Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Director Non-Compete and Non-Solicitation Agreements

On February 22, 2007, each of the non-employee directors of Mercantile Bank of Michigan (the Bank), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Mercantile Bank Corporation (Mercantile), entered into a Director Non-Compete and Non-Solicitation Agreement (Agreement) with the Bank. The directors who entered into an Agreement are Betty S. Burton, David M. Cassard, Edward J. Clark, Peter A. Cordes, C. John Gill, Doyle A. Hayes, David M. Hecht, Susan K. Jones, Lawrence W. Larsen, Calvin D. Murdock, Merle J. Prins, Dale J. Visser, and Donald Williams, Sr. These directors also constitute the non-employee directors of Mercantile.

The Agreement provides for a non-compete period that begins on entering into the Agreement and ends one year after the director ceases to be a member of the Board of Directors of the Bank and its affiliates. The non-compete period ends early if there is a change in control of Mercantile. During the non-compete period, subject to specified exceptions, the director is precluded from serving as a director, officer, or employee, or participating in management or control of, or owning a substantial interest in, any other entity that engages in the business of banking, or specified related listed businesses, within 50 miles of the Michigan cities where the Bank presently has offices. During the non-compete period, the director, among other things, is precluded from interfering with the relationships between the Bank and its affiliates, and their employees, customers, referral sources and suppliers.

The Agreement includes provisions precluding the director from disclosing confidential information belonging to the Bank or its affiliates, and requiring that documents containing confidential information be returned to them when the director s term of office ends.

A copy of the form of the Agreement is filed as an exhibit to this report.
