NEWS RELEASE

Provident Financial Holdings, Inc. slated to join Russell 3000® Index

Riverside, California, June 16, 2003 - Provident Financial Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ/PROV) announced today that the Corporation will join the Russell 3000® Index when the broad-market index is reconstituted June 30th, according to a preliminary list of additions issued by Frank Russell Company. Index membership will go into effect July 1st, and will remain in place for one year. Membership in the Russell 3000 means automatic inclusion in either the large-cap Russell 1000® Index or small-cap Russell 2000® Index.

Membership in Russell's 21 U.S. equity indexes is determined primarily by market capitalization rankings and style attributes. Russell indexes are widely used by managers for index funds and as benchmarks for both passive and active investment strategies. About $250 billion is invested in index funds based on Russell's indexes and an additional $850 billion is benchmarked to them. Investment managers who oversee these funds purchase shares of member stocks according to that company's weighting in the particular index.

Annual reconstitution of the Russell indexes captures the 3,000 largest U.S. stocks as of the end of May, ranking them by total market capitalization to create the Russell 3000. The largest 1,000 companies in the ranking comprise the Russell 1000 Index while the remaining 2,000 companies become the widely used Russell 2000 Index. For more information, go to www.russell.com.
