Coeur d Alene, Idaho May 27, 2004 Coeur d Alene Mines Corporation (NYSE:CDE) today announced that it has proposed to acquire Wheaton River Minerals Ltd. (TSX:WRM, AMEX:WHT) in a stock and cash transaction valued at US$3.28 (C$4.50) per Wheaton River share, or a total transaction value of approximately US$1.8 (C$2.5) billion (including US$1.9 (C$2.6) billion in equity and US$133 (C$182) million in assumed debt less US$174 (C$238) million of cash), based upon Coeur s closing stock price on May 27, 2004. The proposal was made in a letter sent today by Dennis E. Wheeler, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Coeur, to Ian Telfer, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Wheaton River. Coeur s proposal represents a premium of 14% to Wheaton River s closing stock price on May 27, 2004, and a premium of 25% over Wheaton River s 20-day average.

The transaction is subject to lawful termination of the existing agreement between Wheaton River and IAMGOLD Corporation (TSX:IMG, AMEX:IAG).

Dennis E. Wheeler, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Coeur, said, "The combination of Coeur and Wheaton River is truly compelling and provides superior value to both Wheaton River and Coeur shareholders. Our combination creates the fourth largest North American precious metals company, increases Coeur s primary silver production by 45%, and creates a top 10 global gold producer with among the lowest cash costs of production in the industry. The combined company, a totally unhedged precious metals producer, will have superior financial strength and flexibility and will provide shareholders with leading market liquidity. This transaction would be accretive for Coeur on all key metrics including net asset value, cash flow and earnings per share without any consideration of synergies.

We have the greatest respect for Ian Telfer and his management team and we are impressed with what Wheaton River has created in a very short time. We think Wheaton River's assets are an excellent fit with ours and should lead to significant synergies. We look forward to combining Wheaton River's assets, including its strong South American and Luismin Mexican silver operations, with Coeur's valuable operations. The combined company would have a fully-funded, superior, organic development project pipeline. Coeur's management team, with combined operating experience of 300 years, looks forward to working closely with Wheaton River's management team to achieve a transaction that is in the best interests of both companies' shareholders, concluded Mr. Wheeler.

Attached is the complete text of the May 27, 2004 letter from Mr. Wheeler to Mr. Telfer:

Mr. Ian Telfer

Wheaton River Minerals Ltd.

Dear Ian:

On behalf of Coeur d'Alene Mines Corporation, I am pleased to submit a firm offer for the combination of Wheaton River Minerals and Coeur. In the combination, holders of Wheaton River common shares will receive for each Wheaton River share, total consideration of C$4.50 per share.

Wheaton River shareholders will have the opportunity to elect among:

C$4.50 per Wheaton River share in cash, subject to a maximum; or

Coeur common shares or exchangeable shares of a Canadian subsidiary of Coeur (with value equivalent to Coeur common stock) at the exchange ratio ( Exchange Ratio ) of 0.649 Coeur common shares per Wheaton River common share with a value of C$4.50 per Wheaton River share based on closing share prices as at May 27, 2004.

The maximum cash consideration will be US$205 (C$285) million, or C$0.50 per Wheaton River share if all Wheaton River shareholders elect the cash option. Under the offer, warrant and option holders of Wheaton River will receive an equivalent value of Coeur warrants and options based on the Exchange Ratio.

Coeur is prepared to enter into an arrangement agreement setting forth the detailed terms and provisions of the transaction, in form and substance substantially the same as the existing Amended and Restated Arrangement Agreement between Wheaton River and IAMGOLD Corporation dated as of April 23, 2004. Our offer is not conditional on obtaining financing or additional due diligence. Neither is it conditioned, in any way, on the outcome of Golden Star's recent proposal to acquire IAMGOLD.

I believe the offer made hereby is clearly superior to the previously announced IAMGOLD transaction. Based on stock closing prices on May 27, 2004, the Coeur offer will provide Wheaton River stockholders a total value, per Wheaton River share, of C$4.50, a C$0.45 premium over the value of the IAMGOLD transaction. The Coeur offer is superior based on key measures of comparison in addition to price, as shown by the following:

I would point out, in addition, that based on stock values at March 30, 2004 the comparison standard for determining a Superior Offer, as defined in the Wheaton River-IAMGOLD agreement, the value of Coeur's offer was C$5.86 per Wheaton River share, more than 9% above the C$5.40 threshold set forth in the agreement.

We are confident that the transaction will be welcomed by Coeur shareholders as well. A combination with Wheaton River will maintain Coeur's strong balance sheet, maintain the combined company as the world's largest primary silver producer, and build value for shareholders as a strong, low cost, international mining entity. The combination will provide financial strength and flexibility, as well as significant market liquidity. The combined company will be North America's fourth largest precious metals company by market capitalization, generating approximately $200 million annually in cash flow and nearly $100 million annually in earnings. The combined company will produce over 22 million ounces of silver, have nearly 9 million ounces of gold equivalent reserves, and 21 million ounces of total resources a leading position among our peers.

I want to be very clear that this is a friendly offer. We would welcome the participation of Wheaton directors on the board of the combined company. Coeur understands that Wheaton River has certain obligations under the Wheaton River-IAMGOLD agreement. At the same time, your directors' fiduciary obligations provide ample authority to inform your shareholders of our offer in order that they may receive the benefit of a clearly superior transaction. Coeur understands that a break fee may be payable if Coeur combines with Wheaton River. If that occurs, Coeur expects that Wheaton River will pay the break fee. Also, if both the Coeur-Wheaton River combination and the Golden Star-IAMGOLD combination occurs, there may be mutual break fees payable. For your information, Coeur and Golden Star have agreed that the net amount of the two break fees will be paid. As soon as you are in a position to do so, we are fully prepared to respond to any questions you may have and we are prepared to execute a legally binding arrangement agreement for the Coeur transaction.

We are separately sending a complete form of agreement which we are prepared to enter into with Wheaton River.

Ian, we hope and expect that our proposal will move forward expeditiously in a constructive manner that will serve the interests of all stockholders. I look forward to your prompt response.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Dennis E. Wheeler

Coeur's offer is also not conditional upon obtaining financing or due diligence. Consummation of this proposed transaction will be subject to entering into of a definitive agreement satisfactory to Coeur in a form substantially similar to the existing arrangement agreement between Wheaton River and IAMGOLD, and customary closing conditions including the absence of any material adverse change and receipt of all applicable regulatory, shareholder and court approvals.

The Company noted that it understands that simultaneous with its offer for Wheaton River, Golden Star Resources Ltd. (TSX:GSC, AMEX:GSS) has announced that it has proposed a business combination with IAMGOLD Corporation. The Company noted that its offer for Wheaton River is not conditional upon Golden Star's transaction with IAMGOLD.
