Item 1.01. Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

As previously reported, on May 20, 2008, Time Warner Inc. (Time Warner), Time Warner Cable Inc. (TWC), Time Warner Entertainment Company, L.P., TW NY Cable Holding Inc., Warner Communications Inc., Historic TW Inc.

(Historic TW) and American Television and Communications Corporation entered into a separation agreement (the Separation Agreement) for the purpose of achieving the legal and structural separation of TWC from Time Warner (the Separation). The Separation Agreement and related documents contemplate, as a condition to the Separation, that Time Warner will complete certain internal restructuring transactions, including the merger (the Merger) of Time Warner Companies, Inc., a subsidiary of Time Warner (TWCI), with and into Historic TW, a subsidiary of Time Warner, with Historic TW being the surviving corporation.

In connection with the Merger, on February 23, 2009, Time Warner, Historic TW, TWCI, AOL LLC, a subsidiary of Time Warner (AOL), and Turner Broadcasting System, Inc., a subsidiary of Time Warner (TBS), executed and delivered three supplemental indentures to three indentures under which TWCI is the issuer of debt securities or a guarantor of debt securities. As described further below, each of the three supplemental indentures provides for the assumption by Historic TW of TWCI s obligations under the applicable indenture and related debt securities and affirms the obligations of Time Warner and AOL as guarantors under the indentures and related debt securities.

Because each of Historic TW, Time Warner and AOL is currently a direct or indirect guarantor under the indentures and related debt securities, none of these entities became obligated on any new financial obligation as a result of the supplemental indentures. Each of the supplemental indentures described below became effective on February 24, 2009, at the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time).

1992 TWCI Fifth Supplemental Indenture

On February 23, 2009, TWCI, Time Warner, AOL, Historic TW, TBS and The Bank of New York Mellon, as Trustee, entered into the Fifth Supplemental Indenture (the 1992 TWCI Fifth Supplemental Indenture) to the Indenture, dated as of October 15, 1992, among the same foregoing parties (as amended and supplemented, the 1992 TWCI Indenture). The 1992 TWCI Indenture relates to debt securities issued by TWCI, of which a total of $1 billion aggregate principal amount of debt securities are currently outstanding (the 1992 TWCI Securities).

Historic TW is currently a guarantor of the obligations of TWCI, as the issuer, and the obligations of TBS, as a guarantor, under the 1992 TWCI Indenture, and AOL is a guarantor of all of Historic TW s obligations under Historic TW s guarantees under the 1992 TWCI Indenture. Time Warner is a guarantor of all of Historic TW s obligations under Historic TW s guarantees under the 1992 TWCI Indenture, as well as a guarantor of AOL s obligations under AOL s guarantee under the 1992 TWCI Indenture. Under the 1992 TWCI Fifth Supplemental Indenture, at the Effective Time, (i) Historic TW assumed the obligations of TWCI as the issuer of the 1992 TWCI Securities, including the due and punctual payment of the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on the 1992 TWCI Securities and the performance of every covenant under the 1992 TWCI Indenture to be performed or observed by the issuer, and (ii) each of Time Warner and AOL affirmed its respective guarantee of Historic TW s obligations, as successor to TWCI, under the 1992 TWCI Indenture and the 1992 TWCI Securities.

1993 TWCI Eighth Supplemental Indenture

On February 23, 2009, TWCI, Time Warner, AOL, Historic TW, TBS and The Bank of New York Mellon, as Trustee, entered into the Eighth Supplemental Indenture (the 1993 TWCI Eighth Supplemental Indenture) to the Indenture, dated as of January 15, 1993, among the same foregoing parties (as amended and supplemented, the 1993 TWCI Indenture). The 1993 TWCI Indenture relates to debt securities issued by TWCI, of which $2.43 billion aggregate principal amount of debt securities are currently outstanding (the 1993 TWCI Securities).

Historic TW is currently a guarantor of the obligations of TWCI, as the issuer, and the obligations of TBS, as a guarantor, under the 1993 TWCI Indenture, and AOL is a guarantor of all of Historic TW s obligations under Historic TW s guarantees under the 1993 TWCI Indenture. Time Warner is a guarantor of all of Historic TW s obligations under Historic TW s guarantees under the 1993 TWCI Indenture, as well as a guarantor of AOL s obligations under AOL s guarantee under the 1993 TWCI Indenture. Under the 1993 Eighth Supplemental Indenture, at the Effective Time, (i) Historic TW assumed the obligations of TWCI as the issuer of the 1993 TWCI Securities, including the due and punctual payment of the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on the 1993 TWCI Securities and the performance of every covenant under the 1993 TWCI Indenture to be performed or observed by the issuer, and

(ii) each of Time Warner and AOL affirmed their respective guarantee of Historic TW's obligations, as successor to TWCI, under the 1993 TWCI Indenture and the 1993 TWCI Securities.

1993 TBS Fifth Supplemental Indenture

On February 23, 2009, TBS, TWCI, Time Warner, AOL, Historic TW and The Bank of New York Mellon, as Trustee, entered into the Fifth Supplemental Indenture (the 1993 TBS Fifth Supplemental Indenture) to the Indenture, dated as of May 15, 1993, among the same foregoing parties (as amended and supplemented, the 1993 TBS Indenture). The 1993 TBS Indenture relates to debt securities issued by TBS, of which $300 million aggregate principal amount of debt securities are currently outstanding (the 1993 TBS Securities).

Each of Historic TW and TWCI is currently a guarantor of the obligations of TBS as the issuer under the 1993 TBS Indenture. Under the 1993 TBS Fifth Supplemental Indenture, at the Effective Time, Historic TW assumed the obligations of TWCI as a guarantor under the 1993 TBS Indenture, including (i) the full and punctual payment of principal of and interest on the 1993 TBS Securities when due and all other monetary obligations of TWCI under the 1993 TBS Indenture and the 1993 TBS Securities and (ii) the full and punctual performance within applicable grace periods of all other obligations of TWCI under the 1993 TBS Indenture and the 1993 TBS Securities.

A copy of each of the 1992 TWCI Fifth Supplemental Indenture, the 1993 TWCI Eighth Supplemental Indenture and the 1993 TBS Fifth Supplemental Indenture is attached hereto as Exhibits 99.1, 99.2 and 99.3, respectively.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On February 26, 2009, Time Warner issued a press release announcing that its Board of Directors (the Board) has (i) approved the distribution of all the shares of TWC common stock that it then holds to its stockholders of record as of 8:00 p.m. on March 12, 2009 (the Distribution Record Date) (the Eligible Holders) as a pro rata dividend (the Distribution) and (ii) approved a reverse stock split of the outstanding and treasury common stock of Time Warner at a stock split ratio of 1-for-3 (the Reverse Stock Split).

A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.4.

Separation of Time Warner Cable Inc. from Time Warner Inc.

As previously reported in May 2008, the Distribution will be made pursuant to the terms of a separation agreement dated as of May 20, 2008, among Time Warner, TWC, Time Warner Entertainment Company, L.P., TW NY Cable Holding Inc., Warner Communications Inc., Historic TW Inc. and American Television and Communications Corporation (the Separation Agreement) for the purpose of achieving the legal and structural separation of TWC from Time Warner (the Separation). In connection with and as a condition to the Separation, on March 12, 2009, TWC will pay a special cash dividend of $10.27 per share of TWC Class A Common Stock and TWC Class B Common Stock (approximately $10.9 billion) (the Special Dividend) to be distributed pro rata to all holders of TWC Class A Common Stock and TWC Class B Common Stock on the record date of March 11, 2009, resulting in the receipt by Time Warner of approximately $9.25 billion. On March 12, 2009, after the receipt by Time Warner of its pro rata share of the Special Dividend, TWC will file its second amended and restated certificate of incorporation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, pursuant to which, among other things, each outstanding share of TWC Class A Common Stock and TWC Class B Common Stock will be converted into one share of common stock, par value $.01 per share. In addition, as TWC announced on February 26, 2009, shortly after filing its second amended and restated certificate of incorporation, but prior to the Distribution Record Date, TWC intends to file an amendment to its second amended and restated certificate of incorporation on March 12, 2009 to effect a 1-for-3 reverse split of the outstanding and treasury TWC common stock.

Pursuant to the terms of the Separation Agreement, concurrently with the receipt of its pro rata share of the Special Dividend on March 12, 2009, Time Warner will deposit the shares of TWC common stock that it then holds with Computershare Inc. (Computershare) to be held (i) for the benefit of Time Warner until the Distribution Record Date and (ii) thereafter, for the benefit of the Eligible Holders until March 27, 2009, at which time the shares of TWC common stock will be distributed to the Eligible Holders. Fractional shares of TWC common stock will not be distributed to Time Warner stockholders. Instead, the fractional shares of TWC common stock will be aggregated and sold in the open market, with the net proceeds distributed pro rata in the form of cash payments to Time Warner stockholders who would otherwise hold TWC fractional shares. Following the Distribution Record Date, Time Warner will no longer beneficially own any shares of TWC common stock, and will not consolidate TWC's financial results for the purpose of its own financial reporting.

Time Warner Reverse Stock Split

The Reverse Stock Split will become effective at 7:00 p.m. on March 27, 2009. On January 16, 2009, Time Warner's stockholders voted to authorize the Board to effect, in its discretion, a reverse stock split of the outstanding and treasury common stock of Time Warner, at a reverse stock split ratio of either 1-for-2 or 1-for-3, as determined by the Board. Under the terms of the Reverse Stock Split, Time Warner stockholders will not be entitled to receive fractional shares, but instead stockholders who would otherwise be entitled to a fraction of a share will be paid in cash an amount equal to the product of (i) such fractional part of the share multiplied by (ii) the volume weighted average price of a share of Time Warner common stock as reported on the New York Stock Exchange Composite Tape on March 27, 2009 (adjusted to reflect the Reverse Stock Split ratio).
