THE ANNUAL MEETING

Date, Time and Place of Annual Meeting	The Annual Meeting will be held on October 24, 2007, beginning at 10:00 a.m., PST, at 800 Silverado Street, Second Floor, La Jolla, CA 92037.
Record Date: Shareholders Entitled to Vote; Quorum	Only holders of record of Planet common stock on September 15, 2007, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. As of the record date, there were 3,968,368 shares of Planet common stock outstanding. The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of our common stock will constitute a quorum.
Vote Required	The seven persons with the most number of votes will be elected directors pursuant to Proposal 2; and assuming a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares represented and voting, either present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting are required to vote in favor of Proposals 3 for such proposal to pass. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company as of the Record Date are required to pass Proposal 1.
Recommendation of Board of Directors	Our Board of Directors unanimously approved each of the Proposals to be considered at the Annual Meeting. The Board recommends that the stockholders vote FOR each proposal.
PROPOSAL 1 REINCORPORATION IN DELAWARE
Reason for Reincorporation	Management believes that reincorporation in Delaware would be beneficial to the Company because Delaware corporate law is more comprehensive, widely used and extensively interpreted than other state corporate laws, including California corporate law. In addition, management believes that Delaware law is better suited than California law to protect shareholder s interests in the event of a non-solicited takeover attempt.
Vote Required to Approve the Reincorporation:	The affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock (either in person or by proxy) is required to approve the Delaware Reincorporation. A properly executed proxy marked ABSTAIN with respect to such matter will not be voted, although it will be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum. Accordingly, an abstention will have the effect of a negative vote.

PROPOSAL 2 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Nominees

There are seven board nominees for the seven board positions presently authorized by the Company's current bylaws. The names of the nominees are H. M. Busby; Scott L. Glenn; Eric B. INTRODUCTION

General Information

The enclosed proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors (the Board) of Planet Technologies, Inc., a California corporation (the Company), for use at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on October 24, 2007 at 10:00 a.m. local time (the Annual Meeting), or at any adjournment or postponement thereof, for the purposes set forth herein and in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting will be held at 800 Silverado Street, Second Floor, La Jolla, California 92037. The Company intends to mail this proxy statement and accompanying proxy card on or about September 15, 2007, to all shareholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

Solicitation

The Company will bear the entire cost of solicitation of proxies including preparation, assembly, printing and mailing of this proxy statement, the proxy and any additional information furnished to shareholders. Copies of solicitation materials will be furnished to banks, brokerage houses, fiduciaries and custodians holding in their names shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by others to forward to such beneficial owners. The Company may reimburse persons representing beneficial owners of Common Stock for their costs of forwarding solicitation materials to such beneficial owners. Original solicitation of proxies by mail may be supplemented by telephone, telegram or personal solicitation by directors, officers or other regular employees of the Company. No additional compensation will be paid to directors, officers or other regular employees for such services.

Voting Rights and Outstanding Shares

For purposes of the Annual Meeting, a quorum means a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote. Holders of record of the Company's Common Stock at the close of business on September 15, 2007 (the Record Date) will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. At the close of business on September 15, 2007, the Company had outstanding and entitled to vote 3,968,368 shares of Common Stock. In determining whether a quorum exists at the Annual meeting, all shares represented in person or by proxy, including abstentions and broker non-votes, will be counted.

Except as provided below, on all matters to be voted upon at the Annual Meeting, each holder of record of Common Stock on the Record Date will be entitled to one vote for each share held. With respect to the election of directors, shareholders may exercise cumulative voting rights, i.e., each shareholder entitled to vote for the election of directors may cast a total number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of such shareholder shares (on an as converted basis), and may cast such total of votes for one or more candidates in such proportions as such shareholder chooses.

All votes will be tabulated by the inspector of election appointed for the meeting, who will separately tabulate affirmative and negative votes, abstentions and broker non-votes.

How to Vote

Please sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card promptly. If your shares are held in the name of a bank, broker, or other holder of record (that is, in street name) you will receive instructions from the holder of record that you must follow for your shares to be voted.

GENERAL QUESTIONS REGARDING THE PROXY

Q: WHAT DO I NEED TO DO NOW?

A: After carefully reading and considering the information contained in this proxy statement, please complete, sign and date your proxy and return it in the enclosed return envelope as soon as possible, so that your shares may be represented at the annual meeting of the Company shareholders. If you sign, date and return your proxy card but do not include instructions on how to vote your proxy, we will vote your shares IN FAVOR of each proposal described in this proxy statement. You may attend the annual meeting, if you are a Company shareholder and vote your shares in person rather than voting by proxy.

Q: IF MY BROKER HOLDS MY SHARES IN STREET NAME, WILL MY BROKER VOTE MY SHARES FOR ME?

A: Generally, your Broker will vote the shares in line with management's recommendation regarding election of directors and other corporate matters. However, as to certain matters, including the proposal to reincorporate in Delaware and change the Company name, it is likely your broker will vote your shares only if you provide instructions on how to vote in accordance with the information and procedures provided to you by your broker.

Q: WHAT HAPPENS IF I DO NOT VOTE?

A: If you do not submit a proxy or vote at your annual meeting, your shares will not be counted for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum and your inaction will have no effect on the outcome of the proposals. If you submit a proxy and affirmatively elect to abstain from voting, your shares will be counted for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum but will not be voted at the annual meeting.

Q: CAN I CHANGE MY VOTE AFTER I HAVE MAILED MY SIGNED PROXY?

A: Yes. You can change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the Company's annual meeting. You can do this in one of three ways:

timely delivery of a valid, later-dated proxy by mail;

revoking your proxy by written notice to the corporate secretary of the Company; or voting in person by written ballot at the Company annual meeting.

If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow the directions from your broker on how to change that vote.

Q: WHAT IS THE DEADLINE FOR THE RETURN OF MY PROXY?

A. The deadline for return of your Proxy, to be voted at the Meeting on October 24, 2007, unless delivered at the meeting, is October 23, 2007.

PROPOSAL 1

CONVERSION FROM A CALIFORNIA CORPORATION TO A DELAWARE CORPORATION

INTRODUCTION

The Company is presently a California corporation with two classes of shares outstanding. The Board has unanimously approved and recommends that the holders of the Company's outstanding shares approve the change in the Company's jurisdiction of incorporation from California to Delaware. Throughout this Proposal Two, the term "the Company" refers to Planet Technologies, Inc., the existing California corporation, and the term "New Planet" refers to Planet Biopharmaceuticals, Inc., the new Delaware corporation that is the proposed successor to the Company. The principal executive offices of both the Company and New Planet are located at 96 Danbury Road, Ridgefield, Connecticut 06877, and the telephone numbers of both the Company and New Planet is (800) 255-3749.

For several years, we have considered reincorporating to Delaware and undertook a review of the advantages and disadvantages of changing our state of incorporation from California to Delaware. As discussed in "Principal Reasons for the Proposed Reincorporation," management believes that reincorporation in Delaware would be beneficial to the Company because Delaware corporate law is more comprehensive, widely used and extensively interpreted than other state corporate laws, including California corporate law. When initially incorporated, the Company was headquartered in San Diego, California. We are now headquartered in Danbury, Connecticut and no longer have facilities in California.

In addition, management believes that Delaware law is better suited than California law to protect shareholder's interests in the event of a non-solicited takeover attempt. We are not, however, aware that any person is currently attempting to acquire control of the Company, to obtain representation on our Board of Directors or to take any action that would materially affect the governance of the Company. In this regard, we are not proposing any material changes to our organizational documents to adopt any anti-takeover strategies in connection with the reincorporation.

On August 15, 2007, our board met with management and its advisors to discuss the advantages and disadvantages of reincorporating in Delaware, the mechanics of reincorporating and possible changes to our organizational document associated with a reincorporation. The Board unanimously determined that the reincorporation was in the best interest of the Company and approved a resolution to move forward with the reincorporation process. On August 15, 2007, our Board unanimously approved the Agreement and the Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement").

Because New Planet will be governed by the Delaware General Corporation Law ("DGCL") and will have new organizational documents, if the reincorporation proposal is approved, the proposed reincorporation will result in certain changes in your rights as a shareholder. These differences are summarized under the sections entitled

"Comparison of the Charters and Bylaws of the Company and New Planet" and "Significant differences between the corporation laws of California and Delaware."

Table of Contents

Our board has unanimously approved and, for the reasons described below, recommended that you approve the proposal to reincorporate the Company's state of incorporation from California to Delaware. If approved by shareholders, we expect that the reincorporation merger will become effective as soon as practicable (the Effective Date) following our meeting of shareholders. If shareholders do not approve the reincorporation merger, we would not consummate the reincorporation merger and we would continue to operate as a California corporation.

IN ORDER FOR THE PROPOSED REINCORPORATION TO BE EFFECTIVE, A MAJORITY OF THE OUTSTANDING SHARES OF COMMON STOCK MUST APPROVE PROPOSAL TWO. SEE VOTE REQUIRED FOR REINCORPORATION PROPOSAL AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDATION BELOW. YOU ARE URGED TO READ CAREFULLY THIS SECTION OF THE PROXY STATEMENT, INCLUDING THE RELATED APPENDICES, BEFORE VOTING ON THE REINCORPORATION MERGER. MECHANICS

The proposed reincorporation would be effected pursuant to the Merger Agreement in substantially the form attached as Exhibit A. The discussion of the reincorporation merger and the Merger Agreement set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement. Upon completion of the reincorporation merger, the company will cease to exist and New Planet, which would be the surviving corporation in the reincorporation merger, would continue to operate our business under the name Planet Biopharmaceuticals, Inc.

Upon the Effective Date, each outstanding share of common stock of the Company will be automatically converted into one share of common stock of New Planet. Each stock certificate representing issued and outstanding shares of common stock of the Company will continue to represent the same number of shares of common stock of New Planet. If the Company and New Planet effect the Reincorporation Merger, you would not need to exchange your existing stock certificates of the company for stock certificates of New Planet. You may, however, exchange your certificates if you so choose.

A vote in favor of the Merger serves as ratification of the Delaware Certificate attached hereto as Exhibit B. The Certificate provides for a total of 50,000,000 authorized shares; 45,000,000 common stock shares with a $0.01 par value, and 5,000,000 preferred stock shares with a $0.01 par value. Presently, the Company has a total authorized shares of 25,000,000; 20,000,000 common stock shares and 5,000,000 preferred stock shares. As such with approval of the Merger, New Planet will have an additional 25,000,000 of authorized common stock shares.

The purpose of the increase in the number of authorized Common Shares is to assure that we have sufficient Shares available for general corporate purposes including, without limitation, equity financings, acquisitions, establishing strategic relationships with corporate partners, providing equity incentives to new and existing employees, payments of stock dividends, or effecting stock splits or other recapitalizations. We may seek additional capital from several sources, including the sale of our Common Shares. As of the date hereof, we have no agreement to issue all or any significant percentage of the additional Common Shares to be authorized by the Certificate of Incorporation. The Company is currently discussing with several potential investors the possible sale of Common Shares or Preferred Shares to finance the proposed acquisition of other allergy industry based companies. However, even if the Reincorporation proposal is not approved, the Company believes it has adequate shares authorized for the purpose.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the Company and New Planet plan to take all actions that Delaware law and California law require for the Company and New Planet to effect the reincorporation merger.

The reincorporation merger would only make a change in the legal domicile of the Company, the name of the Company from Planet Technologies, Inc. to Planet Biopharmaceuticals, Inc., the authorized number of Common Shares, and certain other changes of a legal nature which are described in this proxy statement. The reincorporation merger would not result in any change in the business, management, fiscal year, consolidated assets or liabilities or location of the principal offices of the Company. We believe that the proposed reincorporation will not affect any of our material contracts with any third parties and that our rights and obligations under such material contractual arrangements will continue and be assumed by the surviving corporation.

If the reincorporation merger is effected, all employee benefit plans of the Company (including all stock option plans) will be assumed and continued by the surviving corporation. Approval of the reincorporation merger will also constitute approval of the assumption of these plans by New Planet.

Table of Contents

Each stock option issued and outstanding pursuant to such plans would be converted automatically into a stock option award with respect to the same number of shares of common stock of the surviving corporation, upon the same terms and subject to the same conditions as set forth in the applicable plan under which the award was granted and in the agreement reflecting the award.

VOTE REQUIRED FOR REINCORPORATION PROPOSAL AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDATION.

California law requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of the Company to approve the Merger Agreement pursuant to which the Company and New Planet would effect the reincorporation merger. Approval of the reincorporation merger Proposal would also constitute an approval of the Merger Agreement and therefore the reincorporation merger. A vote in favor of the reincorporation proposal is also effectively a vote in favor of the Delaware Certificate and the Delaware Bylaws. If the shareholders approve the Merger Agreement and the reincorporation merger becomes effective, the Delaware Certificate and the Delaware Bylaws attached hereto as Exhibits B and C would respectively become the Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of the surviving corporation.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED AND RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE PROPOSED REINCORPORATION. THE EFFECT OF AN ABSTENTION OR A BROKER NON VOTE IS THE SAME AS THAT OF A VOTE AGAINST THE REINCORPORATION PROPOSAL.

PRINCIPAL REASONS FOR THE REINCORPORATION

For many years, Delaware has followed a policy of encouraging corporations to incorporate in that state. More than 58% of Fortune 500 companies are incorporated in Delaware. In furtherance of Delaware's policy to encourage corporations in that state, Delaware has been a leader in adopting, construing and implementing comprehensive and flexible corporate laws that have been responsive to the evolving legal and business needs of corporations organized under Delaware law. The Board and management believe that it is essential to be able to draw upon well established principles of corporate governance in making legal and business decisions. Management also believes that Delaware law is better suited than California law to protect shareholder's interests in the event of an unsolicited takeover attempt. We are not aware that any person is currently attempting to acquire control of the Company, to obtain representation on our Board of Directors or take any action that would materially affect the governance of the Company.

Additionally, our management believes that, as a Delaware corporation, the Company would be better able to continue to attract and retain qualified directors and officers than it would be able to as a California corporation in part because Delaware law provides more predictability with the issue of liability of directors and officers than California law does. The increasing frequency of claims against directors and officers that are litigated has greatly expanded the risks to directors and officers of exercising their respective duties. The amount of time and money required to respond to and litigate such claims can be substantial. Although California law and Delaware law both permit a corporation to include a provision in the corporation's Articles or Certificate, as the case may be, that in certain circumstances reduces or limits the monetary liability of directors for breaches of their fiduciary duty of care, Delaware as stated above, provides to directors and officers more predictability than California does and, therefore, provides directors and officers of a Delaware corporation a greater comfort as to their risk of liability than the comfort afforded under California law. Our Board, therefore believes that the proposed reincorporation may be a significant factor in continuing to attract and retain such individuals, and in freeing them to make corporate decisions on their own merits and for the benefit of shareholders, rather than out of a desire to avoid personal liability. For additional discussion of this matter, see Significant Differences Between the Corporation Laws of California and Delaware Indemnification and Limitation of Liability.

Our management has considered the following benefits of Delaware's corporate legal framework in deciding to propose reincorporating in Delaware:

The DGCL, which is generally acknowledged to be the most advanced and flexible corporate statute in the country;

The Delaware General Assembly, which each year considers and adopts statutory amendments that the corporation law section of the Delaware State Bar Association proposes in an effort to ensure that the corporate statute continues to be responsive to the changing needs of businesses;

The Delaware Court of Chancery, which handles complex corporate issues with the level of experience and a degree of sophistication and understanding unmatched by any other court in the country, and the Delaware Supreme Court which is highly regarded;

Table of Contents

The well-established body of case law construing Delaware law, which has developed over the last century and which provides businesses with a greater predictability than most, if not all, other jurisdictions provide; and

The responsiveness and efficiency of the division of corporations of the Secretary of State of Delaware, which uses computer technology that is on the cutting edge.

Any direct benefit that Delaware law provides to corporations indirectly benefits the shareholders, who are the owners of the corporations. For the reasons discussed in this Proxy Statement, we believe that the Company and our shareholders will benefit in the near and longer term from reincorporating in Delaware.

COMPANY

The reincorporation will effect only a change in the legal domicile of the Company, name, authorized Common Shares, and certain other changes of a legal nature, including those described in this proxy statement. The reincorporation will NOT result in any change in the name, business, management, fiscal year, assets or liabilities, or location of the principal facilities of the Company. The current directors and officers of the Company will become the directors and officers of New Planet. All employee benefits and stock options of the Company will be assumed and continued by New Planet, and each option or right to purchase shares of the Company Common Stock will automatically be converted into an option or right to purchase the same number of shares of New Planet Common Stock at the same price per share, upon the same terms, and subject to the same conditions. Other employee benefit arrangements of the Company will also be continued by New Planet upon the terms and subject to the conditions currently in effect. As noted above, after the merger the shares of New Planet Common Stock will continue to be quoted without interruption on the OTC Board under the same symbol PLNT. The Company believes that the Reincorporation will not affect any of its material contracts with any third parties and that the Company's rights and obligations under such material contractual arrangements will continue and be assumed by New Planet.

Although in some circumstances California law provides shareholders with the right to dissent from certain corporate reorganizations and receive cash for their shares, California does not permit dissenter's rights in connection with the proposed reincorporation.

ANTI-TAKEOVER IMPLICATIONS

Delaware, like many other states, permits a corporation to adopt a number of measures through the amendment of the corporate charter or bylaws which are designed to reduce a corporation's vulnerability to unsolicited takeover attempts. It should be noted, however, the reincorporation was NOT proposed to prevent such a change in control, and the Board is not aware of any present attempt to acquire control of the Company, or to obtain representation on the Board.

Certain differences between California and Delaware law, which would be effective upon consummation of the reincorporation merger without further action of our Board or shareholders, could have a bearing on unapproved takeover attempts. Section 203 of the DGCL, which New Planet does not intend to opt out of, restricts certain business combinations with interested shareholders for three years following the date that a person becomes an interested shareholder, unless the Board approves the business combination. For a discussion of the differences between the laws of California and Delaware that may affect the shareholders see Significant Differences Between the Corporation Laws of California and Delaware discussed below.

The Board believes that unsolicited takeover attempts may be unfair or disadvantageous to the Company, to New Planet, and to the owners of their securities because, among other reasons, a non-negotiated takeover bid: (i) may be timed to take advantage of temporarily depressed share prices; (ii) may be designed to foreclose or minimize the possibility of more favorable competing bids or alternative transactions; and (iii) may involve the acquisition of only a controlling interest in the corporation's shares, without affording all shareholders the opportunity to receive the same economic benefits.

By contrast, in a transaction in which a potential acquiror must negotiate with an independent board of directors, the board can and should take account of the underlying and long-term values of the corporation's business, technology, and other assets, the possibilities for alternative transactions on more favorable terms, possible advantages from a tax-free reorganization, anticipated favorable developments in the corporation's business not yet reflected in the share price, and equality of treatment of all shareholders.

Despite the belief of the Board as to the benefits to shareholders of the reincorporation merger, it may be disadvantageous to the extent that it has the effect of discouraging a future takeover attempt which is not approved by New Planet's board of directors, but which a majority of the shareholders may deem to be in their best interests or in which shareholders may receive a substantial premium for their shares over the then current market value or over their cost bases in such shares. As a result, shareholders who might wish to participate in an unsolicited tender offer may not have an opportunity to do so. In addition, to the extent that provisions of Delaware law enable the board of directors to resist a takeover or a change in control of New Planet, such provisions could make it more difficult to change New Planet's existing board of directors and management.

COMPARISON OF THE CHARTERS AND BYLAWS OF THE COMPANY AND NEW PLANET

There are significant similarities between the Delaware Certificate and the Company's current amended and restated articles of incorporation (the California Articles). For example neither the Delaware Certificate nor the California Articles provide for a classified Board of Directors.

We have also provided that the Delaware Certificate and Delaware Bylaws contain certain provisions that will enable shareholders of New Planet to have rights similar to those that are automatically applicable to the Company but that are not required by Delaware law. Specifically, under California law holders of ten percent of the Company's shares have the right to call special meetings of shareholders; the Delaware Bylaws would provide shareholders of New Planet the same right. In addition, under California law, shareholders have the right to take action in lieu of a meeting by unanimous written consent; shareholders of New Planet will have the same right because the Delaware Certificate does not preclude shareholders from acting by written consent.

The following discussion is a summary of the material differences between the California Articles and bylaws (California Bylaws) of the Company and the Delaware Certificate and Delaware Bylaws. All statements herein are qualified in their entirety by reference to the respective corporation laws of California and Delaware and the full text of the California Articles and California Bylaws and the Delaware Certificate and Delaware Bylaws. Approval by our shareholders of the reincorporation merger will automatically result in the adoption of all the provisions set forth in the Delaware Certificate and the Delaware Bylaws. A copy of the Delaware Certificate is attached hereto as Appendix D and a copy of the Delaware Bylaws is attached hereto as Exhibit D. The California Articles and California Bylaws are on file with the SEC and are available from the Company upon request.

Cumulative Voting.

Cumulative voting entitles a shareholder to cast as many votes as there are directors to be elected, multiplied by the number of shares registered in such shareholder's name. The shareholder may cast all of such votes for a single nominee or may distribute them among any two or more nominees. Under California law, shareholders of the corporation have the right to cumulative voting unless the corporation has outstanding shares listed on the New York Stock Exchange or the American Stock Exchange, or has outstanding securities qualified for trading on the NASDAQ national market and the corporation opts out of cumulative voting. Shareholders of the Company currently have the right to cumulative voting.

Under Delaware law, cumulative voting in the election of directors is not permitted unless specifically provided for in a Company's charter or bylaws. The Delaware Certificate will not provide the cumulative voting. Therefore, shareholders would not have the right to cumulative voting if the reincorporation proposal is approved.

Filling Vacancies on the Board of Directors

Under California law, any vacancy on the Board other than one created by removal of a director may be filled by the Board. If the number of directors is less than a quorum, a vacancy may be filled by the unanimous written consent of the directors then in office, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors at a meeting held pursuant to notice or waivers of notice or by a sole remaining director. A vacancy created by removal of a director may be filled by the Board only if so authorized by a corporation's articles of incorporation or by a bylaw provision approved by the corporation's shareholders. Neither the California Articles nor the California Bylaws permit directors to fill vacancies created by the removal of a director, except under certain limited circumstances.

Under Delaware law, vacancies and newly created directorships may be filled by a majority of directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, unless otherwise provided in a corporation's Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws (or unless the Certificate of Incorporation directs that a particular class of stock is to elect such director(s), in which case a majority of the directors elected by such class, or a sole remaining director so elected, shall fill such vacancy or newly created directorship). The Delaware Bylaws provide that any vacancy, including any vacancy created by the removal of a director by the shareholders of New Planet, may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

Monetary Liability of Directors.

The California Articles and the Delaware Certificate both provide for the elimination of personal monetary liability of directors to the fullest extent permissible under the law of the respective states. The provision eliminating monetary liability of directors set forth in the Delaware Certificate is potentially more expansive than the corresponding provision in the California Articles due to differences between California and Delaware law. For a more detailed explanation of the foregoing, see Significant Differences Between the Corporation Laws of California and Delaware Limitation of Liability and Indemnification, below.

Indemnification.

The Delaware Certificate permits New Planet to indemnify its officers and directors to the fullest extent permitted under Delaware law. The Delaware Bylaws require New Planet to indemnify and hold harmless each person who was or is a party, or threatened to be made a party, or is involved in any proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was, or has agreed to become, a director, officer, employee or agent of New Planet, or is or was serving at the request of New Planet as a director, officer, or employee, or in a similar capacity with another entity, or by reason of any action alleged to have been taken or omitted in such capacity, against all expenses, (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement reasonably incurred and suffered by or for him or her in connection with such proceeding or in any related appeal, provided that if the proceeding was initiated by the indemnified person, such proceeding must be authorized by the board of directors of the corporation.

Expenses incurred by an officer or director in defending an action may be paid in advance, under Delaware law, if such director or officer undertakes to repay such amounts if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to indemnification. In addition, Delaware law authorizes a corporation to purchase indemnity insurance for the benefit of its officers, directors, employees and agents whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify against the liability covered by the policy.

The California Articles authorized the Company to provide indemnification of agents for breach of duty to the Company and its shareholders and the California Bylaws require the Company to indemnify its directors to the fullest extent not prohibited under California law. In addition, the California Bylaws allow the Company to indemnify its officers, employees and agents pursuant to California law.

For a further discussion of indemnification see the paragraph below entitled Significant Differences Between the Corporation Laws of California and Delaware Indemnification and Limitation of Liability.

Bylaw Amendments.

Under California law, the Bylaws may be amended by either the affirmative vote of the majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote, or subject to certain limitations, by approval of the Board. The California Articles, as permitted under California Corporations Code Section 211, provide that the Board of Directors shall have the power to adopt, amend, alter or repeal the Bylaws, other than a Bylaw changing the maximum or minimum number of directors or changing whether the Board is fixed or variable, which may only be adopted by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast in any annual election of directors.

The Delaware Certificate provides that the Bylaws may be adopted, repealed, altered or amended by either the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast in any annual election of directors or by approval of the Board.

SIGNIFICANT DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE CORPORATION LAWS OF CALIFORNIA AND DELAWARE

The following provides a summary of major substantive differences between the Corporation Laws of California and Delaware. It is not an exhaustive description of all differences between the two states' laws.

Shareholder Approval of Certain Business Combinations

Delaware. Under Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, a Delaware corporation is prohibited from engaging in a business combination with an interested stockholder for three years following the date that such person or entity becomes an interested stockholder. With certain exceptions, an interested stockholder is a person or entity who or which owns, individually or with or through certain other persons or entities, 15% or more of the corporation's outstanding voting shares (including any rights to acquire shares pursuant to an option, warrant, agreement, arrangement, or understanding, or upon the exercise of conversion or exchange rights, and shares with respect to which the person or entity has voting rights only). The three-year moratorium imposed by Section 203 on business combinations does not apply if (i) prior to the date on which such stockholder becomes an interested stockholder the board of directors of the subject corporation approves either the business combination or the transaction that resulted in the person or entity becoming an interested stockholder; (ii) upon consummation of the transaction that made him or her an interested stockholder, the interested stockholder owns at least 85% of the corporation's voting shares outstanding at the time the transaction commenced (excluding from the 85% calculation shares owned by directors who are also officers of the subject corporation and shares held by employee stock plans that do not give employee participants the right to decide confidentially whether to accept a tender or exchange offer); or (iii) on or after the date such person or entity becomes an interested stockholder, the board approves the business combination and it is also approved at a stockholders' meeting by 66 2/3% of the outstanding voting shares not owned by the interested stockholder. Although a Delaware corporation to which Section 203 applies may elect not to be governed by Section 203, the Board intends that New Planet be, and New Planet has elected to be, governed by Section 203.

The Company believes that Section 203 will encourage any potential acquiror to negotiate with New Planet's board of directors. Section 203 also might have the effect of limiting the ability of a potential acquiror to make a two-tiered bid for New Planet in which all stockholders would not be treated equally. Shareholders should note, however, that the application of Section 203 to New Planet will confer upon the board of directors the power to reject a proposed business combination in certain circumstances, even though a potential acquiror may be offering a substantial premium for New Planet's shares over the then-current market price. Section 203 would also discourage certain potential acquirors unwilling to comply with its provisions.

California. California law provides that, in the case of a cash and certain other mergers of a California corporation with another corporation, where the latter corporation or certain of its affiliates own shares having more than 50% but less than 90% of the voting power of that first corporation, the merger must be approved by all of the first corporation's shareholders or the California Commissioner of Corporations must determine after a hearing that the terms and conditions of the merger are fair. This provision of California law may have the effect of making a cash-out merger by a majority shareholder more difficult to accomplish. Although Delaware law does not parallel California law in this respect, under some circumstances Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law does provide protection to stockholders against coercive two-tiered bids for a corporation in which the stockholders are not treated equally.

Classified Board of Directors

A classified board is one on which a certain number, but not all, of the directors are elected on a rotating basis each year.

Delaware. Delaware law permits a corporation to establish a classified board of directors, pursuant to which the directors can be divided into as many as three classes with staggered three-year terms of office, with only one class of directors standing for election each year. New Planet's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws do not provide for a classified board.

California. Under California law, certain publicly traded companies may adopt a classified board of directors by adopting amendments to their charter or bylaws, which amendments must be approved by the shareholders. The Company's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws do not currently provide for a classified board.

Removal of Directors

Delaware. Under Delaware law, any director or the entire board of directors of a corporation that does not have a classified board of directors or cumulative voting may be removed with or without cause with the approval of at least a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote at an election of directors. New Planet's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws do not provide for a classified board, and, therefore, directors can be removed with or without cause.

California. Under California law, any director or the entire board of directors may be removed with or without cause, with the approval of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote; however, no individual director may be removed (unless the entire board is removed) if the number of votes cast against such removal, or not consenting in writing to such removal, would be sufficient to elect the director under cumulative voting.

Limitation of Liability

California law and Delaware law both permit a corporation to adopt a charter provision eliminating or limiting, with exceptions, the monetary liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders for breach of the director's duty.

Table of Contents

Delaware. New Planet's Certificate of Incorporation eliminates the liability of directors to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as directors to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law, as that law exists currently and as it may be amended in the future. Under Delaware law, such a provision may not eliminate or limit a director's monetary liability for: (i) breaches of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders; (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith or involving intentional misconduct or knowing violations of law; (iii) the payment of unlawful dividends or stock repurchases or redemptions; or (iv) transactions in which the director received an improper personal benefit. This provision in New Planet's Certificate of Incorporation also does not eliminate or limit a director's liability for violations of federal law (such as the federal securities laws) and certain state laws (including state securities laws), or affect the availability of non-monetary remedies such as injunctive relief or rescission.

California. California law permits California corporations to include, in their charters, a provision eliminating or limiting the monetary liability of the corporation's directors to the corporation or its shareholders for breaches of their duties as directors, subject to exceptions that are similar but not identical to the exceptions specified by Delaware law. The Company's Articles of Incorporation presently includes a comparable provision under California law. In some circumstances, monetary liability of directors and officers could arise under California law and the Company's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws that would be eliminated under Delaware law and New Planet's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws.

Indemnification

California and Delaware each have laws, similar in some respects but not identical, regarding indemnification by a corporation of its officers, directors, employees, and agents. The Company has indemnification agreements with its officers and directors indemnifying them to the fullest extent not prohibited under California law, and New Planet anticipates, if the Reincorporation is approved, entering into similar agreements with its officers and directors. Although the law in this regard is not certain, shareholders who vote in favor of the Delaware Reincorporation, and thereby approve the new indemnification agreements, may be prevented from challenging the validity of the indemnification agreements in a subsequent court proceeding.

The indemnification and limitation of liability provisions of California law, and not Delaware law, will apply to actions of the directors and officers of the Company made prior to the Reincorporation. Nevertheless, the Board has recognized in considering the Reincorporation that the individual directors have a personal interest in obtaining the application of Delaware law to such indemnity and limitation of liability issues affecting them and the Company. In the event liabilities arise from events occurring after Reincorporation, the application of Delaware law and the New Planet Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws would result in an additional expense to the Company to the extent that any director or officer is actually indemnified in circumstances where indemnification would not be available under California law and the Company Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. The Board believes, however, that the overall effect of the Reincorporation is to provide a corporate legal environment that enhances the Company's ability to attract and retain high quality outside directors and thus benefits the interests of the Company and its shareholders.

For a discussion of the indemnification provisions in California's Articles and California Bylaws and New Planet's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, see the paragraph above entitled "The Charter and Bylaws of the Company and New Planet - Indemnification."

There is no pending or, to the Company's knowledge, threatened litigation to which any of its directors is a party in which the rights of the Company or its shareholders would be affected if the Company currently were subject to the provisions of Delaware law rather than California law and the Company indemnification agreements.

Delaware. Delaware law generally permits the indemnification of expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in the defense or settlement of a direct, derivative, or third-party action, provided there is a determination by a majority vote of a disinterested quorum of the directors or a committee of the board, by independent legal counsel, or by the stockholders, that the person seeking indemnification acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in (or not opposed to) the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful. Without court approval, however, no indemnification may be made in respect of any action by the corporation, including any derivative action, in which the person was adjudged liable.

Delaware law requires indemnification of reasonable defense expenses incurred by a director or officer, in any such proceeding, to the extent the director or officer was successful in the defense of the proceeding. Expenses incurred by an officer or director in defending an action may be advanced before the conclusion of a proceeding, under Delaware law, if the individual undertakes to repay such amounts if it ultimately is determined that he or she is not entitled to indemnification. In addition, Delaware law authorizes a corporation to purchase insurance for the benefit of its officers and directors whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify against the liability covered by the policy but subject to limits imposed by insurance law.

California. California law permits a California corporation to indemnify any director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation for expenses, monetary damages, fines, and settlement amounts to the extent, as determined by a majority vote of a disinterested quorum of directors, independent legal counsel, disinterested shareholders, or the court in which the proceeding is pending, that the individual acted in good faith and in a manner he or she believed to be in the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful. California law does not permit indemnification if the person is held liable to the corporation, including in a derivative action, except to the extent that an appropriate court concludes that despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification for those expenses that the court deems proper.

California law requires indemnification of reasonable defense expenses incurred by a director, officer, employee or agent, in any such proceeding, to the extent the director, officer, employee or agent was successful in the defense of the proceeding. Expenses incurred by an officer, director, employee or agent in defending an action may be advanced before the conclusion of a proceeding, under California law, if the individual undertakes to repay such amounts if it ultimately is determined that he or she is not entitled to indemnification. In addition, California law authorizes a corporation to purchase insurance for the benefit of its officers, directors, employees, and agents whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify against the liability covered by the policy but subject to limits imposed by insurance law.

Inspection of Shareholder List and Books and Records

Both California and Delaware law allow any shareholder to inspect the shareholder list for a purpose reasonably related to such person's interest as a shareholder. California law provides, in addition, for an absolute right to inspect and copy the corporation's shareholder list by persons holding an aggregate of 5% or more of the corporation's voting shares, or shareholders holding an aggregate of 1% or more of such shares who have filed a Schedule 14A with the SEC. Finally, California law permits any shareholder, on written demand to the corporation, to inspect the corporation's accounting books and records and minutes of proceedings of the shareholders and Board and committees of the Board for any purpose reasonably related to the shareholder's interest as such. Delaware law also permits any stockholder of record, upon compliance with procedures specified in the Delaware General Corporation Law, to inspect a list of stockholders entitled to vote at a meeting and the corporation's other books and records for any proper purpose reasonably related to such person's interest as a stockholder. However, Delaware law contains no provision comparable to the absolute right of inspection provided by California law to certain shareholders.

Dividends and Repurchases of Shares

California law dispenses with the concepts of par value of shares as well as statutory definitions of capital, surplus, and the like. The concepts of par value, capital, and surplus exist under Delaware law. The Company has never paid a cash dividend, and New Planet does not anticipate paying cash dividends in the immediate future.

Delaware. Delaware law permits a corporation to declare and pay dividends out of surplus or, if there is no surplus, out of net profits for the fiscal year in which the dividend is declared and/or for the preceding fiscal year as long as the amount of capital of the corporation following the declaration and payment of the dividend is not less than the aggregate amount of the capital represented by the issued and outstanding shares of all classes having a preference upon the distribution of assets. In addition, Delaware law generally provides that a corporation may redeem or repurchase its shares only if the capital of the corporation is not impaired and such redemption or repurchase would not impair the capital of the corporation.

California. Under California law, a corporation may not make any distribution to its shareholders unless either: (i) the corporation's retained earnings immediately prior to the proposed distribution equal or exceed the amount of the proposed distribution, or (ii) immediately after giving effect to such distribution, the corporation's assets (exclusive of goodwill, capitalized research and development expenses, and deferred charges) would be at least equal to 125% of its liabilities (not including deferred taxes, deferred income, and other deferred credits), and the corporation's current assets would be at least equal to its current liabilities (or 125% of its current liabilities if the average pre-tax and pre-interest expense earnings for the preceding two fiscal years were less than the average interest expense for such years). Such tests are applied to California corporations on a consolidated basis.

Table of Contents*Shareholder Voting*

Amendment of Charter Documents. Under California and Delaware law, the provisions of a corporation's charter document may be amended by the affirmative vote of the holders of a simple majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on such an amendment. California law permits the board of directors to amend the corporation's articles of incorporation after shares have been issued without a vote of shareholders in certain circumstances, including to adopt an amendment effecting a stock split where a corporation has only one class of shares. Delaware law contains no comparable provision.

Statutory Mergers. Delaware law does not require the vote of the stockholders of a Delaware parent corporation whose subsidiary is involved in a merger with another corporation unless the parent corporation itself is a constituent corporation in the merger. Under California law, the vote of the shareholders of a California parent corporation is required in certain circumstances when the California corporation's subsidiary merges with another corporation. Those circumstances include the situation in which shares of the California parent corporation are issued to the shareholders of the acquired company and the shareholders of the California parent corporation immediately prior to the merger own less than 83.3% of the California parent corporation's shares immediately following the merger.

Both California and Delaware law generally require that the holders of a majority of the shares of the constituent corporations in a statutory merger approve the merger. However, Delaware law does not require a vote of stockholders of the surviving corporation in a merger (unless the corporation provides otherwise in its certificate of incorporation) if (i) the merger agreement does not amend the corporation's existing certificate of incorporation; (ii) each share of the surviving corporation outstanding immediately before the effective date of the merger is an identical outstanding share after the merger; and (iii) either no shares of common stock of the surviving corporation and no shares, securities, or obligations convertible into such stock are to be issued or delivered under the plan of merger, or the authorized unissued shares or shares of common stock of the surviving corporation to be issued or delivered under the plan of merger plus those initially issuable upon conversion of any other shares, securities, or obligations to be issued or delivered under such plan do not exceed 20% of the shares of common stock of such corporation outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger. California law contains a similar exception to its voting requirements for reorganizations where shareholders or the corporation itself, or both, immediately prior to the reorganization will own immediately after the reorganization equity securities constituting more than 83.3% of the voting power of the surviving or acquiring corporation or its parent entity.

Action by Written Consent

Delaware. Under Delaware law, and unless otherwise provided in a Delaware corporation's certificate of incorporation, any action that may be taken at a stockholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting if a written consent, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by the holders of outstanding stock having sufficient votes to take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote on such action were present and voting. New Planet's Certificate of Incorporation does not contain any provision limiting the ability of stockholders to take action by written consent.

California. Under California law, and unless otherwise provided in a California corporation's articles of incorporation, any action that may be taken at a shareholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting if a written consent, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by the holders of outstanding shares having sufficient votes to take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote on such action were present and voting. California's Articles do not contain any provision limiting the ability of shareholders to take action by written consent.

Appraisal Rights

Under both California and Delaware law, a shareholder of a corporation participating in certain major corporate transactions may, under varying circumstances, be entitled to appraisal rights, pursuant to which such shareholder may receive cash in the amount of the fair market value of his, her or its shares in lieu of the consideration he, she or it would otherwise receive in the transaction.

Delaware. Under Delaware law, such fair market value is determined exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, and such appraisal rights are not available: (i) with respect to the sale, lease, or exchange of all or substantially all of the assets of a corporation; (ii) with respect to a merger or consolidation by a corporation the shares of which are either listed on a national securities exchange or are held of record by more than 2,000 holders if such stockholders receive only shares of the surviving corporation or shares of any other corporation that are either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 holders, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares of such corporations; or (iii) to stockholders of a corporation surviving a merger if no vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation is required to approve the merger under Delaware law.

Table of Contents

California. The limitations on the availability of appraisal rights under California law are different from those under Delaware law. Shareholders of a California corporation whose shares are listed on a national securities exchange generally do not have such appraisal rights unless the holders of at least 5% of the class of outstanding shares claim the right, or transfer of such shares is restricted by the corporation or any law or regulation. Appraisal rights are also unavailable if the shareholders of a corporation or the corporation itself, or both, immediately prior to the reorganization will own immediately after the reorganization equity securities constituting more than 83.3% of the voting power of the surviving or acquiring corporation or its parent entity. California law generally affords appraisal rights in sale of assets reorganizations. Under California dissenters' law, fair market value is measured as of the day before the first announcement of the terms of a merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in stock value as a result of the proposed action.

Fairness Opinion Requirement

California law provides that, except in certain circumstances, when a tender offer or a proposal for a reorganization or for a sale of assets is made by an interested party (generally a controlling or managing party of the target corporation), an affirmative opinion in writing as to the fairness of the consideration to be paid to the shareholders must be delivered to the shareholders. This fairness opinion requirement does not apply to a corporation that does not have shares held of record by at least 100 persons, or to a transaction that has been qualified under selected provisions of California state securities laws. Furthermore, if a tender of shares or vote is sought pursuant to an interested party's proposal and a later proposal is made by another party at least ten days prior to the date of acceptance of the interested party proposal, the shareholders must be informed of the later offer and be afforded a reasonable opportunity to withdraw any vote, consent, or proxy, or to withdraw any tendered shares. Delaware law has no comparable provision.

Dissolution

Delaware. Under Delaware law, unless the board of directors approves the proposal to dissolve, the dissolution must be unanimously approved by all the stockholders entitled to vote thereon. Only if the dissolution is initially approved by the board of directors may the dissolution be approved by a simple majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation's stock entitled to vote. In the event of such a board-initiated dissolution, Delaware law allows a Delaware corporation to include in its certificate of incorporation a supermajority (greater than a simple majority) voting requirement in connection with dissolutions. New Planet's Certificate of Incorporation contains no such supermajority voting requirement.

California. Under California law, shareholders holding 50% or more of the total voting power of the corporation may elect to require a corporation's dissolution, with or without the approval of the corporation's board of directors, and this right may not be modified by the articles of incorporation. In any demand for voluntary dissolution by only 50% of the voting power of a California corporation, the Company or, if the Company does not elect to purchase, the shareholders not voting for dissolution of the corporation may avoid the dissolution of the corporation by purchasing for cash at fair value the shares owned by the parties initiating the dissolution proceeding. In addition, California law provides that 50% or more of the directors in office or shareholders holding 33 1/3% or more of the total outstanding shares may file a complaint in Superior Court for involuntary dissolution on any one or more of the grounds specified under California law.

Interested Director Transactions

Under both California and Delaware law, certain contracts or transactions in which one or more of a corporation's directors has an interest are not void or voidable simply because of such interest, provided that certain conditions are met, such as obtaining required disinterested board approval, fulfilling the requirements of good faith and full disclosure, or proving the fairness of the transaction. With minor exceptions, the conditions are similar under California and Delaware law.

Loans to Officers and Employees

Delaware. Under Delaware law, a Delaware corporation may make loans to, guarantee the obligations of, or otherwise assist its officers or other employees and those of its subsidiaries (including directors who are also officers or employees) when such action, in the judgment of the directors, may reasonably be expected to benefit the corporation.

Table of Contents

California. Under California law, any loan or guaranty to or for the benefit of a director or officer of the corporation or its parent requires approval of the corporation's shareholders unless an employee benefit plan authorizing the loan or guaranty was approved by shareholders owning a majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation. However, under California law, shareholders of any corporation with 100 or more shareholders of record may approve a bylaw authorizing the board of directors alone to approve loans or guaranties to or on behalf of officers (whether or not such officers are directors) if the board of directors determines that any such loan or guaranty may reasonably be expected to benefit the corporation. The Company's Bylaws include such a provision. The Company's Bylaws authorize loans to officers and directors in accordance with California law.

Both the Company and New Planet (assuming the Reincorporation is consummated) are prohibited from making loans to their respective officers and directors pursuant to Section 402 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

Shareholder Derivative Suits

Delaware. Under Delaware law, a stockholder may bring a derivative action on behalf of the corporation only if the stockholder was a stockholder of the corporation at the time of the transaction in question or if his, her or its stock thereafter devolved upon him, her or it by operation of law. Delaware does not have a bonding requirement.

California. California law provides that a shareholder bringing a derivative action on behalf of a corporation need not have been a shareholder at the time of the transaction in question, provided that certain tests are met. California law also provides that the corporation or the defendant in a derivative suit may make a motion to the court for an order requiring the plaintiff shareholder to furnish a security bond.

Accounting Treatment of the Reincorporation Merger

The reincorporation merger would be accounted for as a reverse merger whereby, for accounting purposes, the Company would be considered the acquirer and the surviving corporation would be treated as the successor to the historical operations of the Company. Accordingly, the historical financial statements of the Company, which the Company previously reported to the SEC on Forms 10-K and 10-Q, among other forms, as of and for all periods through the date of this proxy statement, would be treated as the financial statements of the surviving corporation.

Regulatory Approval

To the Company's knowledge, the only required regulatory or governmental approval or filings necessary in connection with the consummation of the reincorporation merger would be the filing of articles of merger with the Secretary of State of California and the filing of a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware.

CERTAIN UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following is a discussion of certain United States federal income tax considerations that may be relevant to the Company's shareholders who receive shares of New Planet Common Stock in exchange for their shares of the Company Common Stock as a result of the Reincorporation. The discussion addresses only the specific United States federal income tax consequences set forth below and does not address any other federal, state, local or foreign income, estate, gift, transfer, sales, use, or other tax consequences that may result from the Reincorporation or any other transaction, including any transaction undertaken in connection with the Reincorporation. The discussion does not address all of the tax consequences of the Reincorporation that may be relevant to particular shareholders of the Company, such as dealers in securities, or those shareholders who acquired their shares upon the exercise of options, nor does it address the tax consequences to holders of options or other rights to acquire shares of the Company Common Stock. IN VIEW OF THE VARYING NATURE OF SUCH TAX CONSEQUENCES, EACH SHAREHOLDER IS URGED TO CONSULT HIS, HER OR ITS OWN TAX ADVISOR AS TO THE SPECIFIC TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE REINCORPORATION, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY OF FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL, AND FOREIGN TAX LAWS.

Table of Contents

Subject to the limitations, qualifications, and exceptions described herein, and assuming the Reincorporation qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, the following tax consequences generally will result:

(a) No gain or loss will be recognized by holders of the Company Common Stock upon receipt of New Planet Common Stock pursuant to the Reincorporation;

(b) The aggregate tax basis of the New Planet Common Stock received by each shareholder in the Reincorporation will be equal to the aggregate tax basis of the Company Common Stock surrendered in exchange therefor; and

(c) The holding period of the New Planet Common Stock received by each shareholder of the Company will include the period for which such shareholder held the Company Common Stock surrendered in exchange therefor, provided that the Company Common Stock was held by the shareholder as a capital asset at the time of the Reincorporation.

The Company has not requested a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service, nor an opinion from its outside legal counsel, with respect to the federal income tax consequences of the Reincorporation under the Code. In any case, such an opinion would neither bind the IRS nor preclude it from asserting a contrary position.

State, local, or foreign income tax consequences to shareholders may vary from the federal tax consequences described above.

The Company should not recognize gain or loss for federal income tax purposes as a result of the Reincorporation, and New Planet should succeed, without adjustment, to the federal income tax attributes of the Company.

SECURITIES ACT CONSEQUENCES

The shares of the New Planet common stock to be issued in exchange for shares of the Company common stock are not being registered under the Securities Act of 1933. In that regard, New Planet is relying on Rule 145(a)(2) under the Securities Act, which provides that a merger which has as its sole purpose a change in the domicile of a corporation does not involve the sale of securities for purposes of the Securities Act of 1933, and on interpretations of that rule by the SEC, which indicate that the making of certain changes in the Company's Articles of Incorporation which could otherwise be made only with the approval of the shareholders of either corporation does not render Rule 145(a)(2) inapplicable.

After the Reincorporation, New Planet will continue to file periodic reports and other documents with the SEC and provide to its stockholders the same type of information that the Company has previously filed and provided. Stockholders holding restricted shares of the Company common stock will have shares of New Planet common stock that are subject to the same restrictions on transfer as those to which their present shares are subject, and their stock certificates, if surrendered for replacement certificates representing shares of New Planet common stock, will bear the same restrictive legend as appears on their present stock certificates. For purposes of computing compliance with the holding period requirement of Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, stockholders will be deemed to have acquired their shares of New Planet common stock on the date full payment of the purchase price was made for the shares of the Company common stock. In summary, New Planet and its stockholders will be in the same respective positions under Rule 144 after the merger as were the Company and its shareholders prior to the merger.

INTEREST OF CERTAIN PERSONS IN, OR IN OPPOSITION TO, MATTERS TO BE ACTED UPON

As the Company anticipates that the officers and directors of New Planet (who are currently the officers and directors of the Company) will enter into new indemnification agreements, they may be deemed to have a personal interest in the Delaware Reincorporation. Other than as set forth in the preceding sentence, no person who has been a director or officer of the Company at any time since the beginning of the last fiscal year, nominee for election as a director of the Company, nor associate of the foregoing persons has any substantial interest, direct or indirect, in the Company's change of state of incorporation that differs from that of other shareholders of the Company. No director of the Company opposed the Delaware Reincorporation.

DESCRIPTION OF EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS:

2000 Stock Incentive Plan

In 2000, the Company established a stock option plan, the 2000 Stock Option Plan, which provided for 500,000 shares of common stock for issuance. At the time of the merger with Allergy Free in 2004, the Plan was amended to increase the number of shares available to 5,000,000 shares, which were converted to 100,000 shares after the 50:1 reverse stock split. During 2005, the Plan was again amended to increase the number of shares available under the Plan to 350,000. In 2006, the Shareholders approved an increase to the number of shares available under the Plan to 2,000,000. The 2000 Option Plan provides for the discretionary grant of options, stock appreciation rights (SARs), and stock bonuses to employees and directors of and consultants to the Company. Options granted under the 2000 Plan may be either incentive stock options, as defined in Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), or non-statutory stock options.

The purpose of the 2000 Stock Option Plan is to attract and retain qualified personnel, to provide additional incentives to employees, officers, directors and consultants of the Company and to promote the success of the Company's business. Under the Plan, Planet may grant or issue incentive stock options and non-statutory stock options to eligible participants, provided that incentive stock options may only be granted to employees of Planet. The 2000 Stock Option Plan also allows shares of common stock to be issued under a Stock Bonus Program through direct and immediate issuances. Similar to stock options granted under the Plan, stock bonus awards may be subjected to a vesting schedule determined by the Board of Directors. Option grants under the Plan are discretionary. Options granted are subject to vesting as determined by the Board, provided that the option vests as to at least 20% of the shares subject to the option per year. The maximum term of a stock option is ten years, but if the optionee at the time of grant has voting power over more than 10% of the Company's outstanding capital stock, the maximum term is five years. If an optionee terminates his or her service to Planet, such optionee may exercise only those option shares vested as of the date of termination, and must affect such exercise within the period of time after termination set forth in the optionee's option. The exercise price of incentive stock options granted must be at least equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock of the Company on the date of grant. Section 3. Notice of Meetings and Adjourned Meetings. Except as otherwise provided by law, written notice of any meeting of stockholders shall be given either by personal delivery or by mail to each stockholder of record. Notice of each meeting shall be in such form as is approved by the Board of Directors and shall state the date, place and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. Unless otherwise provided by law, such written notice shall be given not less than 10 nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting. Except when a stockholder attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened, presence in person or by proxy of a stockholder shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting. Except as otherwise provided by law, the business that may be transacted at any such meeting shall be limited to and consist of the purpose or purposes stated in such notice. If a meeting is adjourned to another time or place, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the time and place thereof are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken, unless additional notice is required by law or by the Certificate of Incorporation.

Section 4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law, the holders of a majority of the Corporation's stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at a meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, without regard to class or series, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the holders of a majority of shares of stock, present or represented by proxy, may adjourn any meeting from time to time without notice other than announcement at the meeting, except as otherwise required by law, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called.

Section 5. Organization. Meetings of the stockholders shall be presided over by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or, in the absence thereof, by the President or any Vice President, or in the absence of any of such officers, by a chairman to be chosen by a majority of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting who are present in person or by proxy. The Secretary or, in the absence thereof, any Assistant Secretary or any person appointed by the President shall act as secretary of all meetings of the stockholders.

Section 6. Voting. Each stockholder of voting common stock of record, as determined pursuant to Section 7 of this Article II, shall be entitled to one vote, in person or by proxy, for each share of such stock registered in such holder's name on the books of the Corporation. Election of directors need not be by written ballot, and, unless otherwise provided by law, no vote on any question before the meeting need be by ballot unless the Chairman of the meeting shall determine that it shall be by ballot or the holders of a majority of the shares of stock present in person or by proxy and entitled to participate in such vote shall so demand. In a vote by ballot, each ballot shall state the number of shares voted and the name of the stockholder or proxy voting. Except as otherwise provided by law or these Bylaws, all elections of directors and all other matters before the stockholders shall be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of stock present in person or by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote in the election or on the question. In the election of directors, votes shall not be cumulated.

Section 7. Stockholders Entitled to Vote. Except as otherwise provided by law, the Board of Directors may fix a date not more than 60 days nor less than 10 days prior to the date of any meeting of stockholders, or in the case of corporate action by written consent in accordance with the terms of Section 9 of this Article II, not more than 60 days prior to such action, as a record date for the determination of the stockholders of voting common stock entitled to vote at such meeting and any adjournment thereof, or to act by written consent, and in such case only stockholders of record on the date so fixed shall be entitled to vote at such meeting and any adjournment thereof, or to act by written consent, as the case may be, notwithstanding any transfer of any stock on the books of the Corporation after such record date.

Section 8. Order of Business. The chairman of any meeting of stockholders shall determine the order of business and the procedure at the meeting, including such regulation of the manner of voting and the conduct of discussion as seem to the chairman to be in order.

Section 9. Action by Written Consent. Unless otherwise provided by law, any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders or the Corporation may be taken without notice and an actual meeting if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken shall be signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. Except as provided above, no action shall be taken by the stockholders by written consent.

Section 10. Proxies. Every person entitled to vote or execute consents may do so either in person or by one or more agents authorized to act by a written proxy executed by the person or by one or more agents authorized to act by a written proxy executed by the person or such person's duly authorized agent and filed with the Secretary of the corporation; provided that no such proxy shall be valid after the expiration of eleven (11) months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy. The manner or execution, suspension, revocation, exercise and effect of proxies is governed by law.

Section 11. Inspectors of Election. Before any meeting or shareholders, the Board of Directors may appoint any persons, other than nominees for office, to act as inspectors of election at the meeting or its adjournment. If no inspectors of election are so appointed, the chairman of the meeting may, and on the request of any shareholder or a shareholder's proxy shall, appoint inspectors of election at the meeting. The number of inspectors shall be either one (1) or three (3). If inspectors are appointed at a meeting on the request of one or more shareholders or proxies, the majority of shares represented in person or proxy shall determine whether one (1) or three (3) inspectors are to be appointed. DIRECTORS

Section 1. Management. The property, affairs and business of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of its Board of Directors which may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by law or by these Bylaws directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 2. Number and Term. The authorized number of directors of the corporation shall be not less than a minimum of five (5) nor more than a maximum of nine (9) (which maximum number in no case shall be greater than two times said minimum, minus one) and the number of directors presently authorized is seven (7). The exact number of directors shall be set within these limits from time to time (a) by approval of the Board of Directors, or (b) by the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares represented and voting at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present (which shares voting affirmatively also constitute at least a majority of the required quorum) or by the written consent of shareholders pursuant to Section 13 herein above. Any amendment of these bylaws changing the maximum of minimum number of directors may be adopted only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote; provided, an amendment reducing the minimum number of directors to less than five (5), cannot be adopted if votes cast against its adoption at a meeting or the shares not consenting to it in the case of action by written consent are equal to more than 16-2/3 percent of the outstanding shares entitled to vote.

No reduction of the authorized number of directors shall remove any director prior to the expiration of such director's term of office. Directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders to serve for one year or until their successors are elected and have qualified. The term of office of the directors shall begin immediately after election. Elections for directors need not be by ballot unless a stockholder demands election by ballot at the election and before the voting begins, or unless these Bylaws so require. No director may be elected by written consent without a meeting of stockholders except by unanimous written consent of all shares entitled to vote for the election of the director. The authorized number of directors may be changed by amendment to this Section adopted by the vote or written consent of the stockholders entitled to exercise majority voting power.

Section 3. Quorum and Manner of Action. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the total number of directors holding office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors, except as may be otherwise specifically provided by law or these Bylaws. If at any meeting of the Board of Directors there shall be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained, and no further notice thereof need be given other than by announcement at such adjourned meeting. Attendance by a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4. Vacancies. Except as otherwise provided by law, in the case of any increase in the number of directors or of any vacancy in the Board of Directors, however created, the additional director or directors may be elected, or the vacancy or vacancies may be filled, by majority vote of the directors remaining on the whole Board although less than a quorum, or by the sole remaining director. If one or more directors shall resign, effective at a future date, such vacancy or vacancies shall be filled as provided herein. Except as otherwise provided by law, any director elected or chosen as provided herein shall serve for the unexpired term of office and until a successor is elected and qualified or until earlier resignation or removal. No reduction of the number of directors shall have the effect of removing any director prior to the expiration of the term of office.

Section 5. Resignations. A director may resign at any time upon written notice of resignation to the Corporation. Any resignation shall be effective immediately upon receipt of notice thereof by the Corporation unless a certain effective date is specified therein, in which event it will be effective upon such date. Acceptance of any resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 6. Removals. Except as provided by the Certificate of Incorporation, any director may be removed with or without cause, and another person may be elected to serve for the remainder of such term by the holders of a majority of the shares of the Corporation entitled to vote in the election of directors. If any vacancy so created shall not be filled by the stockholders, such vacancy may be filled by the directors as provided in Section 4 of this Article III.

Section 7. Annual Meetings. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held, if a quorum be present, immediately following each annual meeting of the stockholders at the place such meeting of the stockholders took place, for the purpose of organization and transaction of any other business that might be transacted at a regular meeting thereof, and no notice of such meeting shall be necessary. If a quorum is not present, such annual meeting may be held at any other time or place that may be specified in a notice given in the manner provided in Section 9 of this Article III for special meetings of the Board of Directors.

Section 8. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice at the principal office of the Corporation at such times as shall be determined from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors or written consent of all the members of the Board, provided that meetings of the Board of Directors will in all events be held at least once each calendar quarter. Except as otherwise provided by law, any business may be transacted at any regular meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 9. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman of the Board, the President, the Secretary or by any director stating the purpose or purposes of such meeting. Notices of special meetings, if mailed, shall be mailed to each director not later than two days before the day the meeting is to be held or if otherwise given in the manner permitted by these Bylaws, not later than the day before such meeting. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting need be specified in any notice unless required by these Bylaws and, unless limited by law, any and all business may be transacted at a special meeting.

Section 10. Conduct of Business. At any meeting of the Board of Directors, business shall be transacted in such order and manner as the Board may from time to time determine, and all matters shall be determined by the vote of a majority of the directors present, except as otherwise provided herein or required by law.

Section 11. Place of Meetings. The Board of Directors may hold their meetings and have one or more offices, and keep the books of the Corporation, at any office or offices of the Corporation, or at any other place as they may from time to time by resolution determine.

Section 12. Minutes of Meetings. Minutes of all meetings shall be taken and shall be kept in the minute book of the Corporation.

Section 13. Compensation of Directors. Directors shall not receive any stated salary for their services as directors, but by resolution of the Board of Directors a fixed honorarium or fee, and reimbursement of any expense of attendance may be allowed for attendance at each meeting. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor. Members of special or standing committees may be allowed a like honorarium or fee for attending committee meetings.

Section 14. Waiver of Notice. When the entire Board of Directors is present at any Board meeting, however called or noticed, and a written consent thereto is signed on the records of such meeting, or if a majority of the Board are present, and if those not present sign a written waiver of notice of such meeting, whether prior to or after the holding of such meeting, which waiver is then filed with the Secretary of the Corporation, the transactions thereof are as valid as if had at a meeting regularly called and noticed.

Section 15. Action by Unanimous Written Consent. Unless otherwise restricted by law or these Bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board of Directors consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors.

Section 16. Participation in Meetings by Telephone. Members of the Board of Directors may participate in a meeting of such Board by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting in such manner shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 2. Conduct of Business. Each committee may determine the procedural rules for meeting and conducting its business and shall act in accordance therewith, except as otherwise provided herein or required by law. Adequate provision shall be made for notice to members of all meetings; one-third of the members shall constitute a quorum unless the committee shall consist of one or two members, in which event one member shall constitute a quorum; and all matters shall be determined by a majority vote of the members present.

Section 6. Action Without Meeting. Unless otherwise restricted by law or these Bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of any committee designated by the Board may be taken without a meeting if all members of the committee consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of such committee.

ARTICLE VI
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Indemnification of Directors and Officers. (a) The Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless any person who was or is a witness, a party or is threatened to be made a party to or involved in any threatened, pending or completed claim, action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that such person or a person of whom such person is the legal representative is or was, at any time prior to or during which this Article VI is in effect, a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was, at any time prior to or during which this Article VI is in effect, serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such claim, action, suit, or proceeding is alleged action or inaction in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, against any liability, loss or expense (including attorneys' fees), judgment, fine, penalty, excise tax pursuant to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, amount paid in settlement and other liabilities actually and reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection with such claim, action, suit or proceeding if such person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any claim, action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that such person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, create a presumption that such person had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

(b) The Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless any person who was or is a witness, a party or is threatened to be made a party to or involved in any threatened, pending or completed claim, action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person or a person of whom such person is the legal representative is or was, at any time prior to or during which this Article VI is in effect, a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was, at any time prior to or during which this Article VI is in effect, serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan, whether the basis of such claim, action, suit or proceeding is alleged action or inaction in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent, against all expenses (including attorneys' fees) and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such claim, action, suit or proceeding if such person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation and, with respect to the amounts paid in settlement, the settlement is determined to be in the best interests of the Corporation; provided that no indemnification shall be made under this subsection (b) in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for gross negligence, recklessness or willful misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the Delaware Court of Chancery, or other court of appropriate jurisdiction, shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity of such expenses which the Delaware Court of Chancery, or other court of appropriate jurisdiction, shall deem proper.

(c) Any indemnification under subsections (a) and (b) (unless ordered by the Delaware Court of Chancery or other court of appropriate jurisdiction) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of such person is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in subsections (a) and (b). Such determination shall be made (1) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors not parties to such claim, action, suit or proceeding, (2) if such a quorum is not obtainable or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel, selected by the Board of Directors or (3) by the stockholders. In the event a determination is made under this subsection (c) that the director, officer, employee or agent has met the applicable standard of conduct as to some matters but not as to others, amounts to be indemnified may be reasonably prorated.

(d) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Article VI, to the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any claim, action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsection (a), or in defense of any issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against all expenses (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred in connection therewith.

(e) The right of indemnification conferred in this Article VI shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in appearing at, participating in or defending any threatened, pending or completed claim, action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and shall be paid by the Corporation at reasonable intervals in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the Board of Directors in the specific case upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized by this Article VI.

(f) It is the intention of the Corporation to indemnify the persons referred to in this Article VI to the fullest extent permitted by law with respect to any claim, action, suit or proceeding arising from events which occur at any time prior to or during which this Article VI is in effect. The indemnification provided by this Article VI shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be or become entitled to under any law, the Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaws, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, or under any policy or policies of insurance purchased and maintained by the Corporation on behalf of any such person, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be director, officer, employee or agent, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators or other legal representatives of such person.

(g) The indemnification provided by this Article VI shall be subject to all valid and applicable laws and, if this Article VI or any of the provisions hereof or the indemnification contemplated hereby are found to be inconsistent with or contrary to any such valid laws, the latter shall be deemed to control and this Article VI shall be regarded as modified accordingly and, as so modified, shall continue in full force and effect.

CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFER OF SHARES

Section 1. Certificates for Shares. Certificates for shares shall be of such form and device as the Board of Directors may designate and shall state the name of the record holder of the shares represented thereby; its number; date of issuance; the number of shares for which it is issued; a statement of the rights, privileges, preferences and restrictions, if any; a statement as to the redemption or conversion, if any; a statement of liens or restrictions upon transfer or voting, if any; if the shares be assessable or, if assessments are collectible by personal action, a plain statement of such facts.

Section 2. Transfer on the Books. Upon surrender to the Secretary or transfer agent by the Corporation of a certificate for shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment or authority to transfer, it shall be the duty of the Corporation to issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 3. Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. Where the holder of a share certificate claims that the certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the holder shall deliver an affidavit of such facts to the Board of Directors and shall, if the directors require, give the Corporation a bond sufficient to indemnify it against any claim that may be made against it on account of the alleged loss, theft or destruction of such certificate on the issuance of a new certificate thereof or whereupon a new certificate shall be issued in the same tenor and for the same number of shares as the one alleged to be lost, stolen or destroyed or if the owner so requests before the Corporation has notice that the shares represented by such certificate have been acquired by a bona fide purchaser.

Where a share certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed and the owner fails to notify the Corporation of that fact within a reasonable time after notice thereof, and the Corporation registers a transfer of the shares represented by the certificate before receiving such a notification, the owner is precluded from asserting against the Corporation any claim to a new certificate.

If after the issue of a new certificate as a replacement for a lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, a bona fide purchaser of the original certificate presents it for registration of transfer, the Corporation must register the transfer unless registration would result in over-issue. In addition to any rights on the indemnity bond, the Corporation may recover the new certificate from the person to whom it was issued or any assignee thereof except a bona fide purchaser.

Section 4. Transfer Agents and Registrars. The Board of Directors may appoint one or more transfer agents or transfer clerks, and one or more registrars which shall be an incorporated bank or trust company, either domestic or foreign, and which shall be appointed at such times and places as the requirements of the Corporation may necessitate and the Board of Directors may designate.

Section 5. Fixing Date for Determination of Stockholders of Record for Certain Purposes. (a) In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of capital stock or notice of or participation in any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than 60 days prior to the date of payment of such dividend or other distribution or allotment of such rights or the date when any such rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock may be exercised or the date of such other action. In such case, only such stockholders of record on the date so fixed shall be entitled to receive any such dividend or other distribution or allotment of rights, or to exercise such rights or for any other purpose, as the case may be, notwithstanding any transfer of any stock on the books of the Corporation after any such record date fixed as aforesaid.

(b) If no record date is fixed, the record date for determining stockholders for any such purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board of Directors adopts the resolution relating thereto.

Section 6. Registered Stockholders. Except as expressly provided by law or these Bylaws, the Corporation shall be entitled to treat registered stockholders as the only holders and owners in fact of the shares standing in their respective names, and the Corporation shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof.

Section 7. Transfer of Stock. Transfers of shares of the capital stock of the Corporation shall be made only on the books of the Corporation by the registered owners thereof, or by their legal representatives or their duly authorized attorneys, and upon such transfer the old certificates shall be surrendered to the Corporation by the delivery thereof to the person in charge of the stock transfer books and ledgers, by whom they shall be cancelled and new certificates shall thereupon be issued.

Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the person attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the stockholders, directors or members of a committee of directors need be specified in any written waiver of notice unless so required by these Bylaws.
