(Attach Extra Sheets if Needed)

The Registrant is unable to timely file its report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 (the Form 10-K ) without unreasonable effort or expense by the due date of March 31, 2005.

The Registrant is in the process of acquiring a new long-term loan agreement which will replace its asset based loan agreement with Textron Financial Corporation. The Registrant is also in the process of completing new service agreements with two incumbent local exchange carriers which will determine the UNE-P line charges with these significant vendors of the Registrant on a go forward basis. The Registrant is also reviewing its current staffing levels relative to current and expected future operations. All of these matters, in addition to the current financial condition of the Registrant, have a significant influence on our business and could impact the type of opinion our independent registered public accounting firm might issue.

We believe our inability to successfully execute the financing and service agreements discussed above would likely result in our independent registered public accountants issuing an opinion that expresses significant doubt about the Registrant's ability to continue as a going concern. However, even if we are able to execute all of the above agreements, there can be no assurance as to the type of opinion the independent registered public accounting firm might issue.
