Item 8.01 Other Events

Prior to December 31, 2004, H.O. Woltz III, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer (the President) and Howard O. Woltz, Jr., the Company's Chairman of the Board of Directors (the Chairman) expect to sell up to 100,000 shares and 110,000 shares of the Company's common stock, respectively. The sales are primarily intended to provide sufficient proceeds to pay certain income tax obligations incurred in connection with their respective exercise of stock options during 2004 and to repay debt incurred in connection with the exercise of such stock options. Options that were exchanged to fund the exercise price for common shares were properly reflected as sales on Form 4s that were previously filed by Mr. Woltz III and Mr. Woltz, Jr. While the exchanges of options for common shares generated no cash, these transactions resulted in substantial cash tax liabilities for Mr. Woltz III and Mr. Woltz, Jr. which are expected to be paid through a portion of the proceeds from the anticipated sales. Assuming the sale of all of these shares, the President would beneficially own 397,802<sup>(1)</sup> shares (approximately 4.3% of the Company's outstanding common stock) and the Chairman would beneficially own 717,554<sup>(2)</sup> shares (approximately 7.7% of the Company's outstanding common stock). Once executed, any sales will be reported to the Securities and Exchange Commission. The President and Chairman do not currently expect to sell any additional shares in 2004, but reserve the right to do so.

<sup>(2)</sup> Includes 72,919 shares (less than 1%) held by a trust, for the benefit of the Chairman, of which the Chairman and a bank are trustees. The amount reflected also includes 306,309 shares (3.3%) owned by the wife of the Chairman, ownership of which the Chairman disclaims. There are no options exercisable within 60 days.
