PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

R&G Financial Corporation (the Company) previously disclosed in April 2005 the need to restate its audited consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2004. In a Form 8-K/A dated July 27, 2005, the Company announced that it would also need to restate its audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2002. The Company's determination to restate was based on its conclusion that it needed to change the methodology it used for valuing residual interests retained from its mortgage loan sale transactions. The Company has previously indicated that it is also reviewing certain other matters in its audited financial statements to evaluate the extent to which other adjustments will be required as part of its restatement process. The Company in its Form 8-K/A dated July 27, 2005 disclosed that while it was working diligently to complete the restatement process and become current in its Securities and Exchange Commission filings, given the time involved to complete the restatement process, it would not be in position to timely file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2005. It is anticipated that the Company will not file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2005 by the August 15, 2005 deadline due to the work involved.

If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

The Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2004.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As more fully discussed in Part III, the Company is in the process of restating its interim and audited financial statements for the periods from January 1, 2002 through December 31, 2004, including the interim financial statements contained in the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2004. However, the Company is not in a position to quantify the impact of the anticipated restatement on the corresponding period in the prior fiscal year at this time.
