PART II RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

(a) The reason described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense

☐ (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, Form 11-K, Form N-SAR or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q or subject distribution report on Form 10-D, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and

(c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

During the course of the preparation and review of the interim financial statements of Motorcar Parts of America, Inc. (the Company) for the three and six months ended September 30, 2006, an error in certain of the Company's accounts was identified. In summary, the Company made a journal entry at the end of each month to recognize the gross profit impact associated with cores (an integral component of the remanufacturing process) in transit to the Company from its customers. The Company also makes another entry that removes the gross margin impact of both the sales and returns of cores in total. The Company should not have made the entry related specifically to the return of cores in transit. As a result, in certain prior periods, cost of goods sold was overstated and gross profit, operating income and net income were understated. In other periods, cost of goods sold was understated and gross profit, operating income and net income were overstated. The Company's cash position is not affected.

While an analysis of the impact of the error is being completed, the Company believes the effect of the error, in the aggregate, resulted in an overstatement of cost of goods sold and an understatement of current assets of approximately $1,200,000.

Because the Company's analysis of this error is not complete, the Company is unable to finalize its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended September 30, 2006 by the November 14, 2006 filing deadline. The Company expects to file this Form 10-Q no later than the fifth calendar day following the filing deadline.

The information provided herein may contain forward looking statements. Statements that are not historical facts, including statements about the Company's beliefs and expectations, are forward-looking statements. These statements are based on beliefs and assumptions by the Company's management, and on information currently available to such management. The forward-looking statements are intended to be subject to the safe harbor protection provided by Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Forward-looking statements include statements preceded by, followed by or that include the words intends, believes, and expects, or similar expressions or future conditional verbs such as may or will. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update publicly any of them in light of new information or future events. Forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties. Management cautions that a number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement.
