Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

Pursuant to the terms of the Note and Warrant Purchase Agreement (the "Purchase Agreement"), dated as of October 17, 2003, by and between the Company and Deutsche Bank AG-London acting through DB Advisors as investment advisor, Deutsche Bank, agreed to purchase a non-convertible senior secured promissory note in the principal amount of $40,000,000 (the "Note"), and warrants to purchase 26,666,667 shares of the Company's Common Stock (the "Warrants"). On December 19, 2003, the Note and the Warrants were issued to Deutsche Bank.

All funds used by DB Advisors to acquire the above-listed securities were provided to DB Advisors by Deutsche Bank. Deutsche Bank provided the funds out of working capital.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

Deutsche Bank purchased the securities covered by this Statement in order to acquire an interest in the Company for investment purposes. Deutsche Bank intends to review continuously its position in the Company. Depending on further evaluations of the business prospects of the Company and upon other developments, including, but not limited to, general economic and business conditions and stock market conditions, Deutsche Bank may (i) exercise its right to purchase Common Stock pursuant to the Warrants, (ii) retain or dispose of all or a portion of the Note, the Warrants and/or Common Stock beneficially owned by it, subject to any applicable legal and contractual restrictions on its ability to do so in privately negotiated transactions, open market sales or otherwise or (iii) purchase or dispose of any other securities of the Company.

Pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement and subject to applicable laws and regulations, Deutsche Bank has the right to designate one of the nine directors nominated by the Board of Directors of the Company so long as Deutsche Bank and/or its affiliates and/or those transferees permitted under the Purchase Agreement continue to hold at least 25% of the Warrants (or Common Stock received upon the exercise of the Warrants) initially purchased under the Purchase Agreement. Note and Warrant Purchase Agreement

On October 17, 2003, Deutsche Bank, acting through its London Branch and DB Advisors, entered into the Purchase Agreement with the Company. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement, Deutsche Bank agreed to purchase the Note and the Warrants. On December 19, 2003, the Note and the Warrants were issued to Deutsche Bank.

Deutsche Bank also received certain registration rights for its securities as set forth in the Registration Rights Agreement (as described below).

This description of the Purchase Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Purchase Agreement, a copy of which has been filed as Exhibit 2 to this Statement and is incorporated herein by reference.

Registration Rights Agreement

On December 19, 2003, Deutsche Bank, acting through its London Branch and DB Advisors, entered into a Registration Rights Agreement with the Company (the "Registration Rights Agreement").

Within 90 days of execution of the Registration Rights Agreement, the

Edgar Filing: DEUTSCHE BANK AG\ - Form SC 13D

Company shall file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), and thereafter use its reasonable best efforts to have declared effective as soon as practicable after filing thereof, a "shelf" registration statement (a "Shelf Registration Statement") on Form S-3 pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), in each case, covering the resale of all of the shares of Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of the Warrants issued to Deutsche Bank pursuant to the Purchase Agreement or securities issuable, issued, or distributed in respect of any of the Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of such warrants (the "New Registrable Securities"). The Company shall, subject to customary terms and conditions, use its reasonable best efforts to keep the Shelf Registration Statement continuously effective from the date that such Shelf Registration Statement is declared effective to the extent required to permit the disposition of the New Registrable Securities so registered.

Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, with certain limitations, Deutsche Bank and its permitted transferees under the Registration Rights Agreement or the Purchase Agreement (collectively, the "Holders") may send a written request (a "Demand") to the Company which specifies the intended method or methods of disposition of all or part of the New Registrable Securities. After receipt of such Demand, the Company shall promptly give written notice of such request to all Holders. Thereafter, the Company shall, subject to certain limitations, use its reasonable best efforts to effect as soon as practicable a registration statement under the Securities Act of all the New Registrable Securities that the Holders request to be registered in the Demand or a written request given within ten days of the written notice of Demand by the Company; provided, however, that the aggregate value of the New Registrable Securities requested to be registered (i) be at least $10,000,000 based on the closing trading price of the Common Stock on the date of such Demand or (ii) be at least 20% of the New Registrable Securities issuable upon the exercise of the Warrants. However, the Company may delay or defer such a filing or the effectiveness of such registration statement during no more than three periods (each a "Blackout Period") aggregating to not more than 90 days in any twelve-month period if (i) the Company would, in accordance with the advice of counsel, be required to disclose, in any prospectus included in a registration statement filed under the Securities Act pursuant to a Demand by the Holders, information not otherwise required by law to be publicly disclosed and (ii) in the reasonable judgment of the Company's Board of Directors, (a) there is a reasonable likelihood that such disclosure, or any other action to be taken in connection with such prospectus, would materially and adversely affect or interfere with any financing, acquisition, merger, disposition of assets (not in the ordinary course of business), corporate reorganization or other similar transaction involving the Company or (b) there is reasonable likelihood that such a disclosure would materially and adversely affect or interfere with the best interests of the Company or its shareholders and such disclosure relates to material legal and regulatory developments; provided, however, that the Company shall delay during any Blackout Period the filing or effectiveness of, or suspend sales under, any registration statement under the Securities Act required pursuant to the registration rights of the holders of any other securities of the Company. The Company shall promptly give the Holders written notice of such determination containing a general statement of the reasons for such postponement and an approximation of the anticipated delay.

If the Company proposes to register any of its Common Stock under the Securities Act, with limited exceptions, it must give written notice of such registration to all Holders at least 20 days before initial filing of such registration statement. The Company must include in such registration all the New Registrable Securities then outstanding and specified in a written request or requests made by Holders within ten days after the date of the written notice by the Company of such registration.

Deutsche Bank's registration rights set forth in the Registration Rights Agreement terminate upon the later of (i) the second anniversary of the Expiration Date (as defined in the Warrants) and (ii) three months after the date Deutsche Bank ceases to be an "affiliate" of the Company pursuant to Rule 144 of the Securities Act.

The Company has the customary rights to delay the filing or effectiveness of any registration statement under the Registration Rights Agreement. The Registration Rights Agreement contains customary indemnification provisions for the registration rights.

This description of the Registration Rights Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Registration Rights Agreement, a copy of which has been filed as Exhibit 3 to this Statement and is incorporated herein by reference.

Warrants

The Warrants entitle Deutsche Bank and its permitted assigns to purchase 26,666,667 shares of the Company Common Stock at the price of $1.50 per share (the "Exercise Price"). The terms of the Warrants provide for customary adjustments of the Exercise Price and/or the number of shares issuable upon exercise of the Warrants in the case of certain events such as stock splits, issuance of additional shares, capital reorganization, consolidation, merger, transfer of assets, dissolution, liquidation, winding-up and other corporate events (as described in the Warrant).

The Warrants are exercisable from December 19, 2003 through December 19, 2006 (the "Expiration Date"); however, Deutsche Bank has a one-time option prior to December 19, 2006 to extend the Expiration Date to any date prior to and including June 19, 2008 so long as the maturity date of the Note is extended to the same date. The Expiration Date will also be automatically extended if (i) on the Expiration Date, (A) there is no effective registration statement under the Securities Act covering all of the Registrable Securities (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement) or (B) a Blackout Period is then in effect, or (ii) on the Expiration Date, the holder of the Warrant and the Company have made the necessary regulatory applications or filings but the requisite approval from such governmental authorities have not been obtained to permit the exercise of the Warrants. The Expiration Date will be extended until such registration statement is declared effective, there is no Blackout Period or all requisite approvals are obtained.

The terms of the Warrant provide for exercise by (i) the surrender of the Warrants, with the necessary notice of exercise, to the Company and the payment of the exercise price for the shares being purchased, or (ii) if in connection with a registered public offering of the Common Stock, the surrender of the Warrants, with the necessary notice of exercise, together with notice of arrangements reasonably satisfactory to the Company for payment to the Company from the proceeds of the sale of the shares in the public offering, or (iii) the tender of all or a portion of the Note in a principal amount equal to the then applicable Exercise Price multiplied by the number of shares of Common Stock being purchased.

The terms of the Warrant also permits the holder of the Warrants, at the holder's option, to effect a cashless exercise if the average of the closing price of the Common Stock over the 20 trading days immediately prior to the date of the proposed exercise is equal to or greater than $5.00 per share at the time of exercise. If the holder of the Warrant elects to exercise the Warrants when the average closing price of the Common Stock over such period is less than $5.00 per share, the Company may require the holder of the Warrants to effect a cashless exercise.

This description of the Warrants is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Warrant, a copy of which has been filed as Exhibit 4 to this Statement and is incorporated herein by reference.

Senior Secured Promissory Note

The Note received by Deutsche Bank bears interest compounded quarterly at the floating rate of LIBOR plus 0.50% per annum. Interest is payable on the last day of each three-month interest period, as set forth in the Note, and calculated on the basis of actual number of days elapsed and a year of 360 days. The Company has the option to pay such interest in cash or to cause such interest to be capitalized and added to the principal amount of the Note, which additional amount shall bear interest and otherwise be payable in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Note. Unless paid on or prior to maturity, the Note matures, and the principal and accrued and unpaid interest becomes due in full on December 19, 2003, provided, however, that such date may be extended to coincide with any extension of the Expiration Date (as defined in the Warrants) permitted under and provided in the Warrants.

Guaranty and Security Agreement

On December 19, 2003, Deutsche Bank, acting through its London Branch and DB Advisors, entered into a Guaranty and Security Agreement with the Company (the "Guaranty and Security Agreement").

Pursuant to the Guaranty and Security Agreement, the Company and each of its subsidiaries having 5% or more of the Company's aggregate consolidated assets or revenues or net income of at least 5% of the amount of the Company's aggregate consolidated revenues or net income (a "Material Subsidiary") jointly and severally guarantee the payment when due of the Company's obligations under the Note and grant a security interest in its assets with respect to such obligations. In the event of the formation or acquisition of any Material Subsidiary, such

Material Subsidiary would be required to join the Guaranty and Security Agreement as a guarantor.
