PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why the Form 10-K, 11-K, 20-F, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

In its current report on Form 8-K dated January 18, 2005, the Company announced it would be restating certain previously filed information, including its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2004 and its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003. The Company is endeavoring to complete the restatement process and will file the amended forms as soon as is practicable. However, because the restated process has not been completed, the Company has not yet filed its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarters ended June 30, 2004, September 30, 2004, March 31, 2005 or its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004. Until that information is filed, the Company is unable to file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2005.

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?
 Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made:

The Company anticipates that the results of operations reported in its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal period ended June 30, 2005 will be significantly different from the results reported in the Company's Form 10-Q for the same period in 2004, and that the restated results for the fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2004 will be significantly different from the results previously reported in the Form 10-Q. At this time, however, pending completion of the independent investigation, and the ongoing restatement process described above in Part III, the Company cannot quantify with certainty the extent and nature of those differences.
