ITEMS 1 THROUGH 9, AND ITEM 11.

All information contained in the Offer to Exchange and the related Letter of Transmittal, and any prospectus supplement or other supplement thereto related to the Offer, is expressly incorporated herein by reference with respect to Items 1-9 and 11 of the Schedule TO, except that such information is hereby amended and supplemented to the extent specifically provided herein.

On June 12, 2009, the Company did not obtain the requisite vote to approve the proposed amalgamation of Max Capital Group, Ltd. ( Max ) with IPC Limited, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (the proposed Max amalgamation ), at its annual general shareholder meeting. Approximately 72% of the votes cast at the Company s annual general meeting voted against the proposed Max amalgamation. Also on June 12, 2009, Max announced that it had terminated the Agreement and Plan of Amalgamation previously entered into among Max, the Company and IPC Limited on March 1, 2009, as amended.

Further, on June 12, 2009, Validus filed a supplement to its definitive proxy statement in connection with the solicitation of proxies to approve the issuance of Validus voting common shares, $0.175 par value per share, in connection with the acquisition of the Shares.

On June 14, 2009, the Company and Validus entered into a mutual confidentiality agreement.

On June 15, 2009, the Chairman of the Company s board of directors sent a letter to Validus outlining the Company s views regarding a possible negotiated transaction with Validus. The Company also included the letter in a press release.

Also on June 15, 2009, Validus issued a press release stating that Validus would seek to replace the Company s board of directors if Validus is unable to reach a negotiated agreement with the Company s board of directors in a timely fashion. Validus also announced in the press release that it would continue to pursue the exchange offer and the Validus scheme of arrangement even as Validus seeks to reach a consensual agreement with the Company s board of directors.

Further, on June 15, 2009, Validus filed an amendment to its preliminary proxy statement to solicit requisitions from the Company s shareholders to compel the Company s board of directors to call a special general meeting of the Company s shareholders (the IPC special general meeting ). The amended preliminary proxy statement discloses that Validus will introduce proposals at the IPC special general meeting to, among other matters, (i) remove all of the Company s directors from their positions as directors of the Company and fill the vacancies created by such removal with nominees of Validus and (ii) amend the Company s bye-laws to delete bye-law 52 (limitation on voting rights of controlled shares) and bye-law 63(2) (restriction on transfer) and all references in the bye-laws thereto, and to replace such provisions with the words Intentionally Left Blank.

If the Company s board of directors cooperates with Validus and executes the proposed agreement and plan of amalgamation and two amendments thereto delivered to the Company and signed by Validus, the IPC special general meeting may be unnecessary and may not be held. While Validus continues to seek a consensual amalgamation transaction with the Company, Validus will continue to pursue the exchange offer and the Validus scheme of arrangement in order to complete an acquisition and will seek to replace the Company s board of directors if an agreement with the Company s board of directors is not reached in a timely fashion.
