Item Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

1.01.

On April 26, 2010, Ingram Micro Inc. (the “Company”) and Ingram Funding Inc. (“Ingram Funding”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into a new U.S. revolving trade account receivable-backed financing program (the “New Receivables Program”) pursuant to a Receivables Purchase Agreement and a Receivables Sale Agreement included as exhibits in this report. The New Receivables Program replaces the Company’s previous U.S. revolving trade account receivable-backed financing program, which was terminated on the same date as discussed below under Item 1.02. The New Receivables Program provides for up to $500 million initially in borrowing capacity secured by a majority of the Company’s U.S.-based receivables, and may, subject to the financial institution’s approval and availability of eligible receivables, be increased to $700 million in accordance with the terms of the Receivables Purchase Agreement. The New Receivables Program matures in April 2013 and the interest rate is dependent on designated commercial paper rates (or, in certain circumstances, an alternate rate) plus a predetermined margin. The Receivables Purchase Agreement is subject to customary fees and contains various customary affirmative and negative covenants, representations and warranties and default and termination provisions. The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Receivables Purchase Agreement and the Receivables Sale Agreement, copies of which are filed as Exhibit 10.1 and 10.2 to this report, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference.

Item Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

1.02.

On April 26, 2010, in connection with the entry into the New Receivables Program discussed above, the Company and Ingram Funding terminated a previous receivables funding agreement, dated July 29, 2004, as amended from time to time, among the Company, Ingram Funding and General Electric Capital Corporation and a previous receivables sale agreement, dated July 29, 2004, as amended from time to time, between the Company and Ingram Funding (collectively, the “Previous Program”). The maximum amount available under the Previous Program was $650 million and the final maturity date was July 30, 2010. The Company had no borrowings outstanding under the Previous Program as of April 3, 2010.

Item Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a 2.03. Registrant.

The information set forth in Item 1.01 is incorporated by reference herein.
