Item 5. Other Events.

On May 21, 2001, the United States District Court for Arizona denied the motion filed by Southern Union seeking reconsideration of the Court's previous dismissal of the Federal Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO) claims against all defendants, including ONEOK. At the same time, the Court applied the same rationale and dismissed similar state law racketeering claims against the same defendants, including ONEOK. The dismissal of these RICO claims removes the possibility of trebling of damages that might be awarded in these actions.
