increasing the authorized number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock.

Each share of Series B Preferred Stock is convertible at the option of the holder at any time before September 13, 2002 into a number of shares of Common Stock equal to the stated value of $5,000 (plus all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon) divided by the lower of (a) the average of the lowest ten closing sales prices within the last thirty days prior to the date the holder delivers a notice exercising his or her right to convert and (b) $5.48. In October and November 2000, 60 shares of Series B Preferred Stock, plus accrued and unpaid dividends totaling $2,233 were converted to 128,259 shares of common stock. The holder may only convert a number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock such that the aggregate number of shares of Common Stock issued to the holder after such conversion of the Series B Preferred Stock and as a result of all prior conversions of Series B Preferred Stock, do not, when aggregated with the number of shares of Common Stock previously issued, or then issuable pursuant to an exercise notice received, upon exercise of the warrant to purchase up to 4,000,000 shares of common stock discussed above, exceed 1,797,631 shares of Common Stock (which number will be adjusted for stock splits and similar events) in violation of Section 713 of the Listing Standards of the American Stock Exchange, unless and until the shareholders of Careside have approved such aggregate issuance of Common Shares in excess of 1,797,631.

The Company has the right to redeem the Series B Preferred Stock, pro rata among all the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock, at any time upon notice to the shareholders for a per share amount equal to $5,750 plus all accrued and unpaid dividends per share redeemed. The shareholders must be given a minimum of thirty days notice before the date of redemption. During that period, the holders may elect to convert such holder's Series B Preferred stock into Common Shares equal to the Series B Stated Value of $5,000 plus all accrued and unpaid dividends, divided by the lower of (a) the average of the lowest ten closing sales prices within the last thirty days prior to the date of notice and (b) $5.475.

At September 13, 2002, any shares of Series B Preferred Stock not converted to common stock must be purchased by the Company at stated value, plus any accrued and unpaid dividends. Due to this mandatory redemption feature, the Series B Preferred Stock is classified as mezzanine financing.

At the date of sale, the conversion feature for the 150 shares was beneficial to the investor because if it was exercised, it could have resulted in proceeds to the investor in excess of the original purchase price of the 150 shares allocated to the Series B Preferred Stock after allocations to warrants. The beneficial conversion feature was recorded as an $84,044 non-cash charge against the preferred proceeds. This non-cash charge was recorded as a dividend to preferred stockholders in the computation of earnings per share.

The estimated relative fair value of the warrants to purchase 200 shares of Series B Preferred Stock, up to 4,000,000 shares of common stock, 25,000 shares of common stock and 50,000 shares of common stock was $12,626, $495,601, $9,327 and $13,362 respectively. These amounts were offset against the net proceeds of sale and resulted in an allocation of the remaining net proceeds of $84,044 to the Series B Preferred. Since the

CARESIDE, INC.

Series B Preferred is mandatorily redeemable at the option of the holder, the carrying value of shares not converted to common stock must be accreted as a non-cash dividend to preferred stockholders up to the redemption value of $5,000 per share on a straight line basis through September 13, 2002. The non-cash accreted dividend recorded through December 31, 2000 was $83,028.

8. Purchase of Texas Instrument Laboratories, Inc.

In December 1999, Careside acquired all of the outstanding common stock of TIL in exchange for 521,739 shares of Careside's common stock. TIL was then merged into Careside's newly formed, wholly-owned subsidiary, Careside Hematology. The transaction was accounted for using the purchase method of accounting. Careside acquired substantially all assets of TIL for $2,869,565, which represented the market value of the 521,739 shares of common stock on the date of acquisition. The excess of the purchase price over the book value of TIL was recorded as goodwill in the amount of $2,834,747. Goodwill will be amortized over a five-year period. Amortization expense was $36,577 in 1999 and $566,949 in 2000.

The following unaudited proforma results of operations for the years ended December 31, 1998 and 1999 have been prepared as if the acquisition of TIL occurred on January 1, 1998:

9. Related Party Transactions

In December 1998, Careside entered into an agreement with an affiliate of SmithKline for up to $3,000,000 of bridge financing. In 1999, $1,000,000 of this debt, plus $38,575 of accrued and unpaid interest was converted to Series A Preferred Stock (see Note 7).

In 1999, the Careside entered into an agreement with Advanced Medical Information Technologies, Inc. (AdMIT) to develop software and hardware. During 1999, Careside paid AdMIT $300,000 which was included in research and development--software expense. In November 1999, one of the owners of AdMIT was hired by Careside to be its Senior Vice President and Chief Information Officer. In May 2000, the Company amended its agreement with AdMIT to commit to an additional expenditure of $300,000, of which $200,000 has been incurred and expensed in 2000. In connection with the amendment, the Company also received a 15 percent ownership interest in AdMIT. This investment is carried at no value due to uncertainty regarding the long-term realizability of the investment. In addition to commitments under this agreement, Careside made additional payments of $76,000 to AdMIT in 2000 for additional research and development expenditures. In addition during 2000, payments of $275,000 for software programming were made to a consulting firm where the CIO's brother is one of the partners. These payments totaling $275,000 were for contract programming and were invoiced at rates which management believes are below market cost from similar competitive service providers.

In December 1998, Careside entered into a $2,500,000 facility with an equipment financing company. Borrowings under the facility are evidenced as separate loans and are secured by specific equipment assets. Each equipment loan has a 48-month term and bears interest at approximately 14% and 15% per year. As of December 31, 2000, approximately $2.4 million of the facility had been drawn under this facility to finance equipment purchases. Careside recorded interest expense of $0, $155,369 and $283,579 in 1998, 1999 and 2000, respectively related to these borrowings.

In December 1998, Careside entered into an agreement with an affiliate of SmithKline (S.R. One, Limited) for up to $3,000,000 of bridge financing, of which $1,500,000 was drawn on December 28, 1998 and the remaining $1,500,000 was drawn on January 31, 1999. The extended maturity date is June 30, 2001. Careside issued a warrant (the "Bridge Warrant") in connection with the bridge financing. The Bridge Warrant was originally exercisable into that number of shares of common stock which is equal to $750,000 divided by 85% of the initial public offering price per share. The Bridge Warrant has an exercise price of $6.375 per share. The Bridge Warrant became exercisable in December 1999 and expires on June 16, 2004. Using the Black-Scholes pricing model, the estimated fair value of the Bridge Warrant was calculated at $330,114 and was recorded as a reduction in the carrying amount of the bridge note, with a corresponding increase in stockholders' equity. The discount on the bridge note was amortized over the estimated term of the note as additional interest expense. In June 1999, $1,000,000 of the bridge financing plus $38,575 of unpaid interest was converted to Series A Convertible Preferred Stock (see Note 7). In connection with the conversion, the Bridge Warrant was modified such that it will be exercisable into that number of shares of common stock which is equal to $1,500,000 divided by 85% of the Offering price per share. Using the Black-Scholes pricing model, the estimated fair value of the increase in shares under the Bridge Warrant modification was calculated at $289,801 and was recorded as interest expense in 1999, with a corresponding increase in stockholders' equity. In November 2000, the bridge note expiration date was extended to June 30, 2001. In conjunction with the extension, the bridge warrant expiration date was extended to June 16, 2004. Using the Black-Scholes pricing model the estimated fair value of the bridge warrant modification was calculated to be $172,138 and will be recorded as non-cash interest expense over the extended period of the loan. S. R. One has the option to convert all or any portion of the remaining loan, plus accrued interest thereon, into shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock. This Series A Convertible Preferred Stock would be issued to S.R. One on the same basis as the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock that was issued to S. R. One in connection with the $1 million conversion discussed above.

11. Stock Options and Warrants

Stock Options

Careside has adopted various stock option plans, which provide for the granting of options to purchase up to 1,201,923 shares of common stock to directors, officers, consultants and employees of the Company. At December 31, 2000 603,260 shares were available for future grant under the plans. The number of options to be granted and the option prices are determined by the Board of Directors in accordance with the terms of the plans. Generally, options are not granted at prices below the fair market value at the date of grant. Each option expires on such date as the Board of Directors may determine. Generally options vest from 3 to 5 years.

The table below summarizes the option activity for 1998, 1999, and 2000:

The table below summarizes information about options outstanding at December 31, 2000:

Range of Exercise Prices	Number Outstanding at December 31, 2000	Weighted Average Remaining Contractual Life	Weighted Average Exercise Price of Options Outstanding	Number Exercisable at December 31, 2000
$5.00-6.00.....	341,252	6.7 years	$5.42	335,511
$6.69-10.00.....	238,542	7.2 years	$7.79	144,346
$5.00-10.00.....	579,794	6.9 years	$6.40	479,857

As permitted by SFAS No. 123 "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation," the Company continues to apply the accounting rules of APB No. 25 governing the recognition of compensation expense for employee stock options. Such accounting rules measure compensation expense on the first date at which both the exercise price and the number of shares are known. Expense is only recognized in circumstances where the exercise price is less than the fair market value at the measurement date. No such expense has been recorded in the accompanying consolidated statements of operations. In 1998 Careside issued 1,154 options to a consultant. Compensation expense recorded for these options was immaterial.

Under the requirements of SFAS No. 123 pro forma disclosure of compensation expense using the fair value method is required to be disclosed if the Company applies APB No. 25. Pro forma compensation has been computed by estimating the fair value of options at the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model.

The following assumptions were used in estimating the fair value of options:

	1998	1999	2000
Weighted average risk-free interest rate.....	5.56%	5.92%	6.50%
Weighted average expected life.....	7.0 years	4.17 years	4.00 years
Weighted average volatility.....	0%	60%	72.5%

Had the compensation cost of these options been recorded for the years ended December 31, 1998, 1999 and 2000, the Company's net loss would have increased by approximately $343,067, $391,877 and $428,145, respectively.

The Company purchases its dry film based chemistry reagents solely from Fuji Photo Film Co., Ltd. In addition, UMM Electronics, Inc. is the sole designer and manufacturer of the Careside Analyzer. The loss of these suppliers could impact the Company's ability to obtain and produce these items in the short-term. However, the Company believes that acceptable alternative suppliers are available.
