PROXY STATEMENT

This statement is furnished in connection with a solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Citizens Financial Corporation. The proxies we receive will be voted at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of Citizens Financial on Thursday, June 15, 2006, beginning at 4:00 p.m., EDT. The Annual Meeting will be held at our offices in The Marketplace, Suite 300, 12910 Shelbyville Road, Louisville, Kentucky 40243.

Your vote is important. Please complete, date and sign the enclosed proxy and return it in the enclosed postage-paid return envelope so your shares are represented at the Annual Meeting.

This proxy statement provides information about Citizens Financial, the proposals on the agenda for the Annual Meeting and this proxy solicitation. The terms “we,” “us,” “our,” “Citizens Financial” and the “Company” used in this statement refer to Citizens Financial Corporation. This statement and the enclosed proxy are first being sent to shareholders on or about May 11, 2006.

VOTING

Voting rights. You are entitled to notice of the Annual Meeting and to vote your Class A Stock if our records show that you owned shares as of the close of business on April 27, 2006. At that time, there were 1,664,471 shares of Class A Stock outstanding and entitled to vote. You have one vote for each share of Class A Stock you owned on the record date on all proposals.

Using a proxy to vote. If you hold your shares in your own name, you may indicate on the enclosed proxy how you want your shares voted and sign, date and mail the proxy in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. The persons named on the proxy will vote your shares in accordance with those instructions. If you give us a proxy without giving specific voting instructions, your shares will be voted for the director nominees named in this statement. We are not aware of any other matters to be presented at the meeting except for those described in this statement. If any other matters not described in this statement are properly presented at the meeting, the persons named on the proxy will have the authority to vote your shares in their discretion and will vote them in accordance with any recommendations of the Board of Directors or otherwise in their discretion. If the meeting is adjourned to a later time, they may vote your shares at the new time as well, unless you revoke your proxy.

If your Class A Stock is held in “street name,” the broker, bank or other nominee holding your shares will send you directions you must follow in order to give instructions on how to vote your shares.

How to revoke your proxy. If you return the proxy before the Annual Meeting, you may revoke it at any time before it is voted. You may revoke the proxy by (1) delivering written notice of revocation to the Secretary of Citizens Financial or (2) delivering a later-dated proxy or (3) voting in person at the meeting.

If your Class A Stock is held in “street name,” the broker, bank or other nominee holding your shares will send you directions you must follow in order to revoke or change your prior instructions on how to vote your shares.

Votes required. To transact business at the Annual Meeting, a majority of the outstanding Class A Stock entitled to vote must be represented at the meeting in person or by proxy. If you have returned a properly executed proxy or attend the meeting in person, your Class A Stock will be counted for the purpose of determining whether a majority is represented, even if you wish to abstain from voting on some or all matters introduced at the meeting. A “broker non-vote” can occur if shares are held by a broker, bank or other nominee who does not have authority to vote on a particular matter. Like abstentions, broker non-votes will be counted for determining whether a majority is represented at the meeting. We do not count abstentions or broker non-votes as votes for or against a proposal. As a result, they will not affect the outcome of the vote in the election of directors.

YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT.

You may help us save the expense of a second mailing by promptly returning the enclosed proxy. Please complete, date, sign and return the enclosed proxy in order that the required number of shares may be represented at the meeting. The enclosed envelope requires no postage if it is mailed within the United States.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Board of Directors

Our Board of Directors currently has six (6) members, who are John H. Harralson, Jr., Frank T. Kiley, George A. Turk, Thomas G. Ward, Darrell R. Wells and Margaret A. Wells. The Board held five (5) meetings during 2005. Each of the directors attended at least 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board and the committees on which she or he served.

Although the Company does not have a formal policy regarding Annual Meeting attendance by members of the Board, each director of the Company is expected to be present at the Annual Meeting, absent urgent circumstances. All of the Company's directors attended the 2005 Annual Meeting.

The Board is not currently comprised of a majority of "independent directors," as such term is defined in NASD Rule 4200(a)(15). The Board has determined that the Company is exempt from the requirement set forth in NASD Rule 4350(c)(1) that a majority of the Company's directors be independent due to the Company's status as a "controlled company," as such term is defined in NASD Rule 4350(c)(5). The Company is a controlled company because more than 50% of the voting power of the Company is controlled by an individual, Mr. Wells.

During 2005, the Board had two standing committees: the Executive Committee and the Audit Committee. The members of the Executive Committee are Mrs. Wells and Messrs. Wells and Kiley. The Executive Committee is authorized to perform all of the functions of the Board except as limited by the Company's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws and by certain provisions contained in the resolution of the Board that created the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee held one meeting in 2005.

Audit Committee

The Company's Board of Directors has a separately-designated standing audit committee established in accordance with Section 3(a)(58)(A) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The current members of the Audit Committee are Messrs. Harralson, Turk and Ward. The primary responsibility of the Audit Committee is to oversee, on behalf of the Board of Directors, the Company's financial reporting process and audits of the Company's financial statements. The Audit Committee held seven (7) meetings in 2005.

The Audit Committee operates pursuant to a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors. The Audit Committee Charter may be found on our corporate website at www.citizensfinancialcorp.com. The Audit Committee reviews and reassesses the adequacy of the Audit Committee Charter on an annual basis.

The Board of Directors has determined that Messrs. Harralson, Turk and Ward are "independent," as such term is defined in Rule 10A-3(b)(1) under the Securities Exchange Act and NASD Rule 4200(a)(15). The Board of Directors has also determined that Mr. Turk is an "audit committee financial expert," as such term is defined in Item 401(h) of SEC Regulation S-K.

Director Nominations

We have not established a standing nominating committee or committee performing similar functions. Because the Company is a “controlled company,” as such term is defined in NASD Rule 4350(c)(5), the Board of Directors has deemed it appropriate for the Company to not have such a committee. Director nominees are approved by resolution, including the Company’s independent directors. In identifying and evaluating nominees for director, the Board examines each candidate’s integrity, leadership and experience in the Company’s business area.

The Board of Directors has not adopted a formal policy with regard to the consideration of director candidates recommended by shareholders. Again, because the Company is a “controlled company,” the Board has deemed it appropriate for the Company to not have such a formal policy. Currently, the Board does not formally seek or accept director nominees recommended by shareholders other than those who are directors, acting in their capacity as directors but this does not preclude shareholder communications, as discussed generally below, that may concern potential director candidates. To date, the Company has not paid a fee to any third party for assistance in the identification or evaluation of potential director nominees.

Communications with Shareholders

The Board of Directors welcomes communications from shareholders. Shareholders may send communications to the Board, or to any particular director, c/o Citizens Financial Corporation, The Marketplace, Suite 300, 12910 Shelbyville Road, Louisville, Kentucky 40243. Any correspondence addressed to the Board, or to any particular director, will be forwarded by the Company to the addressee or addressees, without review by management.

Code of Business Ethics and Conduct

The Board of Directors has adopted a Code of Business Ethics and Conduct that applies to our principal executive, financial and accounting officers and persons performing similar functions, as well as all other directors and employees. This Code may be found on our corporate website at www.citizensfinancialcorp.com. The Company intends to disclose on the website any amendments of the Code or waivers of the Code granted to directors or officers of the Company. There have been none to date.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires our directors, executive officers and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of a registered class of our equity securities to file reports of holdings and transactions in our equity securities with the Securities and Exchange Commission. To our knowledge, based solely upon a review of the copies of such reports furnished to us, all Section 16(a) reports were timely filed during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Board of Directors has not appointed a Compensation Committee or the equivalent but acted on executive compensation matters as a committee of the whole.

Mr. Wells was President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company throughout the year. Mr. Wells is also the controlling shareholder of the business that employs Frank T. Kiley, and participates in the determination of Mr. Kiley's compensation from that source.

Relationships required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 404 of Regulation S-K of the Securities and Exchange Commission are described in "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions," below.

Report on Executive Compensation for 2005

The following is the Board of Directors' report on executive compensation for the Company's fiscal year ended December 31, 2005.

Darrell R. Wells, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, is paid an annual salary, set at the rate of $105,000 in 2005, as compensation for his investment portfolio management services as well as for his part-time service as President and CEO. He does not participate in Company employee benefit programs. The 2005 salary amount was proposed with the approval of Mr. Wells in 2004 and accepted by vote of John H. Harralson, Jr., George A. Turk and Thomas G. Ward, the independent directors of the Company. It was not based on factors or criteria related to the Company's performance, quantitative or qualitative.

The Board of Directors determines the compensation and benefits to be provided to the Company's other executive officers. The Board has not adopted a formal executive compensation policy. In 2005, the primary components of most executive officers' compensation continued to be (i) salary, (ii) benefits, which are generally available to all employees. Two executive officers were guaranteed specific minimum bonuses pursuant to agreements when they joined the company and a third executive officer was made eligible for bonuses under a Master Cash Bonus Performance Plan when he joined the Company. There were no other bonuses paid or accrued for 2005.

As a general approach, the Board intends that compensation levels will be competitive with other opportunities available to Company executives. Executive compensation is indirectly related to corporate performance, in that improved Company performance improves the climate for annual salary increases or bonuses. However, no portion of executive compensation is currently contingent upon meeting specific criteria except any bonus payable under the Master Cash Bonus Performance Plan. The Company has not adopted a bonus plan or other incentive compensation plan, other than the Master Cash Bonus Performance Plan and the 1999 Stock Option Plan. To date, no options have been granted under the 1999 Stock Option Plan.

Compensation decisions for those executive officers employed or promoted during the year were negotiated on an ad hoc basis in relation to particular circumstances.

The Board of Directors reviewed the salaries of the other officers at a meeting held after the completion of the Company's financial statements for 2004 and adopted the recommendations of Mr. Wells and Joseph M. Bost as to selective increases for 2005 consistent with the general approach expressed above.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Darrell R. Wells is involved in, and his wife Margaret A. Wells and Frank T. Kiley are affiliated with, certain business entities that are or were formerly engaged in one or more transactions with the Company. As stated previously, Mr. Wells is the controlling shareholder of the business that employs Mr. Kiley and participates in the determination of Mr. Kiley's compensation from that source.

Insurance regulatory statutes require the Insurance Subsidiaries to deposit portions of their assets in bank custodial accounts for the protection of policyholders. The Company utilizes Commonwealth Bank and Trust Company, which is controlled by Mr. Wells, as the principal custodian for the Company's statutory deposits and other assets. The fees we pay the bank are based on the amount of assets held. In 2005, we paid $44,664 in fees to the bank (0.031% of our average deposits and other assets held by the bank). Mrs. Wells and Mr. Kiley are also directors of the bank and she served as interim chief executive officer of the bank for three months during 2005.

Our subsidiary Corporate Realty Service, Inc. manages our home office building and two office buildings owned by partnerships controlled by Mr. Wells. These partnerships have paid management fees to Corporate Realty Service based upon a percentage of rental income and leasing commissions according to a prescribed schedule, and also reimbursed certain salary expenses of Corporate Realty Service. Beginning in September, 2005, the partnerships employed an independent agent for leasing services to replace Corporate Realty Service. For 2005, the partnerships paid Corporate Realty Service $146,095, consisting of $71,392 in management fees, $7,916 in leasing commissions and $60,185 in salary reimbursement. Mr. Kiley also owns interests in these partnerships. Corporate Realty Service has provided occasional consulting services to Commonwealth Bank and Trust Company on an hourly fee basis. No such fees were paid in 2005.

Beginning in December 2002, Mr. Wells has made loans to the Company to increase the capital and surplus of Citizens Security and to provide for working capital, including bank debt service. Including the most recent loan on March 29, 2006, these loans have totaled $4,360,000. The loans are unsecured and bear interest payable quarterly at the greater of six percent (6%) per annum or one percent (1%) over the prime rate charged by the unaffiliated commercial bank with which the Company has its primary borrowing relationship, reset on the first day of each calendar quarter. By their terms, the principal of the loans is repayable on 90 days' notice by Mr. Wells or on June 30, 2007. The maturity of the loans has been extended by agreement from time to time. However, Mr. Wells has agreed with the bank referred to above that no part of the principal of the loans shall be repaid to him until all the Company's indebtedness to the bank has been repaid. Such indebtedness to the bank is presently scheduled to be paid in installments through January 1, 2007. The Company is permitted to prepay the bank indebtedness without penalty, in which event it would also be permitted to prepay the loans from Mr. Wells. We have also agreed to reimburse him for fees he has incurred since March, 2003 to maintain a $5,000,000 line of credit from a bank he obtained to fund these loans to the Company. The fee is equal to one fourth of one percent (0.25%) of the undrawn amount of the line of credit, presently

$1,500,000. The total amount paid or accrued to Mr. Wells in 2005 for interest and fee reimbursements with respect to these obligations was about $230,000.

In April, 2004, in connection with the sale of its 1/16th interest in a shared ownership program for an airplane to SMC Advisors, Incorporated, the Company entered into a two-year arrangement to reimburse SMC Advisors, which is controlled by Mr. Wells, for 30% of the monthly turnkey management fees and any other maintenance fees charged by the program sponsor, plus 30% of SMC Advisors' costs of financing the purchase, in exchange for the right to use the aircraft for up to 15 flight hours, which equal 30% of the flight hours available to SMC Advisors. The Company's payments in respect of monthly fees and finance costs for 2005 were about $56,100. This arrangement ended April 30, 2006. Effective as of May 1, 2006, however, the parties entered into a similar arrangement for up to 10 flight hours (20% of the flight hours available to SMC Advisors) for a smaller airplane for which the monthly fees will be lower. In the new arrangement, the former 30% share of finance costs is replaced by a 20% capital charge payable quarterly at the greater of six percent (6%) per annum or the prime rate charged by the unaffiliated commercial bank with which the Company has its primary borrowing relationship, reset on the first day of each calendar quarter.
