On October 6, 2006, Amkor Technology, Inc. (the Company ) issued a press release announcing that it filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC ) its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2006 (the Quarterly Report ). In addition, Amkor announced that it filed its annual report on Form 10-K/A for the year ended December 31, 2005 and its quarterly report on Form 10-Q/A for the quarter ended March 31, 2006 containing restatements of financial results for 2003, 2004 and 2005 and the first quarters of 2005 and 2006. The restatements arise from the completion of the previously announced investigation of a Special Committee of the Board of Directors, assisted by independent counsel, of Amkor s historical stock option practices.

On August 15, 2006, Amkor disclosed that it had received letters from U.S. Bank National Association as trustee and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. as trustee alleging that the failure of Amkor to file its Quarterly Report constituted a default under the indentures governing each of the Company s outstanding series of notes. With the filing of the Quarterly Report, Amkor has cured this alleged default under the indentures. The cure of the alleged default under the indentures renders the consent solicitation unnecessary, and, accordingly, the solicitation is being terminated by the Company. Consistent with the terms of the Consent Solicitation Statements, Amkor will not accept any of the consents for payment and will not pay a consent fee to the holders of any series of notes.

A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
