Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Darwin Professional Underwriters, Inc. (the Company) has entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of June 27, 2008 (the Merger Agreement), with Allied World Assurance Company Holdings, Ltd, a Bermuda company (Parent), and Allied World Merger Company, a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (MergerCo). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, MergerCo will merge with and into the Company, with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation and as a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (the Merger).

At the effective time of the Merger, (i) each outstanding share of common stock of the Company (other than shares owned by the Company, its subsidiaries, Parent, MergerCo or any of their wholly owned subsidiaries or any stockholders who properly exercise appraisal rights under Delaware law) will be cancelled and automatically converted into the right to receive $32.00 in cash, without interest (the Merger Consideration) and (ii) each outstanding option to purchase shares of common stock of the Company will be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive an amount in cash determined by multiplying (x) the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration over the applicable exercise price per share of such option by (y) the number of shares of common stock of the Company subject to such option (the Option Consideration). In addition, each outstanding restricted share of the Company will fully vest and be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration. Under the Merger Agreement, if the aggregate consideration to be paid by Parent pursuant to the Merger is increased by more than $1,000,000 as a result of the Company s breach of its representations and warranties contained in Sections 4.03(a) and 4.03(b) of the Merger Agreement (the amount of such increase above $1,000,000 being referred to as the Excess Amount), then the Merger Consideration and the Option Consideration will be ratably and equitably reduced so that the aggregate consideration to be paid by Parent at the closing of the Merger is reduced by an amount equal to the Excess Amount.

The Board of Directors of the Company (the Board) approved the Merger Agreement on the unanimous recommendation of a special committee comprised entirely of independent directors.

The Company has made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement. The Company may not solicit competing proposals, provide information or engage in discussions with third parties, subject to exceptions that permit the Board to take certain actions required by their fiduciary duties.

The consummation of the Merger is subject to a number of customary closing conditions, including, but not limited to, (i) approval of the Merger Agreement by the Company s stockholders, (ii) expiration or termination of the applicable Hart-Scott-Rodino Act waiting period and (iii) receipt of specified governmental and regulatory consents and approvals.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both the Company and Parent, and further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, the Company may be required to pay Parent a termination fee of $16,500,000.

Alleghany Insurance Holdings LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Alleghany Corporation which owns approximately 55% of the Company s outstanding common stock, has agreed to, among other things, vote such number of shares equal to 40% of the Company s outstanding voting stock in favor of the Merger, pursuant to the terms of a voting agreement entered into with Parent.

The foregoing description of the Merger and Merger Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties of the Company, Parent and MergerCo made to each other as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made solely for purposes of the Merger Agreement among the Company, Parent and MergerCo and may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by the Company, Parent and MergerCo in connection with the negotiating of the terms. Moreover, some of those representations and warranties may not be accurate or complete as of any specified date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to stockholders or may have been used for purposes of allocating risk among the Company, Parent and MergerCo rather than establishing matters as facts.
