On May 9, 2005 ScanSoft and Nuance announced a definitive agreement to merge, whereby ScanSoft will acquire all outstanding Nuance common stock. Both companies' Boards of Directors have given their approval and we expect the transaction to close in September 2005. During the transition period (between the announcement and the transaction's completion), ScanSoft and Nuance will continue to operate as usual with both companies servicing their customers with the same commitment to customer service and product quality you've come to expect.

This transaction will result in an even stronger ScanSoft organization, benefiting both our speech and imaging customers and partners. When the transaction is complete, the combined organization will result in:

A Stronger Partner We believe that this transaction will result in a stronger organization, one with even more resources to apply to product development, sales, marketing and customer support.

A Commitment to Imaging While this transaction revolves around speech technologies and products, it clearly enables the combined company to continue to provide technical and product leadership within our imaging solutions. We are committed to continuing to be the leader within our full range of imaging solutions, including scanning, OCR, document management and PDF.

Enhanced Partner Relationships We remain firmly committed to our imaging channel and will continue to support our partners with investments in technology, account management, services and demand-generation.

A Comprehensive Speech Portfolio The combined organization will offer customers a comprehensive speech portfolio with expertise in all speech domains including dictation, network and embedded speech. As we have seen in the past, access to additional resources and speech data will clearly benefit our speech recognition accuracy and language coverage.
