PART I

ITEM 1. BUSINESS

GENERAL

The Company was formed in 1972 as the Office Automation Division of Comptek Research, Inc. ("Comptek"). On March 26, 1982, the division was incorporated under the laws of New York and was spun off to the Comptek shareholders as a separate company, named Barrister Information Systems Corporation. In July 1985, the Company sold shares of its common stock in its initial public offering. The Company's shares are currently traded on the American Stock Exchange. In December, 1997, the Company reincorporated under the laws of Delaware. On May 5, 2000 the Company was renamed Barrister Global Services Network, Inc.

The Company's headquarters are at 290 Ellicott Street, Buffalo, New York 14203, telephone 716-845-5010. In addition, the Company has a number of sales and services offices throughout the United States.

During fiscal 2000, the Company operated as two business segments: Equipment Maintenance Services and Software. On May 5, 2000, the Company sold substantially all of the assets of its Software Business to Keystone Solutions US, Inc. ("Keystone") a wholly owned subsidiary of Keystone Software PLC. For financial statement purposes, the Company's Software Business is reported as a discontinued operation. Since selling its Software Business, Company operations have focused on Equipment Maintenance Services.

EQUIPMENT MAINTENANCE SERVICES BUSINESS

From the mid-1970's to about 1989, the Company manufactured mini-computers and other equipment as part of the Barrister System, a turnkey system of computer, peripherals and software, sold principally to the law firm market. A nationwide organization was established to support these clients and maintain the Barrister equipment.

When the Company stopped manufacturing mini-computers, the service organization continued to support the Barrister customers and implemented a strategy to diversify into the maintenance of multi-vendor computer equipment.

Edgar Filing: BARRISTER GLOBAL SERVICES NETWORK INC - Form 10-K

In 1989, nearly 100% of service revenues came from the maintenance of Barrister mini-computers and equipment. Today nearly 100% of revenues come from services provided for multi-vendor computers and peripherals.

SERVICES MARKET

The Company provides a variety of IT services throughout North America for multi-vendor equipment including personal computers, servers, peripherals and other equipment. Using its staff of hardware technicians and its network of over 1,200 service companies, the Company provides comprehensive services for such equipment. The Company maintains nationwide toll-free numbers for customer service and provides a seven-day, twenty-four hour response capability.

In 1998, the Company took the initiative and developed and licensed several software modules and integrated them into an Internet-based software system which provides unique and innovative ways to provide and manage services to its clients. This integrated software system is called the Global Service Network (GSN) and allows for clients anywhere in the world to place service requests and view the status of service calls using the Internet. Further, the system provides management information to client and company managers responsible for service delivery. Finally, GSN provides a mechanism over the Internet to transmit service requests to third party subcontractors, to monitor and manage those service calls and to measure service delivery performance. The ability to manage third party service providers and provide summary management information is a unique and powerful capability. This capability has received favorable comment as a valuable value-added service from clients and prospects. This capability has also led to positive changes in the national service delivery process and has allowed expansion through partners without the addition of physical locations.

Since 1972, the Company has established a field service organization located in a number of cities throughout the United States. To support them, a depot repair facility located in Buffalo, New York performs repairs on equipment shipped to Buffalo. These resources have enabled the Company to sell depot repair service contracts in addition to its traditional equipment maintenance service contracts.

Sales of services are the result of a direct sales force focused on this market. A variety of service plans are offered which cover a long list of Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEMs) products. In addition, the Company has established business relationships with companies such as Amherst Computer Products, Avnet Inc., CDW Computer Centers Inc., Fujitsu Technology Solutions, Inc., IBM Corporation, Retrofit Technologies Inc. and Siemens Business Services, Inc., to provide services on a contractual basis.

Since product life cycles for hardware are relatively short, the Company provides on going training to its service technicians and continuously reviews its spare parts inventory for potential obsolescence. The Company believes there are sufficient technicians available to meet its business needs and that adequate sources of parts will be available to meet technological and product life cycle changes.

SERVICES COMPETITION

Providing on-site and depot repair services to clients is a highly competitive business. The principal competitive factors are expertise, reputation, price and geographic location of staff. The market for IT services is very large; it encompasses all businesses, is highly price competitive, has some technological barriers to entry and the equipment serviced has short product life cycles. The Company competes with numerous organizations which can provide similar services, many of which are substantially larger, better known and have substantially greater name recognition and financial, marketing, technical and personnel resources than the Company. The Company believes it distinguishes itself by its unique use of the GSN, by which it manages equipment maintenance services using the Internet, by its skills in managing a large number of geographically dispersed service partners and by providing services on a dependable and cost effective basis to customers with multiple locations throughout North America.

MAJOR BUSINESS RELATIONSHIPS

The Company does substantial business with three strategic partners: IBM Corporation ("IBM"), Siemens Business Services, Inc. and Retrofit Technologies Inc. Total revenues generated from these customers amounted to approximately 36% of revenues in fiscal 2002. In Fiscal 2002 an agreement was reached with Avnet Computer to provide nationwide support on Intel-based systems and servers that Avnet distributes to Value-Added Resellers (VARs), OEMs and end users. A similar agreement was reached with CDW Computer Centers, Inc. to supply their customers with Barrister's extended warranty contracts. The IBM, Siemens Business Services and Retrofit Technology business is through a number of hardware maintenance subcontracts to provide service to customers of these companies.

SOFTWARE BUSINESS

During fiscal 2000 and in prior years, the Company operated a Software Business which has been reported as discontinued operations, due to the sale of the business to Keystone on May 5, 2000. The Software Business segment focused on the development, marketing, licensing and installation of software for law firms, accounting firms, consultants and departments of Fortune 1000 companies.

EMPLOYEES

On June 1, 2002, the Company had 119 full-time employees and 3 part-time employees. None of the Company's employees are represented by a labor union and the Company has had no work stoppages. The Company believes that employee relations are good.

ITEM 7. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

GENERAL

Barrister Global Services Network, Inc. (the "Company") (formerly Barrister Information Systems Corporation) is a provider of multi-vendor computer equipment maintenance services with warranty authorizations and preferred partner authorizations with over 20 manufacturers and technical expertise covering the products of over 200 manufacturers. The Company provides its customers with unusual value and powerful online information through its Global Service Network, a unique web-based service management system. A wide variety of services are offered, from on-site, mission-critical equipment services to depot repair, with services currently being provided in thousands of locations throughout North America. The Company provides national service delivery through centralized administration and computerized logistics; equipment repair both during and after equipment warranty periods; and cost-effective repairs through in-house repair expertise. Business is generated through direct sales to end-users, subcontracts from other companies, contracts with computer resellers to provide maintenance services to their customers and contracts with national distributors of computer equipment. The market for hardware maintenance services is very large; it encompasses all businesses, is highly price competitive, has some technological barriers to entry and the equipment serviced has short product life cycles.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Revenues increased 15.9% for fiscal year 2002 as compared to 2001, as a result of increases in both hardware maintenance contracts and time and materials services. Revenues from hardware maintenance contracts grew to $9.5 million, an increase of 13.6% from the prior year. This increase principally resulted from the capture of a large contract, which started in September of this fiscal year. Time and materials revenues increased by 21.7% to a total of $3.2 million for fiscal 2002 when compared to 2001. The principal reasons for this increase were business generated from a new customer obtained through a reseller that started in April, 2001 and from services provided on the large contract that started in September, 2001. The Company continues to pursue new business from its business partners and from the marketing of the capabilities of its Global Services Network, which is a web-based service management system.

The 30.8% increase in revenues for fiscal 2001 as compared to 2000 resulted from a 32% increase in contract revenues and a 25.3% increase in revenues from time and materials services. The increase in contract revenues principally resulted from the capture of new contracts, primarily through the Company's reseller channel. The increase in time and materials revenues resulted from business generated from two customers, one a reseller that contracted with the Company in fiscal 2000 and substantially increased its business in fiscal 2001, and the other a direct customer who outsourced significant services to the Company in the second half of fiscal 2001.

The cost of services increased as a percentage of revenues from 76.1% in fiscal 2001 to 78.7% in the current year. This increase occurred as a result of the recording in the fourth quarter of the current fiscal year an additional provision of $532,000 for service parts inventory deemed to be excess to the Company's needs. This provision resulted from a change in the mix of equipment being serviced under contract, an analysis of the usage of the service parts inventory and assessment of the current value of the inventory. The additional provision amounted to 4.1% of fiscal 2002 revenues. The cost of services decreased as a percentage of revenues from 84.4% in fiscal 2000 to 76.1% in fiscal 2001. The principal reasons for this decrease were reduced levels of expenses associated with the service parts inventory and the ability to leverage certain fiscal costs. Cost of services includes provision for service parts inventory deemed to be no longer repairable or excess to the Company's needs based on actual and projected service revenues. The amount of such charges were $1,132,000, $611,000 and $900,000 for 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

Selling, general and administrative expenses were 35.2% of revenues for fiscal 2002 compared to 29.2% of revenues in 2001. This increase primarily resulted from certain non-recurring expenses incurred in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2002. In January, 2002, the Company hired Dr. William O. Bray as its president and chief executive officer to succeed Mr. Henry P. Semmelhack who held those positions since the Company's incorporation in 1982. Mr. Semmelhack retired as of March 31, 2002. Consistent with Mr. Semmelhack's employment contract and his retirement, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors approved a deferred compensation arrangement for past services rendered. In addition, Mr. David L. Blankenship, former Senior Vice President of Operations, left the Company at the end of February 2002. The Company agreed to buy out the remaining term of Mr. Blankenship's employment contract, cancel a loan and accrued interest outstanding to Mr. Blankenship in return for the stock held as collateral for the loan, plus pay for certain additional expenses. The impact of these non-recurring expenses in the fourth quarter of 2002, including additional salary costs during the transition period to the new CEO, relocation expenses for Dr. Bray, the present value of the deferred compensation arrangement with Mr. Semmelhack, and the settlement with Mr. Blankenship were approximately $753,000, or 5.9% of fiscal 2002 revenues. Selling, general and administrative expenses were 29.2% of revenues for fiscal 2001 compared to 34.5% of revenues in 2000. The principal reason for this decrease is that the increase in revenues was achieved without any growth in the general and administrative costs of the Company. Any increases in these costs were offset by staff reductions based on the sale of the software business of the Company to Keystone Solutions U.S., Inc. in May, 2000. Prior to the sale, all corporate related expenses were included in the general and administrative expenses of the Company, since these expenses were not previously allocated to the Company's two business segments and the amount of reduction in these expenses, if any, could not be determined.

The decrease in net interest income in fiscal 2002 as compared to 2001 was primarily a result of lower interest rates, which impacted earnings from the Company's investments. The interest income earned in fiscal 2001 was based on income received on the investment of the net proceeds from the sale of the Company's software business in May, 2000. These proceeds were also used to pay certain outstanding interest bearing debt of the Company.

No current tax benefit was recorded in fiscal 2000 due to the operating losses incurred. The current tax benefit recorded in 2001 resulted from the offset of the operating loss against the gain realized on the sale of the Company's software business in that year. The current tax benefit recorded in 2002 is based on the estimated refund of taxes paid in the prior year by carrying back the fiscal 2002 operating loss. The deferred tax benefit recorded in 2000 was based on the amount of deferred tax assets which were expected to be realized based on a projection of taxable income in fiscal 2001. The deferred tax expense recorded in 2001 resulted from the reversal of certain deductible temporary differences during that year. The deferred tax benefit recorded in 2002 was based on the amount of deferred tax assets which were expected to be realized from the carryback of future tax expenses from the reversal of certain deductible temporary differences. Based on the consideration of the weight of both positive and negative evidence as required by Statement of Financial

Accounting Standards No. 109, management has determined that it is more likely than not that the remaining deferred tax assets at March 31, 2002 will not be realized. Therefore, no additional tax benefits were established in the statement of operations for the year ended March 31, 2002, since the Company has reserved for the tax effect of net deductible temporary differences and loss carryforwards. These benefits will be recorded in future periods as they are realized or as their realization becomes predictable.

The pre-tax net gain from the sale of discontinued operations recognized in fiscal 2001 of $3,936,000 was based on the sale of the Company's software business to Keystone on May 5, 2000. The income tax provision associated with the gain is higher than the statutory rate since goodwill valued at $986,000 for financial reporting purposes had a zero basis for tax purposes. The provision included current taxes of $774,000 and deferred taxes of $1,098,000. The deferred taxes resulted from the use of tax loss carryforwards from prior years and the reversal of temporary differences between book and tax on the assets sold.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Cash and equivalents, short-term investments and marketable securities totaled $3,992,000 at March 31, 2002 and $4,357,000 at March 31, 2001. The net decrease of $365,000 was primarily a result of debt repayments, which amounted to $445,000. Operating activities provided net cash of $167,000 during fiscal 2002. The net loss was offset by decreases in accounts receivable and service parts inventory and an increase in accrued compensation and benefits.

The Company experienced a net increase in cash and short-term investments from continuing operations of $4,196,000 during fiscal 2001. An additional net increase in cash of $27,000 was realized from discontinued operations. Proceeds from the sale of the Company's software business on May 5, 2000 less associated expenses amounted to $7,097,000. Certain of the proceeds were used to repay $871,000 of current and long-term debt, $466,000 of accounts payable, $194,000 of accrued compensation and benefits and $425,000 of income taxes. In addition, the Company experienced an increase in accounts receivable of $971,000, which included the balance remaining in the escrow account from the sale of the software business of $236,000, which payment was received in May, 2001.

The Company experienced a net decrease in cash from continuing operations of $460,000 during fiscal 2000. The principal source of cash was $315,000 from the sale of common stock and $100,000 in proceeds from long-term debt. Principal uses of cash during the year were $676,000 in net cash used by operating activities and additions to equipment and leasehold improvements of $154,000. The net cash used by operating activities was a result of the pre-tax net loss incurred which was partially offset by positive benefits from reductions in receivables and inventories.

The principal cash requirements expected for fiscal 2003 are debt repayments of $307,000 and additions to equipment and leasehold improvements. On June 18, 2002, the Company signed a lease agreement to move its headquarters offices and operations center into a new facility. The Company expects to obtain financing for any additional capital expenditures in relation to the new facility. The Company's cash and investments will be sufficient to cover working capital, capital expenditure requirements, and debt repayments in fiscal 2003.

NEW ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

Edgar Filing: BARRISTER GLOBAL SERVICES NETWORK INC - Form 10-K

The Company will adopt SFAS No. 141, "Business Combinations", SFAS No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets" and SFAS No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets" on April 1, 2002. SFAS No. 141 requires that the purchase method be used for all business combinations initiated after June 30, 2001. SFAS No. 142 changes the accounting for goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite lives from an amortization method to an impairment approach. SFAS No. 144 establishes a single accounting model for long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale and it expands the presentation of discontinued operations to include more disposal transactions. The pronouncements are not expected to have an impact on the financial statements.

The Company adopted SFAS No. 133, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities" beginning April 1, 2001. SFAS No. 133 requires all derivatives to be recorded on the balance sheet at fair value and establishes new accounting rules for hedging instruments. The Company does not enter into hedging transactions or acquire derivative instruments, accordingly, SFAS No. 133 had no impact on the financial statements.

In March 2000, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued FASB Interpretation No. 44, "Accounting for Certain Transactions Involving Stock Compensation - an interpretation of APB Opinion No. 25." The adoption of this interpretation, effective July 1, 2000, did not have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

ITEM 7A. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURE ABOUT MARKET RISK

The Company, in the normal course of business, has exposure to interest rate risk from its long term debt obligations that have variable interest rates based on prime. The Company does not believe that its exposure to fluctuations in interest rates is material. A 10% change in the interest rate utilized on these long term debt obligations would have produced approximately $3,000 in additional interest expense for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2002.

Due to the immateriality of the above noted market risk, the Company has decided not to utilize any form of financial instrument as a hedge against this risk.

BARRISTER GLOBAL SERVICES NETWORK, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(1) SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

- (a) NATURE OF ORGANIZATION - Barrister Global Services Network, Inc. (formerly Barrister Information Systems Corporation) had two professional service segments: hardware maintenance services, and software licensing and support services. The hardware maintenance service business provides equipment maintenance for multi-vendor equipment including personal computers and related equipment generally attached to LANs. This comprehensive maintenance and warranty service is done on a contractual and time and materials basis. These services are provided through a network of service locations throughout the United States. The software segment developed and supported Windows-based client/server software for law, accounting, and consulting firms and departments of Fortune 1000 companies. As further described in Note 2, the Company sold the software segment in May 2000. The accompanying financial statements separately reflect the software business as a discontinued operation.
- (b) BASIS OF PRESENTATION - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.
- (c) REVENUE RECOGNITION - Revenues from hardware maintenance contracts are recognized on a monthly basis over the term of the contract which generally corresponds to the timing of cost incurred. Time and material services revenue is recognized as the service is provided.

Edgar Filing: BARRISTER GLOBAL SERVICES NETWORK INC - Form 10-K

- (d) CASH AND EQUIVALENTS, SHORT TERM INVESTMENTS, AND MARKETABLE SECURITIES - Cash and equivalents consist of cash and liquid debt instruments with maturity of three months or less from the date of purchase. Cash and equivalents are stated at cost plus accrued interest, which approximates market value. Short-term investments and marketable securities are classified as held-to-maturity securities based on the Company's ability and intent to hold the securities until maturity. The securities are recorded at amortized cost adjusted for the accretion of discounts or cost plus accrued interest.
- (e) INVENTORIES - Inventories are stated at the lower of cost (first-in, first-out) or market. Service parts inventory is charged to cost of services when the part is no longer repairable or becomes excess to the Company's needs based on actual and projected service revenues.
- (f) EQUIPMENT AND LEASEHOLD IMPROVEMENTS - Depreciation is recorded on the straight-line method based on the estimated useful lives of the assets. Computer and other equipment and furniture and fixtures are depreciated over estimated useful lives of three to ten years. Improvements to leased property are depreciated over the lesser of the term of the lease or the life of the improvements.
- (g) STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION - Stock options are accounted for using the intrinsic value method permitted by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 123 "Accounting for Stock-based Compensation," whereby compensation is measured as the difference between an option's exercise price and the market value of the underlying stock at the grant date. See Note 5 for the pro forma effect on operations as if the fair value-based method of accounting provided for in SFAS No. 123 had been applied.

- (h) FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS - The carrying amount of financial instruments is a reasonable estimate of their fair value, except for the debt due BIS Partners, L.P. (Note 4) for which it is not practicable to estimate its fair value.
- (i) PER SHARE DATA AND EARNINGS PER SHARE - Basic net earnings (loss) per share amounts are based on the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. Diluted earnings per share includes the impact, when dilutive, of stock options and warrants assumed to be exercised using the treasury stock method.
- (j) ACCOUNTING STANDARDS - The Company implemented SFAS No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities" during fiscal 2001, which was the first year in which it had investments. This standard requires that all applicable investments be classified as trading securities, available-for-sale securities or held-to-maturity securities.

The Company adopted SFAS No. 133, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities" beginning April 1, 2001. SFAS No. 133 requires all derivatives to be recorded on the balance sheet at fair value and establishes new accounting rules for hedging instruments. The Company does not enter into hedging transactions or acquire derivative instruments, accordingly, SFAS No. 133 had no impact on the financial statements.

Edgar Filing: BARRISTER GLOBAL SERVICES NETWORK INC - Form 10-K

In March 2000, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued FASB Interpretation No. 44, "Accounting for Certain Transactions Involving Stock Compensation - an interpretation of APB Opinion No. 25." The adoption of this interpretation, effective July 1, 2000, did not have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

The Company will adopt SFAS No. 141, "Business Combinations", SFAS No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets" and SFAS No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets" on April 1, 2002. SFAS No. 141 requires that the purchase method be used for all business combinations initiated after June 30, 2001. SFAS No. 142 changes the accounting for goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite lives from an amortization method to an impairment approach. SFAS No. 144 establishes a single accounting model for long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale and it expands the presentation of discontinued operations to include more disposal transactions. The pronouncements are not expected to have an impact on the financial statements.

(2) DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

On May 5, 2000, the Company sold substantially all of the assets of the Company's software business to Keystone Solutions US, Inc. ("Keystone"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Keystone Software PLC. The selling price was $8,000,000 in cash plus the assumption by Keystone of certain liabilities. The selling price was subject to adjustment in the event that the net assets delivered differed from amounts stipulated in the agreement or if there are any contingent, hidden or undisclosed liabilities relating to the purchased assets or the software business. The Company agreed to indemnify Keystone with respect to any breach of its representations and warranties (subject to a $50,000 basket and a cap of the purchase price paid) or any breach of any covenant of the Company contained in the Asset Purchase Agreement. The Company also agreed to indemnify Keystone with respect to claims or actions pending at or arising after the closing date (May 5, 2000) that relate to the operation of the software business prior to that date. Of the selling price, $800,000 was held in escrow by Keystone for the payment of any of the above claims. During fiscal 2001, $326,000 of the escrow was paid to Keystone based on agreements reached to finalize claims that occurred. The Company received payments of $238,000 from the escrow during the year ended March 31, 2001. The balance of the escrow, which amounted to $236,000 at March 31, 2001, was recorded as a receivable on the balance sheet and full payment was received by the Company in May, 2001.

The pre-tax net gain on the sale of the software business was $3,936,000. This was net of a loss of $177,000 incurred from the measurement date of April 5, 2000 to the closing date.

(3) SHORT TERM INVESTMENTS AND MARKETABLE SECURITIES

Short-term investments and marketable securities are classified as held-to-maturity securities based on the Company's ability and intent to hold the securities until maturity. The securities are recorded at amortized cost adjusted for the accretion of discounts or cost plus accrued interest.

Short-term investments consist of certificates of deposits and/or corporate debt instruments. The securities have a term of less than one year and are recorded at amortized cost adjusted for the accretion of discounts or cost plus accrued interest. The carrying value of the short term investments approximates its fair value.

Marketable securities consist of mortgage-backed securities and/or corporate debt instruments and are expected to mature in less than two years.

(4) NOTE PAYABLE AND LONG-TERM DEBT

A summary of long-term debt follows:

	March 31
	2002	2001
	(In thousands)
Term note with BIS Partners, L.P. (BIS)	$ 265	$ 653
Other	69	126

Total long term debt	334	779
Less current installments	307	424
	-----	-----
Long-term debt, excluding current installments	$ 27	$ 355
	=====	=====

The BIS term note is repayable in equal monthly installments of principal and interest of $35,000. The note bears interest at the prime rate plus 3.5% (8.25% at March 31, 2002) and is supported by an agreement granting a security interest in all equipment, inventories and receivables. The agreement, among other things, requires the Company to maintain certain financial ratios, prohibits dividend payments, and restricts capital expenditures, lease obligations and executive compensation. The Company was in compliance with all covenants in the agreement.

BIS is 87.5% owned either directly or beneficially by certain officers and directors of the Company. These same officers and directors own approximately 30% of the Company's common stock.

Payments on long-term debt are estimated to be due as follows:

2003	$ 307
2004	27

(5) STOCK OPTIONS AND WARRANTS

The Company has stock incentive plans to which it has allocated 1,564,000 shares of its authorized common stock. Under the plans, options are granted to key employees and directors at prices determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors but not at a price less than the stock's market value at date of grant. The options granted may qualify as incentive stock options and are exercisable over a period of ten years.

A summary of stock option activity follows:

	2002		2001
	Shares Subject to Options (thousands)	Weighted Average Exercise Price	Shares Subject to Options (thousands)	Weighted Average Exercise Price
Outstanding beginning of year	574	$ 1.10	910	$ 1.05

	=====		=====
Reserved for grant, end of year	73		163
	=====		=====
Weighted average fair value of options granted during year	$ 0.24		$ 0.52
	=====		=====

At March 31, 2002, the range of exercise prices and weighted average remaining contractual life of outstanding options was $.46 - $1.63 and 6.5 years, respectively. In fiscal 2000, 182,000 shares of stock were issued under the plans as stock bonuses in payment for amounts due certain employees and directors. This transaction was accounted for as a non-cash activity in 2000. The per share weighted average fair values of stock options granted was computed using the Black Scholes option-pricing model with the following assumptions:

2002	2001	2000
-----	-----	-----

Edgar Filing: BARRISTER GLOBAL SERVICES NETWORK INC - Form 10-K

Risk-free interest rate	4.69%	5.22%	6.46%
Price volatility	41.7%	42.0%	42.0%
Dividend yield	0%	0%	0%
Expected term in years	7	7	7

The Company applies APB Opinion No. 25 in accounting for the Plans and, since options have been granted with exercise prices equal to the market value per share, no compensation cost has been recognized in the financial statements. Had the Company determined compensation cost based on the fair value of options at the grant date, the reported net loss from continuing operations for 2002, 2001, and 2000 would be increased by $123,000, $207,000, and $96,000, respectively, resulting in a $(0.10), $(0.03), and $(0.07) loss per share from continuing operations for 2002, 2001, and 2000 respectively.

The following warrants are outstanding at March 31, 2002:

Number of Shares -----	Exercise Price -----	Expiration Date -----
450,000	1.93	August 31, 2005

The warrants were issued on August 31, 1995 when the Company entered into a modification agreement in which BIS agreed to forgive $450,000 in debt.

19

(6) PENSION AND SAVINGS PLAN

The Company has a defined contribution retirement plan covering all eligible employees. The Company partially matches employee contributions to the Plan. Expense under the plan was $25,000 in 2002, $27,000 in 2001 and $37,000 in 2000.

(7) INCOME TAXES

The composition of income tax expense (benefit) for continuing operations is as follows:

	----- 2002 -----	2001	2000 -----
	(In thousands)
Current:
Federal	$ (329)	$ (215)	$ -

	(158)	48	(1,146)
	-----	-----	-----
	$ (487)	$ (192)	$ (1,146)
	=====	=====	=====

No current tax benefit was recorded in fiscal 2000 due to the operating losses incurred. The current tax benefit recorded in 2001 resulted from the offset of the operating loss against the gain realized on the sale of the Company's software business in that year. The current tax benefit recorded in 2002 is based on the estimated refund of taxes paid in the prior year by carrying back the fiscal 2002 operating loss. The deferred tax benefit recorded in 2000 was based on the amount of deferred tax assets which were expected to be realized based on a projection of taxable income in fiscal 2001. The deferred tax expense recorded in 2001 resulted from the reversal of certain deductible temporary differences during that year. The deferred tax benefit recorded in 2002 is based on the amount of deferred tax assets which are expected to be realized from the carryback of future tax expenses from the reversal of certain deductible temporary differences.

Total income taxes differ from the amount computed by applying the Federal statutory rate (34%) to the loss from continuing operations as follows:

	----- 2002	2001	----- 2000
	(In thousands)
Income taxes at federal statutory rate	$ (546)	$ (132)	$ (594)
State tax effect	(24)	(16)	(70)

Other	2	7	57
	-----	-----	-----
	$ (487)	$ (192)	$ (1,146)
	=====	=====	=====

20

The components of deferred tax assets (computed using an expected effective tax rate) are as follows:

March 31
----- 2002	2001

(In thousands)

Edgar Filing: BARRISTER GLOBAL SERVICES NETWORK INC - Form 10-K

Net operating loss carryforward	$ 244	$ 244

Depreciation	52	55
Vacation pay	57	60
Bad debt allowance	46	61
Deferred compensation	154	-
Other	41	38
	-----	-----
Net deferred tax asset	849	610
Less valuation allowance	691	610
	-----	-----
	$ 158 $	-

The Company's net operating loss carryforward, totaling $640,000, relates to pre-ownership change losses, which can be utilized at the rate of $80,000 per year through 2009.

Based on the consideration of the weight of both positive and negative evidence as required by SFAS No. 109, management has determined that it is more likely than not that a portion of the deferred tax assets remaining at March 31, 2002 will not be realized. Therefore, only certain realizable tax benefits were established in the statements of operations for the year ended March 31, 2002, since the Company has reserved for the tax effect of net deductible temporary differences and loss carryforwards. These benefits will be recorded in future periods as they are realized or as their realization becomes predictable.

The income tax provision associated with the gain from the sale of the software business (see Note 2) is higher than the statutory tax rate since goodwill valued at $986,000 on the books had a zero basis for tax purposes. The provision includes current taxes of $774,000 and deferred taxes of $1,098,000. The deferred taxes resulted from the use of tax loss carryforwards from prior years and the reversal of temporary differences between book and tax on the assets sold. The Company had no tax expense or benefit on the earnings (loss) from discontinued operations for 2000 due to its operating loss.

(8) LEASE COMMITMENTS

The Company conducts its operations from leased facilities and uses certain equipment primarily under operating lease arrangements. Real estate taxes, insurance, and maintenance expenses are obligations of the Company. It is expected that in the normal course of business, leases that expire will be renewed or replaced. Total rental expense for continuing operations was $368,000 in 2002, $381,000 in 2001 and $370,000 in 2000.

On June 18, 2002 the Company entered into a 10 year operating lease agreement for the construction and occupancy of a new corporate operations center and headquarters in Buffalo, New York. Anticipated commencement date for rental payments is late fall 2002. The expected rental payments on the new facility effective December 1, 2002 are included in the following future minimum rental payments.

Edgar Filing: BARRISTER GLOBAL SERVICES NETWORK INC - Form 10-K

Future minimum rental payments for continuing operations required under leases that have initial or remaining noncancellable lease terms in excess of one year are: $363,000 in 2003, $449,000 in 2004, $390,000 in 2005, $378,000 in 2006, $339,000 in 2007, and $2,079,000 for 2008 through 2013.

(9) SEGMENT INFORMATION AND MAJOR CUSTOMERS

Since the sale of the software business in fiscal 2001 the Company operates in a single business segment.

Sales to the Company's largest three customers accounted for 36% of total revenues from continuing operations for 2002. In 2001 one customer accounted for 11% of revenues from continuing operations, while in 2000 two customers accounted for 21% of revenues from continuing operations. No other customer accounted for more than 10% of total revenue in any of the three years in the period ended March 31, 2002. The Company performs hardware maintenance services for end users under various subcontracts from these customers. These subcontracts can be canceled with 30 days notice.

(11) CONTINGENCIES

The Company is a party to various legal proceedings incidental to its business. Management believes that none of these legal proceedings will have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations or liquidity.

(12) QUARTERLY FINANCIAL DATA (UNAUDITED)

The following is a summary of quarterly financial data for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2002 and March 31, 2001. Amounts for 2001 have been restated to exclude discontinued operations, which are more fully discussed in Note 2 to the financial statements.

(1) The increase in the fourth quarter operating loss for 2002 resulted from certain non-recurring expenses incurred in that quarter. In January, 2002, the Company hired Dr. William O. Bray as its president and chief executive officer to succeed Mr. Henry P. Semmelhack who held those positions since the Company's incorporation in 1982. Mr. Semmelhack retired as of March 31, 2002. Consistent with Mr. Semmelhack's employment contract and his retirement, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors approved a deferred compensation arrangement for past services rendered. In addition, Mr. David L. Blankenship, former Senior Vice President of Operations, left the Company at the end of February. The Company agreed to buy out the remaining term of Mr. Blankenship's employment contract, cancel a loan and accrued interest outstanding to Mr. Blankenship in return for the stock held as collateral for the loan, plus pay for certain additional expenses. The impact of these non-recurring expenses in the fourth quarter, including additional salary costs during the transition period to the new CEO, relocation expenses for Dr. Bray, the value of the deferred compensation arrangement with Mr. Semmelhack, and the settlement with Mr. Blankenship were approximately $753,000. In addition a provision of $532,000 for service parts inventory deemed to be excess to the Company's needs was recorded in the fourth quarter of 2002. This provision resulted from a change in the mix of equipment being serviced under contract, an analysis of the usage of the service parts inventory and assessment of the current value of the inventory. These additional non-recurring costs in the fourth quarter amounted to $1,285,000 or 10% of fiscal 2002 revenues.
