ITEM 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT.

ITEM 2.03 CREATION OF A DIRECT FINANCIAL OBLIGATION OR AN OBLIGATION UNDER AN OFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENT OF A REGISTRANT

On December 8, 2006, Citizens, Inc. (Citizens) entered into the First Amendment (the Amendment) to its First Amended and Restated Loan Agreement (the Agreement) with Regions Bank, an unaffiliated Alabama banking association. The Amendment, effective November 30, 2006, extended the maturity date of the Agreement to November 29, 2007. The Agreement amended, renewed and restated in its entirety the prior Loan Agreement entered into by Citizens, Inc. and Regions Bank on March 22, 2004. Under the Agreement, as amended by the Amendment, Citizens is authorized to borrow up to $75 million on a revolving line of credit basis. Citizens does not have any near term plans to draw upon the line of credit. A summary of the key provisions of the line of credit is as follows:

Use of Proceeds Citizens will use the proceeds for acquisitions and the formation of new subsidiaries.

Interest Rate Equal to the lesser of (a) a rate of interest per annum equal to the 30-day LIBOR Rate, which was 5.35% as of December 4, 2006, plus 1.80% payable on June 5 and December 5 for the term of the Agreement and (b) the Highest Lawful Rate, which is the maximum rate of interest, under applicable law, any bank is then permitted to charge on the obligations. The Highest Lawful Rate is the lesser of the weekly ceiling under Texas law and if the amount outstanding under the Agreement is less than $250,000, 24% and if the amount outstanding is greater than $250,000, then 28%.

Maturity Date November 29, 2007, although Citizens has the right to terminate the line of credit at any time. Upon termination, all amounts outstanding under the line would need to be paid unless as otherwise mutually agreed, which could include extending the line.

Collateral all shares of capital stock of any subsidiary acquired by the Company using proceeds under the line, or if the Company's primary insurance subsidiary, CICA Insurance Company of America (CICA), is the acquiring entity and uses proceeds from the line, then CICA will be required to execute a subordinated debenture payable to the Company, and the proceeds of such debenture will be collateral; and any and all interest, dividends and distributions with respect to, and any and all proceeds arising from the collection of, or from the collection of, the collateral listed above.

Covenants Until payment in full of any borrowings and termination of the line of credit, the Company and CICA have agreed, among other things, to:

- (a) not incur debt or liability other than (i) existing debt, (ii) debt incurred in the ordinary course of business, (iii) liabilities under insurance policies and reinsurance agreements, or (iv) debt or liability in connection with the purchase of equipment exceeding $3,000,000 or with respect to capital leases exceeding $3,000,000 during any fiscal year, subject to an aggregate limit of $5,000,000 during any fiscal year. Capital expenditures are also limited to $3,000,000 during any fiscal year, subject also to the $5,000,000 aggregate limitation noted in the preceding sentence;
- (b) generally not permit any liens or security interests on its assets or pledge any of its assets other than certain permitted liens in the ordinary course of business, those imposed by law or those created in connection with the incurrence of the types of debt or liability permitted
