Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

South Carolina Business Corporation Act

Section 33-8-510 of the South Carolina Business Corporation Act

Edgar Filing: LIBERTY CORP - Form S-8

("SCBCA") authorizes a South Carolina corporation to indemnify a director against loss or expense incurred by the director as a result of a civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative proceeding to which the director is made a party by virtue of his status as a director, provided that the director conducted himself in good faith and reasonably believed (1) in the case of conduct in his official capacity, that his conduct was in the best interest of the corporation, and (2) in all other cases, that his conduct was at least not opposed to its best interest, and in the case of any criminal proceeding, that the director had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. Section 33-8-510 of the SCBCA provides that this standard will be satisfied by a director's conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan that the director reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the plan's participants and beneficiaries. Section 33-8-510 prohibits a South Carolina corporation from indemnifying a director in the event of adjudicated liability in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation, or in any other proceeding whether or not in his official capacity, if the director was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him. Indemnification in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation is limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.

This indemnification under the SCBCA may be made by a South Carolina corporation only upon (1) a determination that the standard of conduct set forth in Section 33-8-510 has been met, made by the majority vote of a quorum of non-party directors, or if such a quorum cannot be obtained, by majority vote of a committee consisting of two or more non-party directors, by special legal counsel, or by the affirmative vote of shareholders excluding shares owned, or the voting of which is controlled, by directors who are parties to the proceeding; and (2) authorization of indemnification, made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible, except that, if the determination is made by special legal counsel, authorization must be made by majority vote of a quorum of non-party directors or a special committee consisting of two or more non-party directors, or if such quorum or committee cannot be obtained, by majority vote of the board of directors.

Section 33-8-520 of the SCBCA provides that, unless limited by its articles of incorporation, a South Carolina corporation must provide mandatory indemnification of a director for reasonable expenses if the director has been wholly successful (whether or not on the merits) in the defense of any proceeding to which he was a party because he is or was a director. In addition, unless provided otherwise by a corporation's articles of incorporation, Section 33-8-540 of the SCBCA authorizes a director to apply for indemnification by court order, which may be granted if the court determines that the director is entitled to mandatory indemnification or is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances, whether or not the director met the statutory standard of conduct, or was adjudged liable to the corporation or improperly derived a personal benefit, but in that event court-ordered indemnification is limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.

Section 33-8-530 of the SCBCA provides that a South Carolina corporation may pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a director who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding if (1) the director furnishes the corporation with a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the statutory standard of conduct described in Section 33-8-510, (2) the director furnishes the corporation with a written promise to repay expenses advanced if it is ultimately determined that he did not meet the standard of conduct, and (3) the corporation determines, in the same manner required for determining the statutory standard of conduct, that the facts as known would not preclude indemnification under the SCBCA.

Section 33-8-560 of the SCBCA permits a South Carolina corporation, unless its articles of incorporation provide otherwise, to indemnify an officer, employee or agent who is not a director to the same extent as to a director. Absent a contrary provision in the corporation's articles of incorporation, an officer who is not a director is also entitled to the mandatory indemnification and court-ordered indemnification available to a director. A South Carolina corporation may also indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee, or agent who is not a director to the extent, consistent with public policy, that may be provided by its articles of incorporation, bylaws, general or specific action of its board of directors, or contract.

The SCBCA provides that a South Carolina corporation has the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or one serving as such for another entity or enterprise at the request of the corporation, against liability whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the SCBCA.

The SCBCA validates provisions in the articles of incorporation or bylaws of a South Carolina corporation, resolutions of its shareholders or board of directors, or otherwise, only to the extent such provisions or resolutions are consistent with the SCBCA, but does not limit a corporation's power to pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a director in connection with his appearance as a witness in a proceeding at a time when he is not a defendant or respondent to the proceeding.

Bylaws

Article Five of the Company's Bylaws provides for indemnification to the fullest extent permitted by the SCBCA. Under Article Five, any present or former director, officer or employee of the Company, or any person, who, at the request of the Company, may have served as a director or officer of another company in which the Company owns shares or of which the Company is a creditor, is entitled to reimbursement of expenses and other liabilities, including attorney's fees actually and reasonably incurred by him and any amount owing or paid by him in connection with a civil, criminal or administrative proceeding to which he is a party by reason of being or having been a director, officer or employee of the Company or such other company.

Article Five also authorizes the Company to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any present or former director, officer or employee of the Company, or any person who, at the request of the Company, may have served as a director or officer of any company in which the Company owns shares or in which the Company is a creditor, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such together with all costs, fees, penalties, fines and the like with respect thereto.

Insurance Policies

The Company currently maintains an insurance policy providing reimbursement of indemnification payments to officers and directors of the Company and its subsidiaries and reimbursement of certain liabilities incurred by directors and officers of the Company and its subsidiaries in their capacities as such, to the extent that they are not indemnified by the Company.

Item 9. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the Registration Statement is on Form S-3, Form S-8 or Form F-3, and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Company's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and each filing of an annual report of the Plan (or the Predecessor Plan) pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
