In addition to disclosing results determined in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (US GAAP) as set forth in the table above, management utilizes a measure of operating income / (loss), net income / (loss) and earnings (loss) per share on a non-GAAP basis that excludes certain income and expenses to better assess operating performance. Those non-GAAP financial measures exclude certain items, such as share-based compensation expenses and infrequent or unusual items such as gain on sale of shares of a subsidiary and employee severance benefits in PRC subsidiaries. By disclosing the non-GAAP information, management intends to provide investors with additional information to analyze the Company's performance, core results and underlying trends. Non-GAAP information is not determined using US GAAP; therefore, the information is not necessarily comparable to other companies and should not be used to compare the Company's performance over different periods. Non-GAAP information should not be viewed as a substitute for, or superior to, net income or other financial data prepared in accordance with US GAAP as measures of our operating results or liquidity. Users of this financial information should consider the types of events and transactions for which adjustments have been made. See the table below for a reconciliation of non-GAAP amounts to amounts reported under US GAAP.

Note:

(a) The share-based compensation expenses were mainly in relation to options to purchase approximately 20 million share granted by the Company's Hong Kong Stock Exchange listed subsidiary, Nam Tai Electronic &

Electrical Products Limited (NTEEP)(Stock Code : 2633), to certain of its directors and employees in the first quarter of 2008. In December 2008, NTEEP repurchased and cancelled all of its outstanding 17,440,000 options from the option holders at a total consideration of approximately $42,000. Accordingly, Nam Tai recorded no share-based compensation expense during the three months ended March 31, 2009.

- (b) The expense represents employee benefit and severance arrangements in accordance with the PRC statutory severance requirements.*
- (c) On March 4, 2008, Nam Tai completed the sale of its entire equity interest in J.I.C. Technology Company Limited (JIC), a Hong Kong Stock Exchange listed subsidiary (Stock Code: 00987), to* an independent third party. In this transaction, Nam Tai sold 572,594,978 shares of JIC, representing 74.99% of its outstanding share capital for cash of approximately $51 million, which resulted in a gain on disposal of approximately $20 million.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF RESULTS OF OPERATIONS AND FINANCIAL CONDITIONOperations Review

Sales in the first quarter of 2009 were $102.2 million, a decrease of 30.6% as compared to sales of $147.1 million in the same quarter of 2008. Sales in our TCA segment for the first quarter of 2009 decreased by 11.1% as compared to the same quarter of 2008 mainly because of the decline in sales of flexible printed circuit, or FPC, sub-assemblies. Sales in our LCDP segment and CECP segment also dropped by 25.3% and 48.5%, respectively, during the first quarter of 2009 as compared to sales in such segments in the corresponding quarter of 2008. The decrease in sales in

LCDP segment was principally a consequence of the decline in sales of LCD panels and our decision to reject an order with very thin margins. Sales in our CECP segment declined significantly because of the continuing effect of the ongoing global economic downturn. The weak demand for end products in the consumer market adversely affected our sales of all products including mobile phone accessories, which principally represented sales of our headsets containing Bluetooth®¹ wireless technology, educational products, optical products and home entertainment devices.

The Company's gross profit margin in the first quarter of 2009 was 7.0% as compared to 13.3% in the first quarter of 2008, primarily resulting from the decline in sales. The lower margin was also caused by a shift of product mix where higher margin products in our CECP segment accounted for only 35% of sales in the first quarter of 2009, but 48% of sales in the first quarter of 2008. Gross profit in the first quarter of 2009 was $7.1 million, a decrease of 63.5% as compared to $19.5 million in the first quarter of 2008.

Net loss attributable to Nam Tai shareholders in the first quarter of 2009 was $3.9 million, which principally resulted from $3.2 million associated with employee severance benefit expenses incurred in our PRC subsidiaries, as compared to net income of $28.4 million reported in the first quarter of 2008. The $3.2 million in employee severance benefit expenses we incurred in the three months ended March 31, 2009 were net of income taxes and amounts attributable to the noncontrolling interest of Nam Tai Electronic & Electrical Products Limited, or NTEEP, our Hong Kong Stock Exchange-listed subsidiary (Stock Code: 2633), in which we hold 74.88% of the issued share capital. The net income we reported in the first quarter of 2008 was principally the result of a $20.2 million gain on the sale of our entire equity interest in J.I.C. Technology Company Limited. Basic and diluted loss per share in the first quarter of 2009 were $0.09 per share, as compared to basic and diluted earnings per share of $0.63 in the first quarter of 2008.

Non-GAAP Financial Information

Non-GAAP operating loss for the first quarter of 2009 was $1.4 million, or $0.03 per share (diluted), compared to non-GAAP operating income of $8.8 million, or $0.19 per share (diluted), in the first quarter of 2008. Non-GAAP net loss attributable to Nam Tai shareholders for the first quarter of 2009 (a rare quarterly loss since the Company's IPO, a span of about 20 years) decreased to $0.7 million, or $0.02 per share (diluted), compared to income of $9.2 million, or $0.20 per share (diluted), in the first quarter of 2008.

Liquidity and Financial Resources

Despite current economic conditions, Nam Tai's financial position remained strong with $230.2 million cash on hand at March 31, 2009, of which $95.3 million was held by NTEEP and its subsidiaries. Net cash provided by operating activities in the current first quarter was $13.2 million. During the first quarter of 2009, the Company incurred capital expenditures of $11.2 million and paid cash dividends for the last quarter of 2008 of $9.9 million to shareholders. On February 9, 2009, we announced that we do not intend to declare dividends in 2009 in order to maintain stronger cash reserves in view of the uncertainty caused by the global economic downturn.

Nam Tai's cash on hand has been invested in term deposits with HSBC and China Construction Bank, generating minimal income in the current environment that offers low interest rates on such deposits. We have not yet found better investments for our cash in excess of amounts needed to fund ongoing operations that offer quality, safety and the potential for higher returns.

The Company continues to exercise rigorous corporate governance and control policies and is not involved in trading of any debt securities or financial derivative products.

EXPANSION PROJECTS

During the first quarter of 2009, we expended approximately $11 million on our ongoing expansion project in Wuxi near the East Coast of China, approximately 80 miles Northwest of Shanghai. Construction of our new facility in Wuxi is nearing completion and we expect that it will be available for mass production of FPC boards, FPC subassemblies and other products by the fourth quarter of 2009.

Because of the current economic global downturn, we previously announced plans to postpone construction, until at least mid-2009 or later, of two other new manufacturing facilities, one in the Shenzhen Guangming Hi-Tech Industrial Park and the other on a second parcel we hold in Wuxi. We are now considering the indefinite postponement or termination of the second Wuxi expansion project, combining the operations we contemplated for that second Wuxi facility into the first facility that is nearing completion. We also plan to explore the feasibility of returning the second Wuxi parcel to the Wuxi government. This revision of our expansion projects will permit us, at the appropriate time, to concentrate our resources on the construction of new facilities in Shenzhen Guangming for future growth when business conditions recover.

EFFORTS TO PRIVATIZE NTEEP

In February 2009, Nam Tai announced its intent to seek to privatize NTEEP by making a cash offer aggregating approximately $43 million for the shares of NTEEP it did not own (the Offer Shares). Completion of that offer and the resulting privatization of NTEEP were conditioned upon Nam Tai acquiring at least 90% of the Offer Shares. As of the closing date of its cash offer, Nam Tai had received valid acceptances in respect of 195,899,531 Offer Shares, representing approximately 88.46% of the total number of the Offer Shares. Therefore, the condition of Nam Tai's offer was not satisfied on April 6, 2009.

After the announcement that Nam Tai's offer had been declared as unsuccessful, NTEEP received complaints from shareholders holding Offer Shares (Independent Shareholders) that a total of 3,740,000 of NTEEP's shares, or approximately 1.69% of the Offer Shares, had been intended for acceptances but were not tendered because of broker omission and miscommunication from the Central Clearing and Settlement System established and operated by Hong Kong Securities Clearing Company Limited. Had those Offer Shares been tendered, the 90%-condition required for Nam Tai's cash offer would have been fulfilled.

Accordingly, at Nam Tai's behest, its financial advisor requested an extension of Nam Tai's offer to the executive director of the corporate finance division of the Securities and Futures Commission of Hong Kong, which request was referred to the Takeovers and Mergers Panel (the Panel) for a ruling. After hearing, the Panel determined that Nam Tai's offer was already closed and could not be re-opened.

Nam Tai is still exploring with the Securities and Futures Commission of Hong Kong the possibility of reviving its offer, but there can be no assurances that Nam Tai's efforts in this regard will be successful or that, if permitted, a revived offer to acquire the Offer Shares would actually satisfy the 90%-condition and thereby result in the privatization of NTEEP.

OUTLOOK

The recent global economic downturn may aggravate and exacerbate the difficult business environment we currently face and could result in continuing negative effects to our results of operations over the next several quarters. In an effort to counter the negative effects from the decline in our sales, management is continuing to focus on reducing costs and improving operating and manufacturing efficiencies. Since December 31, 2008, we have reduced our headcount by 2,000 employees, from 7,100 at the end of December 2008, to 5,100 at the end of March 2009, representing an additional 28.2% reduction in our workforce during the three months ended March 31, 2009. We recognized approximately $5.1 million in pre-tax expenses in connection with these severance and termination arrangements during the three months ended March 31, 2009. Our headcount at September 30, 2008 was 9,700, and thus we have cumulatively reduced our total workforce by 47.2% during the six months ended March 31, 2009, incurring an aggregate of approximately $5.7 million in pre-tax expenses in connection with these severance and termination arrangements during that period. Additionally, beginning in the second quarter of 2009, we began a program to reduce employee salaries by up to 30 percent from the salaries prevailing at the end of the first quarter of 2009. These reductions in headcount and salaries are intended to reduce operating expenses in order to address current market conditions and to better align the Company's manufacturing capacity with the current weak demand we are experiencing across all of our product segments. Even assuming that the global economic crisis does not deteriorate further, we expect that it will be difficult for the Company to improve operating results significantly or at all in 2009.

We had hoped that we would benefit from the successful privatization of NTEEP by enabling us, as NTEEP's sole owner, to simplify our group structure further, allow for the reduction of aggregate and consolidated operating costs, eliminate actual or perceived conflicts of interest, and reduce administration time and costs and regulatory burdens of maintaining the listing status of a subsidiary having publicly-traded securities. However, our recent offer to privatize NTEEP has failed and the possibility of reviving it, of successfully privatizing NTEEP and of thereby being provided with the opportunity to improve our operating results sooner than currently expected remain uncertain.

We have taken a conservative position regarding expected demand during 2009 as the economic downturn continues or worsens, and expect further near-term declines in revenues that could result in additional losses from operations during periods in 2009 and until the global business environment recovers. However, we continue to work toward better serving our customers in select markets by strengthening our sales force and customer and technical support in Japan and Taiwan. By seeking to capitalize on these perceived opportunities, we hope to ensure a more robust future when end markets stabilize and the recovery cycle begins.

MANAGEMENT'S ASSESSMENT AND AUDITOR'S REPORT ON NAM TAI'S INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING

The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 introduced requirements for management to provide in a company's annual reports filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") an assessment of its internal control over financial reporting and for the company's independent auditor to attest to management's assessment. The filing on March 13, 2009 of Nam Tai's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2008 with the SEC marked the third consecutive year that the assessment of Nam Tai's management concluded that the Company's internal control over financial reporting was effective based on criteria set forth in the Internal Control-Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission. It further marked the third consecutive year that Nam Tai's independent auditors audited management's assessment of its internal control over financial reporting and reported that Nam Tai maintained, in all material respects, effective internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2008 based on such criteria.

ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

The Company will hold its Annual Meeting of Shareholders at 11:30 a.m. (Pacific Daylight Time) on Friday, June 5, 2009 at The Pan Pacific Vancouver Hotel, Pacific Rim Suite 1, 300-999 Canada Place, Vancouver, British Columbia, V6C 3B5, Canada. The record date for voting is April 22, 2009.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS AND FACTORS THAT COULD CAUSE OUR SHARE PRICE TO DECLINE

Statements in this press release, such as management's plans to focus on efforts to reduce costs, improve operating and manufacturing efficiencies, management's perceptions of opportunities and plans to increase Nam Tai's presence in Japan and Taiwan in an effort to ensure a more robust future, management's assessment of the soundness of Nam Tai's financial condition, strength of its cash position and adequacy of its liquidity to weather the current economic meltdown, among other statements in this press release, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Forward-looking statements may be identified by the use of words like believes, intends, expects, seeks, plans or planned, may, will, should or anticipates, or the negative equivalents of those words or comparable terminology, and involve risks and uncertainties. Such statements are based on current expectations and assumptions and reflect management's views with respect to future events and may not actually occur during the periods indicated or at all and are not a guarantee of Nam Tai's future performance. These forward-looking statements are, by their nature, subject to risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from future results expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements in this press release. These risks and uncertainties include whether the effects of management's efforts or actions to decrease costs by reducing Nam Tai's workforce or implementing reductions of salaries of Nam Tai's employees or to improve operating and manufacturing efficiencies will achieve material improvements or maintain gross margins or will offset expected declines in revenues; whether management's actions to capitalize on perceived opportunities in targeted markets, such as Japan and Taiwan, will have a meaningful effect on sales or justify the funds expended in the process; whether management's cost reduction measures will enable Nam Tai to emerge from current economic conditions stronger or overcome or even cope with adverse global economic conditions generally or the fallout from such conditions on Nam Tai's business specifically; the effect of increasing taxes and labor costs from new tax and labor legislation in the PRC; whether Nam Tai's revised expansion plans will be effective or sufficient to conserve capital or focus resources; whether Nam Tai's continuing efforts to privatize NTEEP will prove successful and, if so, provide Nam Tai with meaningful anticipated benefits from such success; and whether Nam Tai's decision to eliminate the declaration of dividends during 2009 (or beyond should conditions warrant) will be sufficient to conserve sufficient cash to fund future operations. Product orders and Nam Tai's operating results, available cash, cash flows, operating results and levels of capital expenditures may be adversely affected by numerous factors including adverse global economic conditions generally and the continuing uncertainties and fears regarding the world's and nations' economies, Nam Tai's dependence on a few large customers; intense competition in the electronics industry in which the Company participates, particularly in markets that place constant pressure on the Company to reduce unit prices; continuing competitive pressures that adversely affect its profit margins; its operating results fluctuating and lacking predictability; risks relating to its doing business in the PRC such as arising from changes in governmental policies, trade regulation, currency exchange rates, particularly from the appreciation of the renminbi to the U.S. dollar which has occurred since June 2005 and has shown little signs of abating, inflation in the PRC and elsewhere globally; the timing and amount of significant orders from customers; Nam Tai's success at attracting new customers; delays in product development and related product release schedules; obsolete inventory or product returns; warranty and other claims on products; technological shifts; the availability of competitive products of comparable quality at prices below Nam Tai's prices; maturing product life cycles of the products manufactured by Nam Tai; concessions Nam Tai may make on product sale terms and conditions; successful implementation of operating cost structures that align with revenue; the financial condition of Nam Tai's customers and vendors; the availability and increasing costs of materials and other components needed to manufacture Nam Tai's products; potential shortages of materials or skilled labor needed for its planned expansion project in Wuxi or for its existing facilities; unforeseen engineering problems, work stoppages, weather interference, flood, earthquake or other acts of God, delays in obtaining or failure to obtain necessary permits from regulatory authorities needed for completion of its planned new Wuxi facility or to continue existing operations, other unexpected project delays or unanticipated cost increases; risks of expanding into a new area of the PRC where Nam Tai's has not yet conducted business, diversion of management's attention to expansion and to a new location and to other business concerns; the impact of legislative actions, higher insurance costs and potential new accounting pronouncements; a worsening of relations between the PRC and the United States or Taiwan; the effects of terrorist activity and armed conflict that cause disruptions in general economic activity and changes in Nam Tai's operations and security arrangements; the effects of travel restrictions and quarantines associated with major health problems, such as Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome or Bird Flu or recent outbreaks of swine flu, on general economic activity; or other changes in general economic conditions, including an exacerbation of the current global economic weaknesses that continue to adversely affect, or further reduce, demand for Nam Tai's products. In addition, factors, among others, that could cause the market price of our shares to decline in the future could include further decreases in our revenues from those we reported in earlier periods, our operating results or those of our competitors or customers to meet the expectations of public market analysts and investors who follow the electronics manufacturing services, or EMS, industry, or one or more of the factors discussed in Item 3. Key Information Risk Factors in our Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2008 as filed on March 13, 2009 with the SEC.

For further information regarding risks and uncertainties associated with Nam Tai's business, operating results or financial condition, please refer to the Operating and Financial Review and Prospects, Management's Discussion and Analysis of Results of Operations and Financial Condition and Risk Factors sections of Nam Tai's SEC filings, including, but not limited to, its annual reports on Form 20-F and Reports on Form 6-K containing releases of Nam Tai's quarterly financial results, copies of which may be obtained from Nam Tai's website at <http://www.namtai.com> or from the SEC's EDGAR website at <http://www.sec.gov>.

All information in this press release is as of May 11, 2009 in Shenzhen of the People's Republic of China. Nam Tai does not undertake any duty, and should not be expected, to update any forward-looking statement to conform the statement to actual results or changes in Nam Tai's expectations.
