LUBBOCK, Texas (December 8, 2004) - Alamosa Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ: APCS) and AirGate PCS, Inc. (Nasdaq: PCSA) today announced that their Boards of Directors have approved a definitive agreement under which AirGate will merge with and into a wholly-owned subsidiary of Alamosa. Edgar Filing: ALAMOSA HOLDINGS INC - Form 8-K

Under the terms of the definitive agreement, AirGate shareholders will receive 2.87 Alamosa shares for every share of AirGate common stock they hold. Based on Alamosa's share price, as of the close of business on December 7, 2004, the transaction is valued at $33 per AirGate share. Including the assumption of net debt of approximately $238 million, the aggregate purchase price is approximately $630 million. In addition, AirGate shareholders will have the option to elect cash consideration in place of Alamosa stock, up to an aggregate amount of $100 million, with the per share cash consideration based on the average closing price of Alamosa stock in the ten trading days prior to the completion of the transaction multiplied by 2.87.

David E. Sharbutt, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Alamosa, said, "We believe that this combination creates the premier Sprint PCS Affiliate with over 23 million total POPs, over 18 million covered POPs and approximately 1.25 million subscribers. We believe that the increased scale of our combined company will provide meaningful operational and financial benefits, and will be a platform for future growth and value creation. In addition, with the significantly increased market capitalization, the combined company's common stock should appeal to a broader investor group going forward and provide AirGate's stockholders with a substantially more liquid market."

Thomas M. Dougherty, Chief Executive Officer of AirGate, said, "Alamosa and AirGate share a common culture of building shareholder value. With Alamosa's proven track record of delivering results and successful acquisition integration, we believe that with our attractive markets, larger scale and the strong support of Sprint, we have the formula for success."

The transaction is subject to customary regulatory review, approval by Sprint and approval of the shareholders of AirGate and Alamosa. The transaction is expected to close in the second quarter of 2005.
