Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On November 30, 2010, the stockholders of Western Alliance Bancorporation (the Company) approved an amendment to the Company's Second Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended (the Articles Amendment), to prohibit certain acquisitions of the Company's common stock (Common Stock), without the written approval of the Company's board of directors (the Board).

The Articles Amendment is intended to protect the Company's ability to use certain tax assets, such as net operating loss carryforwards, capital loss carryforwards and certain built-in losses (the Tax Benefits), to offset future taxable income. If the Company were to experience an ownership change, as defined in Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code), its ability to utilize these Tax Benefits to offset future taxable income could be significantly limited. The Articles Amendment is intended to reduce the likelihood that the Company will experience such an ownership change by prohibiting any person (as defined) from acquiring 4.9% or more of the outstanding shares of the Company's then-outstanding Common Stock, or any existing 4.9% or greater holder from acquiring any additional shares of Common Stock, in each case, without the written approval of the Company's board of directors (the Board). The Board may approve an acquisition that would otherwise violate the restrictions of the Articles Amendment, if the Board determines that such acquisition is in the best interests of the Company.

The Articles Amendment will expire on the earlier of: (i) the repeal of Section 382 of the Code or any successor statute if the Board expressly determines that the Articles Amendment is no longer necessary for the preservation of Tax Benefits, (ii) the beginning of a taxable year of the Company to which the Board determines that no Tax Benefits may be carried forward, or (iii) November 30, 2013. The Board also may accelerate the expiration date of the Articles Amendment to the extent it deems necessary or advisable to protect or preserve the Tax Benefits.

A more detailed description of the Articles Amendment is contained in the Company's Proxy Statement filed on October 15, 2010, which is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Articles Amendment (which was effective upon filing with the Nevada Secretary of State on November 30, 2010), which is filed as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report on 8-K.

Item 5.07. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

On November 30, 2010, the Company held a Special Meeting of Stockholders (the Special Meeting) at which the Company's stockholders approved the Articles Amendment. At the Special Meeting, 71,488,502 shares of outstanding Common Stock were represented in person or by proxy, which constituted a quorum. The voting results were as follows:

Votes For	Votes Against	Abstentions	Broker Non-Votes
69,623,725	1,848,020	16,757	0
