Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Acquisition Agreement

On January 31, 2005, MetLife, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and Citigroup Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Citigroup"), entered into an Acquisition Agreement (the "Acquisition Agreement"), pursuant to which the Company agreed to acquire all of the outstanding shares of capital stock (the "Transferred Shares") of certain indirect subsidiaries (the "Acquired Companies") of Citigroup, including The Travelers Insurance Company, and substantially all of Citigroup's international insurance businesses. The transaction, which is currently expected to close this summer (the "Closing Date"), is subject to certain domestic and international regulatory approvals, as well as other customary conditions to closing, including the execution and delivery of certain related transaction documents. The Company's obligation to close is not subject to a financing contingency.

Pursuant to the Acquisition Agreement, the Company will issue to Citigroup up to $3.0 billion in equity securities of the Company and will pay the balance of the purchase price in cash. The amount of stock that the Company issues on the Closing Date will be determined by the Company no less than three days prior to the Closing Date and valued based on the average daily closing price of the Company's common stock ten days prior to determination. The consideration paid on the Closing Date will be subject to adjustment as described more fully in the Acquisition Agreement filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto.

Prior to the Closing Date, Citigroup and the subsidiaries of Citigroup that own the Transferred Shares will be subject to certain business conduct restrictions with respect to the business being sold and the Company will be subject to certain limited business conduct restrictions. For a period of 7 years following the Closing Date, Citigroup and its affiliates are prohibited from writing life insurance and annuity products in the United States and globally (with the exception of Mexico), subject to certain exceptions. The Acquisition Agreement provides that Citigroup will indemnify the Company for certain losses as described therein. The indemnification provided by Citigroup with respect to breaches of certain representations and warranties is subject to a per claim limit of $100,000, a minimum indemnification limit of $75 million and a maximum indemnification limit of $2 billion (other than the tax indemnification provided by Citigroup, which is not subject to a dollar limit).

The execution and delivery of master domestic and international distribution agreements (forms of which are attached as exhibits B-1 and B-2 to the Acquisition Agreement filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto) is a condition to closing the transaction. These agreements, when signed, will provide that, for a period of ten years from the Closing Date, the Company will have rights to make products available through certain Citigroup distribution channels, subject to appropriate suitability and other standards.

The foregoing description of the transaction is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Acquisition Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 3.02. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities

Edgar Filing: METLIFE INC - Form 8-K

Pursuant to the Acquisition Agreement described above in Item 1.01 of this current report, which disclosure is incorporated herein by reference, the Company agreed to issue to Citigroup on the Closing Date equity securities, including convertible preferred securities and shares of its common stock, par value $0.01 per share. The aggregate number of shares of the Company's common stock and convertible preferred securities to be issued in connection with the acquisition will be determined no less than three days prior to the Closing Date. This issuance of these securities will be made pursuant to an exemption from registration provided by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.
