Item 8.01. Other Events.

As previously disclosed, on July 2, 2009, Proliance International, Inc. (Proliance) and certain of its United States subsidiaries (together with Proliance, the Debtors) filed voluntary petitions for reorganization under chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court of the District of Delaware (the Bankruptcy Court). The cases are being jointly administered as In re: Proliance International, Inc., Case No. 09-12278.

On the same day, the Debtors filed with the Bankruptcy Court a Motion of the Debtors for Interim and Final Orders Establishing Notice and Hearing Procedures for Trading in Equity Securities.

On July 6, 2009, the Bankruptcy Court granted the equity trading motion on an interim basis. Among other things, the interim order (1) approved certain procedures set forth in the notice filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this report (the Trading Procedures Notice) in order to assist the Debtors in preserving their net operating losses and (2) provided that the Debtors must file the Trading Procedures Notice in a Current Report on Form 8-K with the Securities Exchange Commission within three business days of the entry of the interim order. The Trading Procedures Notice provides, among other things, that any purchase, sale, trade or other transfer of equity securities in Proliance that is subject to, but violates, the procedures set forth in the Trading Procedures Notice and the interim order will be null and void, will confer no rights on the transferee and may result in the imposition of sanctions by the Bankruptcy Court. The hearing to consider the entry of a final order approving the equity trading motion is scheduled for July 31, 2009.

The above summary of certain terms of the Trading Procedures Notice is qualified in its entirety by the Trading Procedures Notice, a copy of which is filed as an exhibit hereto.

Item 9.01. Financial Statement and Exhibits.
