Section 1 - Registrant's Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 22, 2007, Trans Energy, Inc. announced that it had finalized a financing agreement with CIT Capital USA Inc. Under the terms of the agreement, CIT will fully underwrite $18.0 million in financing for Trans Energy in the form of a senior secured revolving credit facility ("Revolving Credit Facility" or "Revolver"). Trans Energy will also have the ability to increase the credit facility to $30.0 million in the future with increases in its reserves.

Funds realized from the financing agreement will be used to facilitate the company's 2007 drilling program. Trans Energy has begun drilling the first of up to 30 wells the company plans to drill during 2007 and has contracted for a drilling rig to be used for the balance of the year, with an option to extend through 2008.

As compensation for CIT's services, Trans Energy agrees to (i) pay CIT a closing fee in the amount of $200,000, and (ii) grant CIT a 2% net profits interest in and to all of Trans Energy's oil and gas properties currently owned and any additional oil and gas property acquired. Also, Trans Energy will pay CIT an additional fee equal to 1.25% on any increases in the borrowing base over the initial amount of $18.0 million. Further, Trans Energy agrees to reimburse CIT for all reasonable out-of-pocket fees and expenses such as legal counsel, consultants, appraisers, travel and accommodations incurred in connection with the transaction.

The term of the financing agreement is three years. Throughout the life of the agreement, Trans Energy may borrow, repay and reborrow funds so long as the sum of the aggregate loans outstanding at any time, plus the aggregate face amount of any letters of credit, does not exceed the initial base of $18.0 million, which can be increased to $30.0 million. Trans Energy will also pledge as collateral for the loans certain oil and gas properties and related assets and interests.
