COUSINS PROPERTIES INCORPORATED AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
March 31, 2007
(UNAUDITED)

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

Basis of Presentation

The condensed consolidated financial statements included herein include the accounts of Cousins Properties Incorporated (Cousins or the Company) and its consolidated subsidiaries, including Cousins Real Estate Corporation and its subsidiaries (CREC). All of the entities included in the condensed consolidated financial statements are hereinafter referred to collectively as the Company.

Cousins has elected to be taxed as a real estate investment trust (REIT) and intends to, among other things, distribute 100% of its federal taxable income to stockholders, thereby eliminating any liability for federal income taxes. Therefore, the results included herein do not include a federal income tax provision for Cousins. CREC operates as a taxable REIT subsidiary and is taxed separately from Cousins as a C-Corporation. Accordingly, the condensed consolidated statements of income include a provision for CREC s income taxes.

The condensed consolidated financial statements are unaudited and were prepared by the Company in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) for interim financial information and in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). In the opinion of management, these financial statements reflect all adjustments necessary (which adjustments are of a normal and recurring nature) for the fair presentation of the Company s financial position as of March 31, 2007 and results of operations for the three month periods ended March 31, 2007 and 2006. Results of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2007 are not necessarily indicative of results expected for the full year. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP have been condensed or omitted pursuant to the rules and regulations of the SEC. These condensed financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto included in the Company s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006. The accounting policies employed are materially the same as those shown in Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements included in such Form 10-K.

Reclassifications

In periods prior to the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company recorded reimbursements of salary and benefits of on-site employees pursuant to management agreements with third parties and unconsolidated joint ventures as reductions of general and administrative expenses. In the fourth quarter of 2006, the Company determined that these amounts should be recorded as revenues in accordance with Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) No. 99-19 and, accordingly, began recording these reimbursements in Fee Income on the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income. Prior periods have been revised to conform to this new presentation. As a result, Fee Income and General and Administrative Expenses have increased by $3.6 million in the first quarter of 2006 when compared to amounts previously reported.

New Accounting Pronouncement

Effective January 1, 2007, the Company adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainties in Income Taxes (FIN 48). FIN 48 prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for recognizing tax return positions in the financial statements as those which are more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination by the taxing authority. FIN 48 also provides guidance on derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting for income tax uncertainties in interim periods and the level of disclosures associated with any recorded income tax uncertainties. The Company believes that all of its material income tax filing positions and deductions would be sustained upon audit under current tax laws and regulations. Therefore, the Company recorded no reserves and no cumulative effect adjustment in the financial statements in conjunction with the adoption of FIN 48, and there was no impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

4. EARNINGS PER SHARE

Net income per share-basic is calculated as net income available to common stockholders divided by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Net income per share-diluted is calculated as net income available to common stockholders divided by the diluted weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted weighted average number of common shares is calculated to reflect the potential dilution under the treasury stock method that would occur if stock options, restricted stock or other contracts to issue common stock were exercised and resulted in additional common shares outstanding. The numerator used in the Company's per share calculations is the same for both basic and diluted net income per share.

Weighted average shares-basic and weighted average shares-diluted were as follows (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2007	2006
Weighted-average shares-basic	51,719	50,289
Dilutive potential common shares:
Stock options	1,841	1,562
Restricted stock	36	151
Weighted-average shares-diluted	53,596	52,002
Weighted-average anti-dilutive options not included		906

5. STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION

The Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standard (SFAS) No. 123(R), Share-Based Payment, on January 1, 2006, using the modified prospective method. SFAS 123(R) requires that companies recognize as compensation expense the grant date fair value of share-based awards over the required service period of the awards. The Company has several types of stock-based compensation—stock options, restricted stock and restricted stock units which are described in Note 7 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006. The Company uses the Black-Scholes model to value its new stock option grants under SFAS 123(R) and recognizes compensation expense in general and administrative expense in the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income over the related awards' vesting period. A portion of share-based payment expense is capitalized to projects under development in accordance with SFAS No. 67. SFAS 123(R) also requires the Company to estimate forfeitures in calculating the expense related to stock-based compensation, and to reflect the benefits of tax deductions in excess of recognized compensation cost to be reported as both a financing cash inflow and an operating cash outflow.

The Company expensed approximately $1.6 million and $1.4 million in the first quarter of 2007 and 2006, respectively, for stock-based compensation, after the effect of capitalization to projects under development and income tax benefit. As of March 31, 2007, the Company had $19.7 million of total unrecognized compensation cost related to stock-based compensation, which will be recognized over a weighted average period of 2.8 years.

The Company estimates the fair value of each option grant on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model. The risk free interest rate utilized in the Black-Scholes calculation is the interest rate on U.S. Government Bonds and Notes having the same life as the estimated life of the Company's option awards. Expected life of the options granted was computed using historical data reflecting actual hold periods plus an estimated hold period for unexercised options outstanding using the mid-point between 2007 and the expiration date. Expected volatility is based on the historical volatility of the Company's stock over a period relevant to the related stock option grant. The assumed dividend yield is based on the annual dividend rate for regular dividends at the time of grant. Below are the Black-Scholes inputs used to calculate the weighted-average fair value of 2007 option grants:

	Three Months Ended March 31, 2007
Assumptions:
Risk free interest rate	4.57%
Expected life	6.60 years
Expected volatility	21.07%
Expected dividend yield	4.68%

Result:

Weighted-average fair value of options granted $ 5.08

The following table summarizes stock option activity during the three months ended March 31, 2007:

	Number of Options (in thousands)	Weighted- Average Exercise Price	Aggregate Intrinsic Value (in thousands)	Weighted- Average Remaining Contractual Life (years)

6. PROPERTY TRANSACTIONS

SFAS No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets, requires that the gains and losses from the disposition of certain real estate assets and the related historical results of operations of certain disposed of or held-for-sale assets be included in a separate section, discontinued operations, in the statements of income for all periods presented. SFAS No. 144 also requires that assets and liabilities of held-for-sale properties, as defined, be separately categorized on the balance sheet in the period that they are deemed held-for-sale.

In 2006, the Company sold Frost Bank Tower, a 531,000 square foot office building in Austin, Texas and The Avenue of the Peninsula, a 374,000 square foot retail center in Rolling Hills Estates, California. Also in 2006, the Company sold seven of its 12 stand-alone retail sites under ground leases near North Point Mall in suburban Atlanta, Georgia. The remaining five sites closed in the first quarter of 2007. The Company's basis in the five sites sold in 2007 was separately classified as operating properties held-for-sale on the December 31, 2006 Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet, and there are no significant liabilities associated with these assets. The operations of these projects are included in discontinued operations in the accompanying Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income. The following details the components of income from discontinued operations ($ in thousands):

Goodwill relates entirely to the Office/Multi-Family reportable segment. Other intangible assets relate primarily to the 2006 acquisitions of the interests in 191 Peachtree Tower and Cosmopolitan Center. In conjunction with these acquisitions, the Company also acquired intangible liabilities for below market leases and an above market ground lease, which are recorded within Accounts Payable and Accrued Liabilities on the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets. Above and below market leases are amortized into rental revenues over the remaining lease terms. In-place leases are amortized into depreciation and amortization expense also over remaining lease terms. Aggregate amortization expense related to intangible assets and liabilities was $1.6 million for the three months ended March 31, 2007. Aggregate amortization of these intangible assets and liabilities is anticipated to be as follows ($ in thousands):

9. REPORTABLE SEGMENTS

The Company has four reportable segments: Office/Multi-Family, Retail, Land, and Industrial. The Office/Multi-family division develops, leases and manages owned and third-party owned office buildings and invests in and/or develops for-sale multi-family real estate products. The Retail and Industrial divisions develop, lease and manage retail and industrial centers, respectively. The Land Division owns various tracts of land that are held for investment or future development. The Land Division also develops single-family residential communities that are parceled into lots and sold to various homebuilders or sold as undeveloped tracts of land. The Company's reportable segments are categorized based on the type of product the division provides. The divisions are managed separately because each product they provide has separate and distinct development issues, leasing and/or sales strategies and management issues. The divisions also match the manner in which the chief operating decision maker reviews results and information and allocates resources. The unallocated and other category in the following table includes general corporate overhead costs not specific to any segment, interest expense, as financing decisions are not generally made at the reportable segment level, income taxes and preferred dividends.

Company management evaluates the performance of its reportable segments based on funds from operations available to common stockholders (FFO). FFO is a supplemental operating performance measure used in the real estate industry. The Company calculated FFO using the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts (NAREIT) definition of FFO, which is net income available to common stockholders (computed in accordance with GAAP), excluding extraordinary items, cumulative effect of change in accounting principle and gains or losses from sales of depreciable property, plus depreciation and amortization of real estate assets, and after adjustments for unconsolidated partnerships and joint ventures to reflect FFO on the same basis.

FFO is used by industry analysts, investors and the Company as a supplemental measure of an equity REIT s operating performance. Historical cost accounting for real estate assets implicitly assumes that the value of real estate assets diminishes predictably over time. Since real estate values instead have historically risen or fallen with market conditions, many industry investors and analysts have considered presentation of operating results for real estate companies that use historical cost accounting to be insufficient by themselves. Thus, NAREIT created FFO as a supplemental measure of a REIT s operating performance that excludes historical cost depreciation, among other items, from GAAP net income. Management believes that the use of FFO, combined with the required primary GAAP presentations, has been fundamentally beneficial, improving the understanding of operating results of REITs among the investing public and making comparisons of REIT operating results more meaningful. In addition to Company management evaluating the operating performance of its reportable segments based on FFO results, management uses FFO and FFO per share, along with other measures, to assess performance in connection with evaluating and granting incentive compensation to its officers and employees.

The following tables summarize the operations of the Company s reportable segments for the three months ended March 31, 2007 and 2006.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Overview:

Cousins Properties Incorporated (the Company) is a real estate development company with experience in the development, leasing, financing and management of office, retail and industrial properties in addition to residential land development. In addition, the Company has experience with the development and sale of multi-family products. As of March 31, 2007, the Company held interests directly or through joint ventures in 24 office properties totaling 7.2 million square feet, 14 retail properties totaling 4.7 million square feet, four industrial properties totaling 2.0 million square feet and 715 developed residential land lots held for sale. These interests include several office, retail, and industrial projects under development or redevelopment totaling 5.6 million square feet. The Company also had an interest in two condominium projects under development which contain 671 units. The Company had 24 residential communities under development directly or through joint ventures in which approximately 10,960 lots remain to be developed and/or sold. In addition, the Company owns directly or through joint ventures approximately 9,000 acres of land.

The Company's strategy is to produce stockholder returns by creating value through the development of high quality, well-located office, retail, industrial, multi-family and residential properties. The Company has developed substantially all of the real estate assets it owns. A key element in the Company's strategy is to actively manage its portfolio of investment properties and, at the appropriate times, to engage in timely and strategic dispositions, either by sale or through contributions to ventures in which the Company retains an ownership interest. These timely transactions seek to maximize the value of the assets the Company has created, generate capital for additional development properties and return a portion of the value created to stockholders.

Significant events during the three months ended March 31, 2007 included the following:

Sold five ground leased outparcels at the Company's North Point property for an aggregate price of $10.1 million and a gain of $8.2 million.

Sold 41 acres of land adjacent to The Avenue Carriage Crossing for $11.7 million generating a gain of $4.4 million.

Purchased 109 acres of land in Forsyth County, Georgia for $36.2 million and commenced construction of the first phase of The Avenue Forsyth, a 527,000 square foot lifestyle center in north metropolitan Atlanta, Georgia.

Results of Operations:

Rental Property Revenues. Rental property revenues increased approximately $1.7 million in the three month 2007 period compared to the same 2006 period. Rental property revenues of the office portfolio increased approximately $3.6 million as a result of the following:

Increase of $4.3 million related to the purchase of 191 Peachtree Tower;

Decrease of $1.1 million related to 3100 Windy Hill Road, as the lease for the sole tenant in the building expired in the fourth quarter of 2006. The Company is actively attempting to re-lease this space, although there can be no guarantee of lease-up in the near term.

Rental property revenues from the retail portfolio decreased approximately $2.3 million as a result of the following:

Table of Contents

Decrease of $6.1 million related to the contribution of five retail properties to a venture with an affiliate of The Prudential Insurance Company of America (PREI see Note 5 in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006). Upon venture formation, the Company began accounting for the properties on the equity method;

Increase of $717,000 related to the lease up of The Avenue Carriage Crossing;

Increase of $1.4 million related to the first quarter 2006 opening of San Jose MarketCenter;

Increase of $1.7 million related to the August 2006 opening of The Avenue Webb Gin.

Rental property revenues from the Industrial Division increased approximately $386,000 in the three month 2007 period compared to the same 2006 period, mainly due to the opening in the third quarter 2006 of King Mill Distribution Park Building 3A.

Rental Property Operating Expenses. Rental property operating expenses increased approximately $1.7 million in the three month 2007 period compared to the same 2006 period. The aforementioned openings of The Avenue Carriage Crossing, San Jose MarketCenter and The Avenue Webb Gin and the purchase of the interests in the 191 Peachtree Tower office building contributed $2.9 million to the increase. The aforementioned formation of the venture with PREI and the commencement of equity method accounting for the five retail centers contributed partially offset the 2007 increase in rental property operating expenses by approximately $1.7 million.

Multi-family Residential Unit Sales and Cost of Sales. Multi-family residential unit sales decreased approximately $6.6 million in the three month 2007 period compared to the same 2006 period, and cost of sales decreased approximately $5.4 million between the same periods. These decreases relate to the 905 Juniper multi-family residential project, for which all units closed in 2006.

Residential Lot and Outparcel Sales and Cost of Sales. Residential lot and outparcel sales decreased approximately $3.1 million in three month 2007 period compared to the same 2006 period, and residential lot and outparcel cost of sales decreased approximately $2.0 million for the same period. Lot sales at the Company's consolidated residential projects decreased from 58 lots in the first quarter of 2006 to 25 lots in the first quarter of 2007. The mix of sales at the various developments between years also affects the level of revenues and profits from residential lots. Consistent with current market trends, the Company anticipates a continued decline in residential lot sales for 2007 when compared to that of 2006, both at consolidated projects and at developments owned by Temco Associates and CL Realty, L.L.C., entities in which the Company is a joint venture partner.

Interest and Other. Interest and other income increased approximately $1.0 million in the three month 2007 period compared to the same 2006 period. The Company recognized $3.6 million in lease termination fees in 2007, mainly from a lease termination at Inforum, compared to lease termination fees of $2.7 million in 2006.

General and Administrative Expenses. General and administrative expenses increased approximately $1.1 million in the three month 2007 period compared to the same 2006 period. Salaries and related benefits, including stock-based compensation, increased approximately $531,000, mainly due to an increase in the number of restricted stock units granted.

Depreciation and Amortization. Depreciation and amortization increased approximately $1.4 million in the three month 2007 period compared to the same 2006 period as a result of the following:

Increase of approximately $3.8 million from the aforementioned openings of The Avenue Carriage Crossing, San Jose MarketCenter, The Avenue Webb Gin, King Mill Distribution Park Building 3A and the acquisition of the ownership interests in 191 Peachtree Tower;

Table of Contents

Decrease of approximately $2.0 million for the five retail properties contributed to the aforementioned venture with PREI.

Interest Expense. Interest expense decreased approximately $3.6 million in the three month 2007 period compared to the same 2006 period as a result of the following:

Decrease of $2.4 million related to the repayment of the mortgage note related to Bank of America Plaza, which was sold in 2006;

Decrease of $782,000 related to the assumption of the mortgage note on The Avenue East Cobb by the aforementioned venture with PREI;

Increase of $954,000 related to the construction facility for Terminus 100, which the Company entered into in March 2006;

Decrease of $1.1 million related to an increase in capitalized interest due to higher amounts expended on projects under development.

Benefit (Provision) for Income Taxes from Operations. The provision for income taxes from operations decreased approximately $3.4 million from the three month 2006 period to a benefit for income taxes for the three month 2007 period. Operations at Cousins Real Estate Corporation (CREC), the Company's taxable REIT subsidiary, decreased to a loss before taxes between the first quarter 2006 and the first quarter 2007, mainly due to decreases in residential lot sales, both at consolidated projects and from the Temco Associates (Temco) and CL Realty, L.L.C. (CL Realty) residential joint ventures (discussed in the income from unconsolidated joint ventures section below). Multi-family residential unit sales at the 905 Juniper project also decreased in 2007, as previously mentioned. The decrease in income at CREC was partially offset by an increase in income from the TRG Columbus Development Venture, Ltd. (TRG), which is developing a multi-family residential project in Miami, Florida.

Income from Unconsolidated Joint Ventures. Income from unconsolidated joint ventures decreased approximately $8.4 million in the three month 2007 period compared to the same 2006 period, due to the following. (All amounts discussed reflect the Company's share of joint venture income based on its ownership interest in each joint venture.):

Income from CSC Associates, L.P. decreased approximately $2.7 million in the three month 2007 period due to the sale of Bank of America Plaza in September 2006, the single asset of this venture.

Income from TRG increased approximately $627,000 in the three month 2007 period. TRG recognizes income on its condominium units sold using the percentage of completion method of accounting. Income fluctuates from quarter to quarter depending on the pace of construction and the number of units for which revenues are being recognized. There have been recent reports about softening in the Miami, Florida condominium market. While this softening market could affect this project, 99% of the residential units are under non-cancelable contracts, and some of the units have been re-sold in the secondary market for prices in excess of the original contract amount.

Income from Temco decreased approximately $3.8 million in the three month 2007 period compared to the same 2006 period due to the sale of 855 acres of land at the venture's Seven Hills project in the first quarter of 2006, which generated a gain to the Company of $3.2 million, and to a decrease in the number of lots sold from 194 in the first quarter of 2006 to 8 in the same 2007 period.

Income from CL Realty decreased approximately $1.9 million in the three month 2007 period compared to the same 2006 period due to a decrease in lots sold from 238 in the first quarter of 2006 to 63 in the same 2007 period.

Income from Brad Cous Golf Venture, Ltd. decreased approximately $1.1 million in the three month 2007 period compared to the same 2006 period due to the sale of and resultant gain from the Shops of World Golf Village, an 80,000 square foot retail project which this venture owned.

Gain on Sale of Investment Properties. The 2007 gain consisted primarily of the sale of undeveloped land near the Company's Avenue Carriage Crossing project. The 2006 gain consisted primarily of the sale of undeveloped land at the North Point/Westside project.

Discontinued Operations. Income from discontinued operations (including gain on sale of investment properties) increased approximately $7.5 million in the three month 2007 period compared to the same 2006 period. The increase is mainly the result of the gain recognized upon the 2007 sale of the five sites under ground lease at the Company's North Point project, compared to no sales in the 2006 period.

Discussion of New Accounting Pronouncements. In November 2006, FASB ratified the consensus in EITF No. 06-08, Applicability of the Assessment of a Buyer's Continuing Investment under FASB Statement No. 66, Accounting for Sales of Real Estate, for Sales of Condominiums (EITF 06-08), which provides guidance for determining the adequacy of a buyer's continuing investment and the appropriate profit recognition in the sale of individual units in a condominium project. EITF 06-08 requires that companies evaluate the adequacy of a buyer's continuing investment in recognizing condominium revenues on the percentage of completion method by applying paragraph 12 of Statement No. 66 to the level and timing of deposits received on contracts for condominium sales. This rule is effective for the Company on January 1, 2008, although earlier adoption is permitted. The Company does not anticipate the impact of adopting EITF 06-08 will have a material effect on its financial position or results of operations for current projects, but anticipates that the accounting under EITF 06-08 will have a material effect on the timing of revenue recognition for any future multi-family residential projects the Company undertakes.

Funds From Operations. The following table shows Funds From Operations Available to Common Stockholders (FFO) and the related reconciliation to net income available to common stockholders for the Company. The Company calculated FFO in accordance with the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts (NAREIT) definition, which is net income available to common stockholders (computed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (GAAP)), excluding extraordinary items, cumulative effect of change in accounting principle and gains or losses from sales of depreciable property, plus depreciation and amortization of real estate assets, and after adjustments for unconsolidated partnerships and joint ventures to reflect FFO on the same basis.

FFO is used by industry analysts and investors as a supplemental measure of an equity REIT's operating performance. Historical cost accounting for real estate assets implicitly assumes that the value of real estate assets diminishes predictably over time. Since real estate values instead have historically risen or fallen with market conditions, many industry investors and analysts have considered presentation of operating results for real estate companies that use historical cost accounting to be insufficient by themselves. Thus, NAREIT created FFO as a supplemental measure of REIT operating performance that excludes historical cost depreciation, among other items, from GAAP net income. The use of FFO, combined with the required primary GAAP presentations, has been fundamentally beneficial, improving the understanding of operating results of REITs among the investing public and making comparisons of REIT operating results more meaningful. Company management evaluates the operating performance of its reportable segments and of its divisions based in part on FFO. Additionally, the Company uses FFO and FFO per share, along with other measures, to assess performance in connection with evaluating and granting incentive compensation to its officers

Liquidity and Capital Resources:Financial Condition.

Summary. The Company had a significant number of projects in its development pipeline at March 31, 2007 and does not expect the number of projects or the amounts invested in development projects to decrease in the near term. The Company also has one existing office building included in operating properties on its Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet that will require capital to effect leasing and redevelopment activities. The Company also has a large amount of undeveloped land, both consolidated and at unconsolidated joint ventures, which may progress into development projects in the remainder of 2007. Additionally, the Company and its joint ventures sold a significant number of operating properties in the last several years, some of which have been replaced by the completion of properties previously under development. The Company may require additional cash in the remainder of 2007 depending on the pace of development and other factors, which management believes may be secured through one or more of the following alternatives: additional borrowings, formations of joint ventures, capital transactions, and the selective and strategic sale of mature operating properties or parcels of land held for investment. The financial condition of the Company is discussed in further detail below.

At March 31, 2007, the Company was subject to the following contractual obligations and commitments ($ in thousands):

(1) Interest on variable rate obligations is based on rates effective as of March 31, 2007.

The Company expects indebtedness to be the primary funding source for its contractual obligations and commitments. The Company's credit facility can be expanded to $500 million under certain circumstances, although the availability of the additional capacity is not guaranteed. As of March 31, 2007, the Company had $169.8 million drawn on its $400 million credit facility. The amount available under this credit facility is reduced by outstanding letters of credit, which were approximately $1.1 million at March 31, 2007. The Company's interest rate on its credit facility is variable based on LIBOR plus a spread based on certain of the Company's ratios and other factors. As of March 31, 2007, the spread over LIBOR was 0.80%.

The Company also has a $100 million construction facility. While this facility is unsecured, advances under the facility are to be used to fund the construction costs of the Terminus 100 project. As of March 31, 2007, the Company had $75.6 million drawn on its construction facility.

The Company's mortgage debt is primarily non-recourse fixed-rate mortgage notes secured by various real estate assets. In addition, many of the Company's non-recourse mortgages contain covenants which, if not satisfied, could result in acceleration of the maturity of the debt. The Company expects that it will either refinance the non-recourse mortgages at maturity or repay the mortgages with proceeds from other financings.

As of March 31, 2007, the weighted average interest rate on the Company's consolidated debt was 6.58%, and the Company's consolidated debt to total market capitalization ratio was 16.1%.

The Company expects to enter into fixed rate mortgage loans in 2007 and 2008 that will be secured by certain of its existing unencumbered operating properties. The Company expects proceeds from these loans will generate up to $600 million, and the term of the loans is expected to be between five and seven years. However, there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to close any or all of the loans it is contemplating.

The Company may also generate capital through the issuance of securities that includes, but is not limited to, preferred stock under an existing shelf registration statement. As of March 31, 2007, the Company had approximately $100 million available for issuance under this registration statement.

Over the long term, the Company will continue to actively manage its portfolio of income producing properties and strategically sell assets to capture value for stockholders and to recycle capital for future development activities. The Company will continue to utilize indebtedness to fund future commitments and expects to place long-term permanent mortgages on selected assets as well as utilize construction facilities for other development assets. The Company may enter into additional joint venture arrangements to help fund future developments and may enter into additional structured transactions with third parties. While the Company does not foresee the need to issue common equity in the future, it will evaluate all public equity sources and select the most appropriate options as capital is required.

The Company's business model is highly dependent upon raising capital to meet development obligations. If one or more sources of capital are not available when required, the Company may be forced to raise capital on potentially unfavorable terms which could have an adverse effect on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

Cash Flows.

Cash Flows from Operating Activities. Cash flows provided by operating activities decreased $15.6 million between the three months ended March 31, 2006 and the corresponding 2007 period. The primary reason for the decrease was a decrease in cash flows from properties that were sold or contributed to ventures in 2006, including Frost Bank Tower, Bank of America Plaza and the properties contributed to the venture with PREI. These decreases were partially offset by cash flows from the 191 Peachtree acquisition in 2006. Another reason for the decrease in cash flows from operating activity was less sales of consolidated multi-family and residential projects. The Company completed construction and sold all of the units in its 905 Juniper multi-family residential project during 2006 and this project has not been replaced by another multi-family project as of March 31, 2007.

Cash Flows from Investing Activities. Net cash used in investing activities decreased $39.1 million between the three months ended March 31, 2006 and the corresponding 2007 period. This decrease is partially the result of less property acquisition and development expenditures in the 2007 period. In the 2006 period, the Company purchased a tract of land to begin the Jefferson Mill industrial project and a tract of land to begin its Palisades office development. In the 2007 period, the Company only purchased one tract for its retail project in Forsyth County, Georgia. Also contributing to the decrease were proceeds received in the 2007 period from the sale of the North Point ground leased parcels and the sale of land adjacent to The Avenue Carriage Crossing. In addition, the Company received $15.8 million in additional consideration from the transaction with PREI based on leasing activity at Viera MarketCenter and The Avenue West Cobb.

Cash Flows from Financing Activities. Cash provided by financing activities decreased $26.5 million between the three months ended March 31, 2006 and the corresponding 2007 period. The primary reason for the decrease was a decrease in net borrowings under the Company's credit and construction facilities. Partially offsetting this decrease was an increase in common stock issued as there was a higher level of stock option exercises by employees and directors in 2007 compared to 2006. During the three months ended March 31, 2007, the Company paid common and preferred dividends of $23.0 million which it funded with cash provided by operating activities and proceeds from investment property sales. During the 2006 period, the Company paid common and preferred dividends of $22.6 million which it funded with cash provided by operating activities. For the foreseeable future, the Company intends to fund its quarterly distributions to common and preferred stockholders with cash provided by operating activities, a portion of proceeds from investment property sales and a portion of distributions from unconsolidated joint ventures in excess of income.

Off Balance Sheet Arrangements

The Company has a number of off balance sheet joint ventures with varying structures. At March 31, 2007, the Company's unconsolidated joint ventures had aggregate outstanding indebtedness to third parties of approximately $429.0 million of which the Company's share was $182.3 million. These loans are generally mortgage or construction loans most of which are non-recourse to the Company. In certain instances, the Company provides non-recourse carve-out guarantees on these non-recourse loans. One of the Company's ventures, CF Murfreesboro, which is constructing a retail center, has a $131 million construction loan that matures on July 20, 2010, of which the venture has drawn approximately $37 million. The Company guarantees 20% of the amount outstanding under the construction loan, which equals $7.4 million at March 31, 2007. The retail center under construction serves as collateral against the loan, and the Company is liable for 20% of any difference between the proceeds from the sale of the retail center and the amounts due under the loan in the event of default. The Company has not recorded a liability as of March 31, 2007, as it estimates no obligation is or will be required. The unconsolidated joint ventures also had performance bonds which the Company guarantees, which totaled approximately $1.6 million at March 31, 2007.

Several of these ventures are involved in the active acquisition and development of real estate. As capital is required to fund the acquisition and development of this real estate, the Company must fund its share of the costs not funded by operations or outside financing. Based on the nature of the activities conducted in these ventures, management cannot estimate with any degree of accuracy amounts that the Company may be required to fund in the short or long-term. However, management does not believe that additional funding of these ventures will have a material adverse effect on its financial condition or results of operation.

Based upon the foregoing, the Chief Executive Officer along with the Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective at providing reasonable assurance that all material information required to be included in our Exchange Act reports is reported in a timely manner. In addition, based on such evaluation we have identified no changes in our internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the most recent fiscal quarter that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.
